

ENJOY FINE FESTIVAL

From Friday's Daily

Last evening the fall festival was held at the parlors of the First Methodist church, sponsored by the Epworth League of which Irene Simons is president, and participated in by the classes of the Sunday school.

The occasion was termed a booth festival and various booths were arranged which displayed canned fruits, vegetables, both fresh and canned, all of which will be donated to the Crowell Memorial Home at Blair, the Methodist hospital at Omaha and the Mother's Jewels Home at York.

The prize of the evening was given for the most attractive booth and which also contained the largest number of donations.

The booth awarded the prize was that which was arranged by the classes of Mrs. E. H. Wescott, Edgar Wescott, J. A. Capwell and Mrs. Adelaide Boynton, it being in the form of an Indian wigwam. The girls of the class of Mrs. Wescott, in Indian costume, added an attractive touch to the scene. The girls comprised Mary Ann Highfield, Mary Kathryn Wiles, Shirley Seiver, Beatrice Arn and Mary Hughes.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games under the direction of Alton Rolland, while Superintendent L. S. Devoe appeared with his magician act that proved a real treat.

VISIT IN THE CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Ebinger of Plainview, Nebraska, who have been here visiting with the relatives and old time friends for a few days, departed Wednesday for their home. Mr. and Mrs. Ebinger were residents of Plattsmouth for a great many years and very active in the community and have a large circle of friends in the county. Mr. Ebinger has been one of the leading hardware dealers in the state for many years. While here Mr. and Mrs. Ebinger were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Wideman, the former a brother of Mrs. Ebinger.

WILL HOLD ELECTION

Reports from the village of Murock are to the effect that the proposition to vote bonds for a city water system will be presented to the voters again in the near future. The proposition received a majority of the vote at the special election held on November 14th, but lacked the necessary sixty per cent of the vote to carry the measure. The town board has decided to give the voters the opportunity to again register their approval or disapproval of the city water system.

At this election there will be no attempt to revive the matter of the submission of the question of the sale of 3.2 beverage, however.

Mrs. John W. Gamble Hostess to Some Seventeen Plattsmouth Ladies Wednesday.

On Wednesday there were some seventeen of the members of the Plattsmouth W. R. C. guests of Mrs. John W. Gamble at her attractive home in Omaha, the ladies gathering to spend the day in visiting and enjoying a fine program.

The members of the party motored from this city and with well laden baskets arrived at the Gamble home where the remainder of the day was spent in a most delightful manner.

The picnic dinner, served at the noon hour, was one of the chief features of the day and served to open a most delightful social afternoon when the old friends joined in an event that all will long remember.

In addition to the Plattsmouth group, a number of former residents now living in Omaha were also guests, there including Mrs. Charles Tungate, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. A. N. Sullivan and daughters, Mrs. Asa Snider and Mrs. W. B. Elster.

During the afternoon Mrs. E. H. Wescott and Mrs. Gamble were heard in several vocal solos and duets that added to the charm of the day and were much enjoyed by the entire group.

Mrs. Lois Troop of this city gave several of her artistic readings that was a much enjoyed feature of the day.

Games and contests filled the remainder of the day and in the Bingo contest Mrs. L. W. Egenberger, Mrs. Snider and Mrs. Wescott were prize winners, while in the guessing contest the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Tungate and Mrs. Wescott for their skill in identifying the pictures of the relief corps members in the years past.

It was a late hour when the aparty returned homeward and feeling very appreciative of the hospitality of Mrs. Gamble.
