

Nehawka

Mrs. Frank Schlichtemeier, who has been quite ill at the home of her son, Paul, at Lincoln, is reported as being somewhat better at this time.

Messdames Anderson Lloyd and Wm. Wehrlein were over to Falls City on last Friday where they were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Greene.

Mr. and Mrs. George Troop were enjoying a visit and a very fine dinner on Thanksgiving day at the home of the father of Mrs. Troop, Mr. Martin Stava of Plattsmouth.

Miss Hazel Gregg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg, who is attending school at Grand Island, was a visitor at the home of her parents for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Miss Anna Gruber, who has been very poorly for some time past, and has been kept to her bed and home still remains so she cannot leave the bed, but it is hoped that she is getting some better.

Jesse Domingo, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in Nehawka last Monday and was looking after some business matters for a time. Mr. Domingo is agent for this county for the mail subscription department of the Omaha Bee News.

A farewell party was given Mrs. D. C. Rhoden on last Saturday night as she was to depart the following morning for South Dakota where she is teaching school. A large circle of her friends gathered to make the evening merry.

Mr. and Mrs. James Miller were over to Plattsmouth, going on last Thursday to spend Thanksgiving day at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Estridge and family. They remained until late Saturday, when they returned home.

Messdames D. C. Rhoden and Wm. Gorder who are teaching school at Okereek and Hidden Timber, South Dakota, respectively and who have been spending Thanksgiving vacation here returned home last Sunday to be ready for their school work on Monday morning.

S. W. Copenhagen and J. C. Snavely and their wives of Union, were attending the funeral of the late Mrs. George Fitzpatrick which was held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Boedecker on last Friday morning prior to shipping of the remains to Imperial for burial.

Uncle Thomas S. Pitman and wife were spending a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Robert H. Chapman as well as with two other daughters here and a son northeast of the city. During their stay here they have been enjoying a very pleasant time, not alone with their relatives, but their many friends here as well.

George Cooney and wife, of Nebraska City, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gilmore and William Joiner and Warren McGuire were all in Nehawka on last Friday, where they were in attendance at the funeral of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sudder, Marilyn Mae, an account of whose death and burial will be found elsewhere in this paper.

J. H. Steffens was over to Plattsmouth last Monday, he being one of the panel of jurors drawn for the present term of district court, and as he has been one of the regular panel he has made a trip every day, being merely a visitor at the court however, as he was not chosen on any case and was permitted to return home as soon as the jurors were selected on the different cases. In order to know that he is a real jurymen, he would like to serve on some case.

Enjoyed Very Pleasant Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessel were more than pleased last week, when their son, Arno Wessel and family arrived from Des Moines for a visit over Thanksgiving day and which was continued over the week end. They also visited in Omaha Sunday, being a guest of relatives and friends, returning that evening to their home in Des Moines, where Mr. Wessel is employed.

Needing Three Score Ten
On last Sunday Nels Anderson was celebrating very quietly at his place of business the passing of his 69th birthday anniversary. Mr. Anderson was born in Denmark December 3, 1864, where he made his home for some twenty-two years and then came to America, direct to the garden spot of this the best country on earth, good old Cass county, Nebraska.

Uncle Nels has recognized this fact, for he has remained here during the forty-seven years since he discovered this wonderful place to reside. Here is to you, Uncle Nels, may you live long and happily here and enjoy the utmost prosperity among the many staunch friends whom you have made here.

Gets Many Happy Letters
The friends of Stuart Rough tell of his receiving many letters of congratulation on having attained the three score and ten mark a week ago. In addition he also received congratulations and felicitations in person from a large number of his near-by friends. Well, here is to you, my good friend, may the days to come bring you greater happiness, health and prosperity than those which have slipped by.

Daughter Dies of Pneumonia
Marilyn Mae, the five months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sudder, passed away at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton, of Nehawka, on November 29th. The infant had been ill for several days with whooping cough, which developed into bronchial pneumonia and death soon followed.

Little Marilyn Mae was born June 22 in Nehawka. She is survived by her parents, grandparents and many other relatives.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Friday, December 1st, with Rev. Taylor, of Union, in charge.

Entertain for Thanksgiving.
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein entertained at their country home on last Thursday and had as their guests for the occasion Messrs. and Messdames W. O. Troop, Wm. Gorder and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Troop of Omaha.

Dies at Seventy-three.
Mrs. George Fitzpatrick, born in Virginia and a resident of Nebraska for the past half century and who made her home for forty years north of Nehawka and west of Murray, later moving to Imperial where her husband died about two years ago, had been making her home for nearly the past year with her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Boedecker, passed away last Thursday at the home of the daughter, Mrs. Boedecker, where she had been ill for some weeks.

A short funeral was held from the home conducted by the Rev. Otto Eggelbreton, pastor of the United Brethren church of which the deceased was formerly a member. But since going to the west she united with the Methodist church of Imperial. Following the funeral here the remains were taken to Imperial where another service was conducted.

Junior in Final Drills for 'Spooks' Next Friday Night

A Full House Is Expected to See Thrilling Mystery Play—Ticket Sale Is Now On.

The curtain will go up on "Spooks," the Junior class mystery play, Friday night in the high school auditorium at 8:00. For this reason, Friday night is an outstanding night in the history of the Junior class, and will mean the conclusion of five weeks of hard work on the part of the play cast and the director, Mr. Figley. "Spooks" is a mystery play from start to finish, the kind which has been so popular in fiction and on the screen during the past several years. It is a story of an old man who made a queer will, and of the mysterious death of members of his household. The solution of the mystery does not come until the closing lines of the play, and it will fascinate you as you endeavor to weave together the threads of the story into your idea of the solution.

The lighting and scenery arrangements will be different from the ordinary play and are designed to aid their effect to the mystery theme. The production of the Junior class play is a traditional part of the activities of the high school and requires a tremendous amount of work on the part of those who participate, as well as those who assist in the arrangements. Mr. Figley has had the burden of the directing, assisted whenever requested by Miss Helene Perry. Miss Florence Beighley, one of the sponsors of the class, has had charge of the financial arrangements, while the properties have been in charge of Herbert Minor and William Edwards. Miss Henriksen has charge of the program.

An advance sale of tickets was begun yesterday by a large group of the class and it is hoped that the high school auditorium will be packed Friday night to enjoy this play. A student orchestra will play and several specialty numbers will be given between acts.

FRATERNAL FORBEARANCE

Uncle Ephraim, the darky, an honest old soul, With an ebony hued skin, but a big heart of gold, Was a most faithful worker in homes over town, Where his skill in housecleaning had won him renown.

His virtues, while many, were frequent o'erest, By an enduring fault—he was prone to forget; He'd just finished a job on the grassy front lot At the home of MacSparren, a dour, canny Scot.

Mac had paid him in coin of the realm in spot cash, And Ephraim, well pleased, left for home with a dash. Came the morrow, faint memory had reached just the spot, Where he couldn't recall if he'd been paid or not.

So he took some time off, and with smile-covered face Soon met up with MacSparren, and thus stated his case— Mr. Mac, can you spare me a dollar to pay For de work w't I done on your lawn d'othch day?"

Why, you honery black rascal, d'you think I'm a dunce To pay you again what I've paid you for once? It's law and the gospel I'm talkin' to you— If you think you can make me, just go on and sue."

Quoth Eph: "In mortarium or suspension of debt, I'll 'bide by your wish, 'n' take w'ot I can get; But they's a whole lot o' things 'at I'd sooner do ruther 'N bring a law suit 'gin a Masonical brotkeh." "K"

LEGION TO ASK FUNDS

Beatrice.—Beatrice legionnaires at a meeting Monday night decided to prepare cost estimates of airport improvements and submit them to Governor Bryan with a request for approval of a CWA allotment for the labor. The port fell into disuse two years ago when a non-profit corporation formed for its development encountered financial difficulties.

Slow retirement of a $1,000 scrip issue for acquisition of right of way for a memorial drive along the Blue river also was considered by the veterans. Only $2 has been redeemed during several months of scrip circulation. CWA funds for labor are now being used, but scrip money is needed for right of way. The legion and legion auxiliary will make a campaign soon to encourage scrip redemption.

SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. H. L. Thomas enjoyed the passing of her natal day on Tuesday and last evening was given a most delightful surprise by a large party of the friends who joined in making the occasion one long to be remembered with pleasure.

In honor of the event Mrs. Thomas was presented with a number of very handsome and beautiful gifts.

The members of the party enjoyed the evening in dancing at the popular and attractive Barrows club house south of the city.

At a suitable hour dainty refreshments were served and which featured the birthday cakes baked by Mrs. W. E. Mrasek, a daughter.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE

Miss Marie Vallery was hostess at a very delightful bridge party last evening, a number of Louisville and Plattsmouth friends being guests. The Vallery home was arranged with the bright colored Christmas decorations which added to the attractiveness of the scene. In the playing the first honors were won by Miss Katharine Diers of Louisville while Miss Lynn Keller, of Louisville, was awarded the second prize of the evening.

Dainty and delicious refreshments were served at an appropriate hour by the hostess to add to the pleasures of the evening.

BAILIFF IS ILL

From Monday's Daily
William Atchison, bailiff of the district court, was ill at his home in Elmwood today and unable to be present at court when it convened this morning. In the enforced absence of Mr. Atchison, Judge James T. Dergley appointed E. A. Cook of this city as special bailiff to serve until Mr. Atchison is able to resume his work. The district court in session without Mr. Atchison seems strange to the court house force as the genial bailiff has served in this capacity for the past ten years.

JOLLY WORKERS CLUB

Jolly Workers project club met on last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Donald Born. The lesson was prepared by the leaders and the members had samples of the different things which were found to be very delicious.

Plans were made to have a Christmas party for members and their families. There was also one more new member present. The business was finished and the hostesses, Mrs. Fred Buechler and Mrs. Donald Born served delicious refreshments.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Herman Graham.

Cass County Farm Bureau Notes

Copy furnished from Office of County Agent Waincott

4-H Exhibits Entered at Chicago.
Cass county's seven delegates to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago left Omaha Saturday evening with the Nebraska delegation. They were Robert Wall, Robert Foreman and Clyde Althouse, Nebraska's champion poultry judges; Verna Miller and Beatrice Williams, the champion canning team; Thelma Ward, the state champion health girl and Vincent Rehmeier, the state swine club champion. Cass county is also represented by 4-H club exhibits in Chicago. A jar of corn canned by Dorothy Bagg, a jar of beets by Evelyn Fries and a can of plums by Alberta Cornell were taken from the budget exhibited at state fair by the "I Can Make" club of Nehawka. A jar of rhubarb canned by Verna Miller was taken from the "Conservative Canners" club exhibit from Elmwood, to be sent to Chicago, also.

Included in the Nebraska exhibit is a pair of curtains made by Lois Giles of Plattsmouth which placed first in competition with 37 pair at state fair.

We know that these folks will uphold the name of Cass county and Nebraska and will bring back their share of the honors.

Christmas Suggestions.

Corn husk dolls, drums, scrapbooks and games which can be made at home will make a jolly Christmas for many kiddies in the county this year. Extension Circular 5566, "Let's Keep Our Christmas Merry" contains many suggestions for gifts which can be made at the home with materials from the scrap bag. This circular is available at the Farm Bureau office.

4-H Completions.

83% of the 515 individuals carrying 766 projects completed their projects for 1933. Club members still desiring to complete their work and file final reports will receive their certificate of achievement.

Two clubs have already enrolled for 1934 projects. One farm account club of nineteen members at Eagle, with R. M. Kildee as local leader are enjoying their project. The other club is carrying hot lunch work. Ten members have enrolled under the leadership of Wilens Peger. The Fairland school patrons feel that hot lunch is just as essential as reading and writing.

Will Collect Farm and Home Records

The sixty-nine farmers in Cass county who have been keeping farm accounts the past year will have their books checked in at meetings to be held December 22, 23 and 26th. Home Account keepers will also be scheduled to check in their books at the same time.

All co-operators are asked to have their books completed to date and in inventory check made on livestock, machinery, etc. The extra schedule of meetings will be printed in next week's paper.

Anyone interested in starting a farm or home record is welcome to attend the meetings and receive all assistance they need in getting started.

Corn Loan Blanks Arrive.

The county agent is prepared to assist farmers in the county in making out corn loan applications. The necessary forms and agreement blanks arrived this week and applications will be handled as rapidly as possible.

Many are of the impression that there is a lot of jokers in this loan. The purpose of it is to give the corn growers 45¢ for their corn now and still allow him to hold his corn for a higher price. The only deduction from the 45¢ loan is a charge for inspection plus 4% interest.

W. B. Banning of Union and S. S. Davis of Plattsmouth are the county inspectors. They have the blanks and will assist in making them out. The necessary steps in getting the loan are:

1st. Get an application blank from Mr. Banning, Mr. Davis, the Farm Bureau office, or bank, fill it out and enclose with it a money order, bank draft or cashier's check for the inspection. This fee is $5 for the first 1000 bushels and 1/2¢ for each bushel thereafter. Send the blank and the money to Mr. Banning. He will call to make the inspection and give you full information on the other things to do.

Weeping Water

The Weeping Water Woman's club met with Mrs. M. U. Thomas where they presented a very fine program on last Tuesday afternoon.

Fred Rehmeier has been feeling quite poorly during the past two weeks with an infection of his throat but is reported at this time as being much improved.

The basketball team of the Weeping Water high school began last week active and intensive practice, they awaiting until the football team had concluded their work on the gridiron. We may look for some good games from the Weeping Water lads soon.

The Hobson funeral home was called upon to bury an infant, Marilyn Mae Scudder of Nehawka, and a man named Petersen shipped from Missouri, and also to ship the remains of Mrs. George Fitzpatrick to her former home at Imperial on Friday of last week.

Knowing what was a good car and where to make the purchase of one, H. W. Eagle of Friend, Nebraska, while he was in Weeping Water made the purchase of the celebrated V-8 latest model Ford four-door sedan, getting the same from the Cole Motor company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Gorder entertained at their home in Weeping Water the family of H. W. Tool of Murdoch, Mr. Tool being a brother of Mrs. Gorder, and also Turner M. McKinnon and family of Alvo, Mrs. McKinnon being sister of Mrs. Gorder and Mr. Tool, on last Sunday, and a most enjoyable time was had by the merry party.

Miss Thelma Ward and Vincent Rehmeier who are at Chicago attending the meet of the 4-H clubs write that they are liking the work there and enjoying the meeting of many members of the 4-H clubs over the country. There are in all seven from Cass county at the meeting. All of them we are sure will give a good account of themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cole entertained for a very fine dinner on Thanksgiving day at their home in the county and had as their guests for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Walter Olsen, Mrs. John Hutchinson, Ernest Olsen and wife, all of Okosh, Nebr., and the ladies all daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Cole. The party drove in from the western portion of the state for the Thanksgiving holiday and sure enjoyed it with the parents.

Dies Suddenly Monday.

Mrs. Emma J. Davis of Weeping Water who has not been in very good health for some time past, was feeling well enough that she made a trip down town during the afternoon Monday and looked after some shopping, returning home during the afternoon, and entered her apartments at the home of her son, Cecil Davis and wife, occupying the same house, and as Mrs. Cecil Davis and a neighbor not visiting they heard strange noises from the apartment occupied by Mrs. Emma Davis and entering the room found her very sick. The son was called and a doctor summoned, but while the lady was semi-conscious and could hardly communicate, she died shortly after the arrival of the son and doctor.

Mrs. Davis was born in Washington county, Pa., and had spent the greater portion of her life in Nebraska. Her name was Miss Emma J. Gilmore and was 79 years, nine months and seventeen days old at the time of her death. She was a member of the Mennonite church from where the funeral was held on last Wednesday afternoon, the interment being at Oakwood cemetery.

The deceased was a sister of Dr. G. H. Gilmore. A fuller account of the life of this excellent woman will be given in another issue of this paper.

Mrs. John T. Crozier Dies.

Mrs. Lena May Cogitzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Cogitzer, was born July 14, 1882 in Pennsylvania, and with the parents removed to Nebraska and Weeping Water years ago where later Miss Cogitzer was united in marriage to the late John T. Crozier, they remaining residents here, the husband passing on within the past year. Mrs. Crozier had been in poor health for a long time and passed away last Saturday, December 2, the funeral being held last Monday and interment at Oakwood cemetery. A fuller account of the life of this estimable woman will be given in the next issue of this paper.

Entertained for Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rasmussen entertained for the day and dinner on last Thursday. Thanksgiving day and had as their guests besides the immediate family, Miss Maren Rasmussen, a sister of Mr. Rasmussen, a teacher in the Omaha schools, W. E. Maxfield and family of Weeping Water. All enjoyed a splendid time.

Masonic Lodge Elects.

The Euclid lodge of the A. F. & A. M. of Weeping Water lodge No. 97 at their meeting on last Monday following the regular work proceeded to elect the officers for the ensuing term, the selections being: Richmond P. Hobson, W. M.; Fred Carstens, S. W.; D. E. Waincott, J. W.; Victor Wallack, secretary and Frank J. Domingo, treasurer.
