King Korn Klub Starts Festivities for Fall Festival

Kangaroo Kourt Wednesday Night Brings Culprits to Form Basis of Parade Next Week.

From Thursday's Daily
The first of the festivities that ushers in the four days of the King Korn festival, was staged last evening at the platform at Fifth and Main streets when the first Kangaroo Kourt was held.

The court was presided over by Judges William A. Robertson and Charles E. Martin, who believe me, are real convicting judges, a prisoner in this court having as much chance as a snowball on a hot Nebraska day.

The officers of the court were sent scouring the streets and bringing before the court many of the leading citizens of the community who are to disport in the great corn festival as prisoners in the parades to be held prior to the opening of the fall festival in September.

The prisoners sentenced last night as well as the result of the Saturday night sentencing will be required to march in the parade to be held on next Wednesday evening and open their fun and frolic the second year of the corn carnival which was such a success last year.

The prisoners sentenced and the penalties attached thereto was as follows:

H. A. Schneider, charged with making statement that banking hours will have to be increased to comply with NRA requirements and kicking about the same. Sentence: March in parade wearing crown of Blue Eagle feathers.

John E. Turner, charged with issuing distress warrants. Sentence: Dress in a manner to indicate that you were in distress and march in parade.

L. S. Devoe, charged with saying that 3.2% is not a passing grade. Sentence: Carry a banner in the parade with motto "I favor 98% proof."

C. H. Martin, charged with crabbing the Presbyterian Kittenball team out of a game. Sentence: Dress as a kittenball player, wear a mask and carry a ball bat in the parade.

Roy Otradosky, charged with selling castor oil to the discomfort of many people. Sentence: Carry banner in parade with the inscription "I'll never do it again."

Ralph Wehrlein, charged with claiming to be a better comedian than Eddie Cantor. Sentence: March as a clown in the parade.

Gilbert Hirtz, charged with saying the girl kittenballers are the best players. Sentence: March as a girl kittenballer in the parade.

Henry Donat, charged with serving too many pretzels with each stein. Sentence: March in parade carrying large string of pretzels.

VANDALS DAMAGE FRONT

From Thursday's Daily
Last night about 12:30 Officer David Pickrel of the night police force, in making his rounds in the business section of the city, discovered that the front of the C. A. Rosencrans barber shop on North 5th street, had been smeared up. The two large windows as well as the door had been splashed with yellow paint that had apparently been thrown from a can onto the glass and had run over practically all of the surface of the glass. The incident attracted much attention in the morning hours when the dwellers in the business section discovered the work. The reason for the act is not apparent and the owner of the shop unable to place any reason for persons committing this act of vandalism. The paint was removed by Frank Gobelman after considerable work and the premises restored to normal, altho still bearing some trace of the splashing.

SUFFERS SUDDEN ATTACK

H. E. Wentworth, proprietor of the Cream of the West bakery, was taken suddenly ill Wednesday afternoon and for a few moments his case was quit grave. Mr. Wentworth had started from his bakery to his room on an upper floor of the Bekin building, suddenly becoming ill and was taken to the office of Dr. R. P. Stover in the building where aid was given him. The patient was taken to his room and at last reports resting much easier and rallying from the effects of the heart attack.

RECOVERING FROM OPERATION

The host of friends of E. A. Lorenz will be pleased to learn that he is now doing very nicely at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha, where he was operated on Tuesday. Mr. Lorenz came through the ordeal in fine shape and is now doing just as well as could be possible under the circumstances. The many friends are hopeful that he may soon be able to return home and resume his usual activities.

Grocery Stores and Markets Set New Store Hours

Will Open Hereafter at 7 a. m. Instead of 8, and Remain Open Until 6:30 p. m.

The retail section of the Chamber of Commerce at their session Wednesday voted to approve the changes in hours suggested by the grocers and meat markets to cover these two lines of business.

There had been more or less complaint of the fact that the shops did not open until 8 a. m., from many householders who found it necessary to purchase their meat or groceries at an early hour in order to have them sent to the homes.

In order to accommodate those who may wish to order their food supplies while en route to work or on the way home from the daily tasks, the hours hereafter will be from 7 a. m. to 6:30 p. m., which it is felt will be much more accommodating to the patrons.

The stores, however, will continue the Sunday closing as adopted some time ago and will be closed all day.

The other lines of business will not be affected by the changes proposed and will continue at the present hours of 8 to 6 with open evenings on Wednesday and Saturday.

PLACED UNDER ARREST

Wednesday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Lancaster was called to the Burlington station by a report that a man was sitting on the main line tracks of the railroad between the station and the bridge and refusing to move. The officer on reaching the scene found a man giving the name of William Lee, of Pacific Junction, sitting on the rail of the track and the man was taken into custody. The section men had passed that locality a short time before and had been forced to remove the man from the track before they could proceed and they had ordered him to leave, but he had failed to do so. A charge of intoxication was filed against the man and he will be arraigned in court today.

The defendant was arraigned in court this afternoon and made a plea of guilty to the charge of intoxication and was accordingly fined $10 and costs.

LADIES GIVE PROGRAM

Wednesday afternoon Plattsmouth radio listeners were afforded a delightful musical treat when Mrs. Robert B. Hayes and Mrs. E. G. Shellenbarger, members of the choir of the First Methodist church, were heard over station KOIL at Council Bluffs.

The ladies gave several duet numbers as well as solos, the old and loved hymns being presented in the period from 3:30 to 4 p. m. which is sponsored by the Christian Home of Council Bluffs. The splendid voices of the ladies came over the radio in fine shape and the numbers that they presented were enjoyed to the utmost by the large number of Plattsmouth people listening in.

ARREST AUTO DRIVER

Chief of Police Libershal this morning arrested a man giving the name of John D. Ford, Nebraska City, who was charged with reckless driving. The motorist was coming down Chicago avenue and ran into the wagon and horse of Ignatz Straka, almost demolishing the vehicle. The man arrested was strong in his objections to accompanying but was turned over to the county authorities to be lodged in the county jail as he stated he would lay out a fine.

Elect Starrett Teacher in City High School

Former Instructor Here Will Take Over Work in Commercial Dept.—Harold Jordan Resigns.

The board of education Wednesday afternoon elected Leland L. Starrett, former teacher in the high school, as the head of the commercial department of the city high school.

The notification was given the board a few days ago by Harold Jordan, the former head of this department, that he had accepted a position as teacher in the Valentine schools, his home city, and would not be able to fulfill his contract with the local school.

Mr. Starrett's selection will be very pleasing to the patrons of the school as he was a former teacher here in this department of the school, leaving here two years ago when the board of education made curtailment in the faculty of the school.

Mr. Starrett has completed his master's degree at the University of Nebraska, as well as a degree at the Gregg school in Chicago, one of the best known shorthand schools in the country.

The new teacher is able and efficient in every way in his work and the board of education feels fortunate that they have secured one so familiar with the Plattsmouth schools and who can start the year's work without delay.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

The announcement of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Lucille Livingston, of Nebraska City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Livingston, and well known in this city, was made Tuesday at Nebraska City.

The announcement was made at a luncheon given by Mrs. C. J. Shafer. Miss Livingston is to be married to Donald Sutherland of Carroll, Iowa.

Engagement announcement and wedding date of September 16 were made through the placecards Mrs. Schaefer had at the table. Inside of a cupid's match case the guests found "The latest match—Lu and Don." On the inside lid was a heart-shaped picture of Miss Livingston and Mr. Sutherland with the date of the wedding.

Luncheon was served at two tables, one seating eight, the other, four. Flower decorations were goldenglow bouquets. On the table pink candles burned.

During the afternoon contract was played at which Miss Kathleen Troop of Plattsmouth took first prize. Miss Livingston was given a guest gift.

Guests were Helen and Josephine Davis, Marion von Gillern, Mrs. Ernest Poling, Jane Cleveland, Mrs. Robert Thygeson, Wealtha Harding, Mrs. Mike Busby and Miss Carol Sutherland of Lincoln, Kathleen Troop of Plattsmouth, and the honoree.

For several years she has been physical education instructor for girls in the Nebraska City schools.

Mr. Sutherland was affiliated with Sigma Chi while he was a student at Nebraska. He is a district superintendent of Continental Oil Company with headquarters at Carroll, where the young couple will make their home.

IMPROVES STORE

The Black & White grocery in this city has made a few changes in the interior of their store room that affords them a great deal more room and much handier for the customers and the clerks as well. The checking counter that was formerly located in the center of the store has been moved to the west side of the store room and giving more room for the patrons of the store as they do their shopping.

STUDENTS SEEK PLACES

Finding homes in Plattsmouth where former students and prospective new students of Plattsmouth high school may work for their board and room is a serious problem both for the large number of students seeking such places and the school officials who are anxious to get them located. A dozen students have already sent word that they must find places to stay or they will not be able to come to school this year. This number involves five of last year's students and additional new ones. If anyone is interested in securing the help of a school girl for home-work, please call Mr. Patterson.

WEEPING WATER JAIL BURNS

From Friday's Daily
The city jail at Weeping Water, a structure that has from time to time held the less dangerous law violators that might fall into the hands of the officers there, is no more. The frame structure which bore the dignified title of jail was one that would not withstand the efforts of any determined assault but had served in the past to hold many who had drunk well, but nose wisely.

Last night the structure was found to be in flames and despite efforts to save the ancient building, it was soon a smoldering ruin and the city without the services of a prison.

The cause of the fire is unknown.

City Schools Set for Opening September 5th

Assignment of Teachers and Subjects Made for Opening of Term—To Close Two Schools.

The Plattsmouth public schools will open Tuesday morning, September 5, with high school registration August 30 and 31. Mr. Patterson particularly wishes all high school students that can register within these dates. There will be no registration for grade or junior high pupils but they are asked to report for regular school work Tuesday morning, September 5.

Monday, September 4, will be spent in teachers meetings and organizing the school in preparation to opening the next day. There has been considerable reorganizing and should there be any questions regarding the assignment of teachers or classes the parents are asked to call the superintendent's office, No. 103.

The First Ward and Mercerville schools are to be closed this year and these pupils are to attend the Central building. Another change to be noted is that the fifth grade will remain at Wintersteen. Pupils who were in the fourth grade at Wintersteen school last year unless they have moved to another ward are asked to report to the Wintersteen school for their fifth grade.

The kindergarten will run a half day in each of the three wards. Community Meeting is Held Here Friday Evening

Planning Events for Corn Festival; Second Meeting at Mynard Tuesday Night.

From Saturday's Daily
The members of the Korn Klub gathered last evening at the American Legion building with their friends from the adjacent communities present to talk over the plans for the events for the corn festival to be held here in September.

There was a fine group of the residents of the adjacent territory present and who are enthusiastically planning on helping out in the big fall festival.

The second meeting will be held at the Mynard community building on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, which will be presided over by Charles Barnard as chairman of this section of the Korn Klub.

It is planned to have all of the communities join in the Century of Progress parade on Thursday of the fall festival, this parade to depict the growth of transportation and motive power from the earliest days of the covered wagons and Indian conveyances down to the latest type of automotive power.

The discussion was enjoyed as the members enjoyed the luncheon that had been prepared for the occasion by James Farnham and which placed all in a receptive mood for the occasion.

During the evening remarks were offered by Mr. Barnard, H. L. Gayer, E. H. Spangler, Henry F. Nolting, A. A. Wetenkamp and Floyd Becker, all of whom were pleased with the prospects of the fine fall festival and will lend their enthusiastic support to the various activities.

It was decided on by the club that they will wear the red and yellow shirts on only Wednesday and Saturday, but will wear the caps during the time of the festival and in the preceding days.

RECEIVES PROMOTION

From Friday's Daily
Virgil Hutton, one of the Plattsmouth members of the C. M. T. C. at Fort Crook, has been selected among the students for company honors. The young man has served as the first sergeant of Co. A of the student regiment and now has been advanced to the rank of student lieutenant in the company. This is his fourth year of military training and he has been outstanding in his work at the camp, both in his drill work and in various athletic events.

The local young man was one of the winners in the boxing contests at the fort last evening and will be able to get into the finals of the boxing events which will be held as the camp activities close.

New River Funds to Provide Jobs for 10,000 Men

To Spend $12,000,000 Between St. Joseph and Sioux City; Speed Is Promised.

President Roosevelt Thursday approved a public works allotment of $14,153,108 for river work between Kansas City and Sioux City.

This is expected to provide work for possibly 10 thousand men this fall and winter, all to be employed as near their homes as possible.

Approximately two million dollars will be expended between Kansas City and St. Joseph, said an Associated Press dispatch last night, and the remainder between St. Joseph and Sioux City, especially near the towns of Nodaway, Mo.; White Cloud, Kans.; Rulo, Neb.; Tarkio, Mo.; Corning, Mo.; Nebraska City, Plattsmouth, Omaha, Florence and Dakota City, Neb., and Council Bluffs and Sioux City, Ia.

The funds will be placed at the disposal of Captain Theodore Wyman of the United States army, district engineer in charge of river work, who recently was forced to suspend operations due to lack of funds.

Ickes Says "No Delay."

Secretary Ickes told The World-Herald's Washington bureau that "men will be put to work without delay," with the funds provided Thursday. This sum brings to 27 million dollars the total Missouri expenditure under direction of army engineers.

All workers will be hired through the United States employment service, set up under the Wagner bill approved in the last congress.

The allocation was greeted by supporters of river development here with the greatest enthusiasm. They pointed out that this is the first concrete indication that the works administration is sympathetic to their program, and regarded it as an omen of success in the campaign for the Fort Peck reservoir and further development.

"Long Step Forward."

"A long step forward," was the response of C. E. Childe, secretary of the waterways committee of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

"Most certainly there will be considerably more channel work done at Omaha," he declared. "This will be a big help to the employment situation."

Childe explained that the channel work is 85 per cent completed up to St. Joseph, but only 5 per cent between St. Joseph and Sioux City. Therefore, he is certain that "by far the larger proportion of the appropriation" will be spent above St. Joseph.

Nearly all of this will go to construction work, since the surveying has been practically completed by the army engineers.

DOG BITES ELEPHANT

From Saturday's Daily
During the parade of the Schell Bros. circus this afternoon just after the noon hour, one of the elephants was bitten by a dog suffering from the rabies, the attack occurring near Fourth and Main streets. The animal was chased by Dr. O. Sandin to the Valley Sales pavilion where the animal was shot, but before it was possible to kill him he had attacked another dog. The animal was a stray, one of the many that run loose over the city.

Chief of Police Libershal requests that owners of dogs in all parts of the city have them tied up for the next two weeks in case it might prove that they may have been bitten by the animal. All dogs running at large will be impounded and shot to prevent the spread of the rabies.

HERE FROM WYOMING

From Thursday's Daily

He was a classmate at Nebraska of Edgar Wescott.
