DOCTORS FIGHT BERI-BERI

St. John's.—Doctors of the Newfoundland outposts had their backs to the wall in a battle against beri-beri, a disease caused by specific diet deficiencies, which often follows the wake of poverty. Last winter 25 percent of the people in Newfoundland were on the dole and 20 percent will be dependent during the next two months. Physicians said there have been repeated visitations of beri-beri in villages where most of the fishermen are existing on rations equaling $1.80 a month.

CALLED TO MISSOURI

Legion Revolt Leader Names Ruling Clique

Omaha and Lincoln Men Are Said to Dominate the Organization in This State.

Ralph St. Clair, adjutant of the McCook post which is leading a Nebraska American Legion "revolt," Friday night announced names of members of the alleged "clique" said to be dominating the organization in the state.

His announcement followed indorsement of the "revolt" by Harold G. Pee, farmer living north of Cambridge, who is district commander of the area in which McCook is situated.

Why Elect Reynolds.

Clubs of western Nebraska, St. Clair said, "demand to know why such men as Hird Stryker, Clint Brome, McDermott and Samardick of Omaha, Jean Kinder, Curtis and Poteet of Lincoln are constantly trying to elect Sam Reynolds national commander.

"The McCook post, in behalf of the rank and file clubs demand these men explain just what Reynolds has achieved for the good of the rank and file."

St. Clair said "rank and file" clubs of Lincoln and Omaha are joining the move to transfer state headquarters from Lincoln. The "revolt" will take form, he said, when district conventions are held in March.

Omaha Deny It.

Brome said Friday night that leading Omaha legionnaires work under their commanders, for the best interests of the legion, and denied existence of a clique. He characterized protests from McCook as "the tail that couldn't wag the dog."

As far as support of Reynolds is concerned, "Reynolds has the support of probably 95 per cent of Nebraska legionnaires, and his candidacy for national commander has been indorsed by state conventions," he said.

It's Getting Serious.

Stryker asserted serious statements of a clique were "just a laugh," but that the attack on Reynolds, "a man who will be national commander," is serious, and not representative of the spirit of Nebraska's legion, "which universally likes him."

"Up to now it's been monkey business," he said, "but we can't let a few publicity seekers damage Reynolds' chances. If anybody is foolish enough to think that seven or eight men are running the legion, they don't know what they're talking about. If so, I'd like to be one of them."

Denial of any trouble between Omaha posts, as a result of the "clique" charge, was made by E. J. Jull, commander of the South Side post.

UNION ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor were at Nebraska City on last Saturday where they were visiting with friends and as well looking after some business matters for a short time.

Dr. G. L. Taylor of Plattsmouth, veterinarian was a visitor in Union, called to look after some professional work at the home of Ivan Deles Derrier, where the latter had a sick cow.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Keedy of Ashland were visiting with friends in Union on last Sunday, driving over for the day and were guests here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter.

C. E. Morse and family were guests for the day on the last of the year Sunday at the home of his brother, S. F. Morse and family, where both families enjoyed a splendid day and a very fine dinner.

During the morning last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter were over to Plattsmouth where they were attending services at the Methodist church returning in time to entertain visitors in the afternoon.

Miss Marjorie Hoback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hoback is spending this week at the home of her grandfather, W. L. Hoback, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bollman and Mr. and Mrs. John Hoback and family.

Joseph Davis who is chopping wood in the A. L. Becker timber east of Union, was a visitor in Plattsmouth for over the week end, going to visit with his mother, Mrs. Lydia M. Davis, a nurse at the Nebraska Masonic home.

Clarence Willis was shelling and delivering corn on last Tuesday to the Stites elevator, getting the corn out of the way and thus having the matter of his hands so it will not interfere with other work which may follow.

Rev. W. A. Taylor was over to Nebraska on last Tuesday afternoon where he conducted the funeral of the late Herman Schumacher who passed away early on last Sunday morning. The interment was had at the Mt. Pleasant cemetery north of Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gillespie and their son, Junior, were pleased on last Sunday when an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gillespie accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilcox of Dunbar and where all enjoyed the day and a very fine dinner which was served by Mrs. Gillespie.

Otis Keene has accepted a position with the construction company having the construction of the viaduct which is to span the Burlington tracks at Orapalis south of the river. This work will continue during the winter and it is expected that it will not be completed until early in the summer.

Visiting in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hunter, better known as "Slim" Hunter, departed last Saturday via their auto for Poplar Bluffs, Mo., where they are spending some two weeks at the homes of the folks of both Mr. and Mrs. Hunter, who make their homes there. This is many miles south of St. Louis and makes a long winter's drive to spend the holidays.

Return to Western Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Morton, who with their family reside near Hay Springs, in the northwestern part of the state, and who have been visiting here and also at Farmington, Mo., which is over near the eastern portion of the state, where they visited for a week, returning to Union late last week where they remained for over the week end, and on New Year's day started with their car for their home in the northwestern portion of Nebraska, making a trip or nearly two thousand miles in all. They enjoyed a very fine visit while here.

Entertained for Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben E. Foster entertained on last Sunday for the day and dinner when they had as their guests the family of George A. Stites of Union and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Franzen and their son, Donald, of Omaha. Mesdames Foster and Franzen being sisters, which made the gathering the more enjoyable. The day was most pleasantly spent and all enjoyed a very fine dinner, which was served by Mrs. Foster.

Home from the Hospital.

L. F. Fitch, better known by his friends, and he has a host of them as "Bud" who has been at the hospital in Omaha for many months where he underwent a major operation, and where he has been receiving treatment since and with the slow process of recuperating he has been holding what he has gained and was able to return to his home in Union on New Year's day, and right glad was he to be home again where his many friends can call on him and all are hoping that he will continue to show progress and that the progress may be permanent.

Injured in Accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gillespie received the very sad news of the injury of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Burrian Young who were returning from a visit at Nebraska City recently when they were struck by another car, containing four men, with an impact which killed one of the four men in the other car, and at the same time disabling both cars.

The little fourteen month old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Young who was riding with them was thrown some fifteen feet from the car at the time of the impact and lit on the ground uninjured. Both Mr. and Mrs. Young were more or less bruised.

Family Reunion on New Years.

The family of C. F. Harris of which Mrs. J. Marion Stone is a member, celebrated the passing of the new year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stone with a family reunion, with an excellent dinner. There were there for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. C. F.

Harris, their son, Fulton, Vance Harris and family, Hall Pollard and family, Lee Farris and family, Stirling Harris and family. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris were unable to be present on account of the illness of Mrs. Harris, who has been kept to her bed for a number of days on account of an attack of influenza.
