Bank of Nehawka Insures Deposits of Its Customers

One of Leading Banks of the County Comes Under the Provisions of New Insurance Law.

The Bank of Nehawka, one of the leading banks of the county, has been notified that their bank has been accepted as a member of the association that will have the advantages of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, created by the banking act of 1933.

This act provides for the insurance of deposits up to $2,500 for each depositor and is one of the new laws that became effective on January 1st. The insurance fund is secured by insurance on the member banks and gives to the depositor the protection of this powerful piece of federal legislation.

The people of Nehawka are pleased that their bank with its usual foresight and interest of their customers is adding this protection to their already strong bank.

Mrs. Oren Pollard was a visitor in Bethany at the R. N. White homes several days the past week.

Miss Evelyn Wolph accompanied her brother Paul to the Organized Agriculture meetings in Lincoln Tuesday.

Miss Lois Troop is spending the week with friends and relatives in Platts-mouth and is enjoying the visit very much.

Mrs. Ruth B. Pollard and grandson, Robert Pollard, were Sunday visitors at the A. H. St. John home south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gorder were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrlein, the ladies being sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Conant Wolph and daughters drove to Clarinda, Iowa and spent Christmas with the Andersons, parents of Mrs. Wolph.

Mrs. Harry Ross has been quite sick at her home south of town from a gall bladder attack. She is improved at this writing but is not able to be out.

Mrs. Fred Wessel was called to Beatrice Wednesday by the death of her two-year-old sister from whooping cough. We extend sympathy to her at this time.

Mr. Oren Pollard won third on his shelled corn exhibit in the Nebraska Crop Growers association contest at the Organized Agriculture meetings in Lincoln this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rhoden and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Boedecker were visiting at the home of Mrs. Boedecker's brother, Arnold Fitzpatrick, in Omaha, one afternoon the past week.

The James Kitchen family of Lincoln were visitors at the Oren Pollard home Sunday and Monday. Mr. Kitchen joined the Nehawka boys in the wolf hunt Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Shrader was in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Mary E. McCannaha on last Sunday, from her late home in Omaha, and was also visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. George E. Nickles, of Murray.

Fred Young and mother, Mrs. Ellen Young, of Genoa, who have been visiting for the past three weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Schlichteneier, are to return to their home in the central portion of the state after this week.

V. P. Sheldon is wearing a smile that simply won't erase. The cause of which is the fact that there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Sheldon, of Stella, a fine baby daughter, thus making Vilas a grandfather. All are doing nicely.

Robert McCannaha, great-grandson of Mrs. Mary E. McCannaha, was a visitor here for a few days, being a guest at the home of the parents of Mrs. McCannaha, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stone and also attending the funeral of the great-grandmother.

Mrs. Fred Williams was operated on for appendicitis at the St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha Tuesday morning. At this time she is getting along as well as can be expected. Mrs. Chester Waldo is staying with the family during her absence.

Misses Doris and Marie Anderson were the guests of Margie Ruth and Virginia Pollard at a duck dinner last Thursday at the Hall Pollard home. The young ladies were joined by Zola Smith and Imogene Pollard for a sledding party, followed by games and popcorn. All had a very jolly time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Marion Stone entertained the following guests for New Years dinner: Messrs. and Mesdames C. F. Harris, Sterling Harris, Lee Paris, Vance Harris and Alvin, Fulton Harris and Miss Bess Watkins, all of Union and the Hall Pollard family of Nehawka. All did justice to the fine dinner prepared by Mrs. Stone.

The Anderson family held a family reunion at the Dan Anderson home last Sunday. Those present for the happy occasion were Alfred Anderson and family of Omaha; Mrs. Bedelia Stander and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth White of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt of Avoca; Albert Anderson and family and the Louis Ross family of Nehawka.

Miss Ellen Rose, who has been making her home in Kansas City, where she has been working for a Missionary institution, has been visiting here for the past week. She returned to her work early this week. While she was here she assisted in the moving of her father to another home after he had resided on the farm for the past nearly 70 years.

Mrs. Hall Pollard just recently received a gift box of soap from a Massachusetts soap company as a merchandise prize and the announcement that she was a winner in the International Canning Contest at a Century of Progress, Chicago. Official awards were not to be announced until Dec. 31 and Mrs. Pollard is anxiously awaiting this announcement.

Mrs. Miller Christensen has been enjoying a visit for the past few weeks from two sisters who make their home at Dover, N. J., traveling via bus on their way out here and making just one thousand and twenty-five miles to reach here. The young ladies say that times are greatly improved in the east and everyone is looking forward to an era of prosperity during the coming year.

Will Have Water System
At the third trial for securing a waterworks system in Nehawka of adequate size to take care of the needs of the town, both in the matter of consumption and fire protection, the proposition was carried by a vote of 135 for to 55 against, or slightly over 71 per cent. The statutory requirement to pass a proposal of this kind is 60 per cent.

In 1931 a similar proposition was lost by seven votes, but this time the result was different. A very thorough campaign had been carried on before the date of the election last Saturday. Under the PWA arrangement available to towns and cities, the government will donate 30 per cent of the cost, while the remaining 70 per cent must be borne by the municipality.

The amount of bonds to be issued in this case to take care of the 70 per cent will not exceed $16,400, although the cost of installing the new system will be considerably in excess of that sum.

One of the provisions of the grant is that work be given local unemployed and the beginning of the work at an early date will provide employment for a considerable number at this particular season of the year, when work in the stone quarries is at a standstill.

The proponents of the waterworks proposal feel highly elated at their success in putting the proposition over and say that the coming summer will see the culmination of their plan of providing an adequate waterworks system for the town.

Visited at Crete

Mr. and Mrs. John Stuart Rought were in Crete last Sunday, where they went to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. D. H. Wilson and family, and where they also found Mr. and Mrs. H. Elsie of Hastings. Mrs. Elsie is a sister of Mr. Wilson.

Former Citizen Dies at Blair

Mrs. Mary E. McCannaha, a former resident of the neighborhood north of Nehawka, for more than thirty years, but who left this vicinity many years ago, passed away at the home of a son in Blair last week. Remains were brought to Mt. Pleasant cemetery for interment last Sunday.

In company with her husband, Dr. John McCannaha, they resided a few miles north of Nehawka, where he was the only physician for many years and where most of their seven children were born.

Dr. McCannaha passed away many years ago and Mrs. McCannaha with the children moved elsewhere, some settling one place and some another.

Mrs. McCannaha united with the Methodist church early in life, and continued as a devout member and a faithful follower of the lowly Nazarene throughout the years.

The children who are left to mourn the departure of this 86-year-old pioneer woman are Elmer, Ernest, Robert, Mable, Lula, Pauline and Earl the youngest. Three sons were here to attend the last sacred rites incident to the laying away of their mother to await the resurrection morn, they being Earl, Elmer and Robert. The funeral services were held at Blair and the interment was in Mount Pleasant cemetery north-east of Nehawka, near where she had spent so many pleasant years as the wife of the true "Country Doctor" of those pioneer days.

Rev. E. S. Pangborn conducted the funeral service.

Arrived in Nehawka 44 Years Ago

Nels Anderson arrived in Nehawka on New Year's day, 1890, just forty-four years ago, and for a number of years was engaged in working in the stone quarries here. Later, for a period of ten years, he was engaged in the restaurant business in Weeping Water. Some 26 years ago, he engaged in the operation of an amusement parlor in Nehawka and has since that time been one of the best workers for the welfare of the town one could expect to find anywhere, always an energetic booster for Nehawka. Best regards to you, Nels!

Former Citizen Dies

Charles Brandt, who was at one time engaged in farming near Nehawka, and later conducted a business enterprise at the location where J. H. Steffen is now engaged in the mercantile line, but who during the past number of years has been a resident at the Cass county farm home near Platts-mouth, passed away there last week and was buried last Saturday at St. John cemetery northwest of Nehawka.

Mr. Brandt came to this vicinity more than forty years ago. After successfully farming for a time, he gave up that vocation and traded his 80-acre farm to Mr. Bryer for the store which he conducted for some time, later disposing of the business to Thomas Cromwell and still later on drifted to other places. He was in Lincoln for a time and also made his home with Henry Ross, later going to the county home to reside. He will be remembered by many of the older inhabitants of Nehawka and vicinity.

Rev. E. S. Pangborn conducted the funeral service.

Made Money in 1933

The Nehawka elevator which, during 1932, was not able to make any profit, moreover to come out quite even with the board, has a different story to report this year, as an audit of the books shows that during 1933 a neat profit has been made on the business transacted. As a result, a dividend of five per cent will be declared on the stock of the company, together with a one cent per bushel dividend on what grain was purchased by the company from its own members, which will make an average earning of about $6.25 per share for holders of one share and more for those having more shares.

On account of the unprofitable conduct of the business during the depression year of 1932, the manager, J. S. Rought agreed to a 25 per cent cut in his salary, which was to be made good if the business made enough money this last year to take care of the dividends and other expenses, and lay up enough additional to care for the salary cut. This has been done, and so the manager has suffered no loss in his salary, due to his efficient manner of looking after the business. It would seem that times are coming back to where a reasonable profit can once more be made on the conduct of business enterprises and that is one of the most healthful signs apparent on the business horizon today, for with an opportunity to make a legitimate profit all business firms will be found once more ready and willing to extend their service and go out after business, something that few felt like doing with the discouraging outlook of the past few years.

Loaded Last Cars Monday

Many trainloads of stone have been loaded and shipped from here during the past few months, but the beginning of the New Year saw a temporary cessation of this work, as the last two cars were loaded out Monday. When spring opens up and work on the river is resumed in full swing, the quarries will again resume operation, as there are orders on file now for vast quantities of stone with prospects of more if the enlarged river project is approved by the forthcoming congress. For the present, however, everything is quiet at the quarries and the sound of blasting operations will be heard no more for a while. The men who are thrown out of work will for the most part be able to find other employment, however, as the municipal waterworks project gets under way in the near future.
