Thirty Projects will Afford 700 New Jobs

Emergency Board Approves Public Work in Eight Counties—Will Boost Employment.

The job mill of Nebraska's three man emergency works board continued Friday afternoon to grind out approvals and sent delegations home to eight counties with authority to start about thirty more projects to furnish work for approximately 790 men.

Platte county got approval of fourteen projects for its towns at a total estimated cost of $12,226 which will provide work for about 125 men. Madison county, which had three projects approved Friday morning, had two more approved in the afternoon, one for fifty men on nonstate and non-federal highways leading out of Norfolk where grading will be done, holes filled, shoulders repaired, ditches improved, trees trimmed, weeds cut and culverts repaired, and the other a $405 project in Tilden for finishing a cut and clearing on Giles creek.

About sixty men can be used daily there. Two Colfax county projects were approved. Clarkson was allowed $300 for park work and the county $12,432 for river and bridge work. Hastings got approval for $9,120 of work on sewer extensions. Webster county will carry out four county road projects at a cost of $2,800.

Otoe county, one of the early birds in approvals this week, came back for more and got it as its quota hadn't been exhausted yet. Nebraska City can put more than 100 men to work on park, cemetery and gutter improvements for which $11,257 was allotted and about forty-five more men on street grading for which $5,366 was allowed. Talmage will use fifteen men on two projects, a park, lighting and drainage one for which $968 was allowed and a street and crossing project for which $612 was allotted.

Another Gage county project also was approved. It is for cutting down a stone hill in Wymore and $1,460 was authorized.

Four projects for Johnson county also got approval—two of them municipal works and two county improvements. At Sterling twelve men will be used to raise sidewalks, change the channel of a creek in a park and paint fire hydrants at a cost of $1,930.

Made Splendid Address

From Saturday's Daily: R. Foster Patterson, principal of Plattsmouth High school, was the main speaker at the annual Father and Son banquet held last night at Valley, driving over to the west Douglas county town for the event.

He was accompanied by Frank Cloidt and Elmer Sundstrom of Louisville. The banquet was largely attended, plates being laid for some 230 fathers and sons and a splendid meal was served by the Presbyterian Busy Bees.

The banquet was held in the basement dining hall of the First Baptist church, a large, modern designed edifice that would do credit to much larger towns.

Valley has long sponsored an active Boy Scout program under the American Legion, with Nels Johnson, a well known state Legionnaire and former officer in the state Legion as committee chairman. There has been developed a leadership that includes as many adult instructors in merit awards and general advancement as there are Scouts in the town, which speaks well for the interest of the men of Valley in their boys.

Rev. R. D. Murrphee, who was assigned to the charge at Valley last fall after four years spent in Louisville, has fitted into the Scout program there splendidly. He was present with his oldest son, "Bill," and welcomed the Cass county friends on their arrival.

A pleasing program of two minute toasts by "lads and their dads" was interspersed with several musical selections, including two vocal solos by Frank Cloidt, "Danny Boy" and "The Old Refrain."

Harland Herman, superintendent of schools at Valley was toastmaster and gave the various speakers fitting introductions.

The address by Mr. Patterson followed the toast portion of the program and came as a fitting climax to the evening's entertainment. It was up to Mr. Patterson's well known standard of public speaking, replete with wit and wholesome suggestion along the line of closer relations between the fathers and their sons.

Mr. Patterson defended the modern day youth as being no worse than his forefathers, despite the frequently repeated declaration that the boys of today are on the toboggan and the toboggan greased to the bottom.

The Cass county visitors arrived home at midnight after a most pleasant evening, impressed with the way Valley people support their Scouting program, of which the Father and Son banquet is but a part.
