

The Plattsmouth Journal

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY AT PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA
Entered at Postoffice, Plattsmouth, Neb., as second-class mail matter

R. A. BATES, Publisher

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $2.00 A YEAR IN FIRST POSTAL ZONE
Subscribers living in Second Postal Zone, $2.50 per year. Beyond 600 miles, $3.00 per year. Rate to Canada and foreign countries, $3.50 per year. All subscriptions are payable strictly in advance.

SUFFERS FROM ILLNESS

Mrs. Jess Robbins of Mynard, is at the Methodist hospital at Omaha where she was taken last Friday suffering from a very severe hemorrhage of the lungs and which has made necessary her being under constant medical care.

With Mrs. Robbins at the hospital Mr. Robbins is bedfast at the home, he having been very poorly for the past few weeks and is now so that he must be under constant attention.

HAVE NEW SON

Mr. and Mrs. Lillard Jensen, of Kennard, Nebraska, are rejoicing over an addition to their family circle of a fine son, born the past week at the Covenant hospital at Omaha. Mrs. Jensen was formerly Miss Myrtle Peterson of this city and the old friends will join in their congratulations to the happy parents. Mrs. Martha J. Peterson of this city was a visitor at Omaha with the mother and little one Sunday.

STANDARD BEARER MEETING

Sunday afternoon, January 21, a very pleasant meeting of the Standard Bearers was held at the home of Kathryn Armstrong.

The devotions were led by Louise Rishel, and a very inspirational lesson was given by Mrs. Harry White. In the business meeting different committees were appointed for a Valentine party. Sheila Covert was appointed the secretary of the International Project.

At a suitable hour, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Virginia Trively and Kathryn Armstrong.

HASTINGS PARTIES MARRIED

On Saturday afternoon at the office of the county judge occurred the marriage of Miss Helen Saunders and Mr. Ralph Ewaldt, both of Hastings. The marriage lines were read by Judge A. H. Duxbury and the ceremony witnessed by Clara and Ray Johnson.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, January 28th By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Standards of the Kingdom" Matt. 5:1-12: 43-48.

This is the second year of our Lord's ministry. The time had come to instruct those who should carry on the work of evangelizing the world in the fundamentals of his kingdom. He calls twelve men, who he named apostles, to the top of a mountain, west of the sea of Galilee, the Horns of Hattin. The importance of this act is shown by the fact that Jesus had spent the previous night in communion with God. Great wisdom is shown in the selection of the twelve. This sermon is called by St. Augustin, "The Sermon on the Mount." Genung called it "The Magna Charta of the Kingdom of God." Dykes named it "The Manifesto of the King." "It is not a single discourse, but a collection of discourses delivered on various occasions and to various audiences, woven together and placed here at the beginning of the Gospel as a sort of frontispiece illustrating the manner of the Heavenly Teacher." (Prof. David Smith.) The parallel passage is "The Sermon on the Plain." (See Luke 6:20-49.) As we approach the teacher and his class on the mount, we think of Moses on Mount Sinai, receiving the ten commandments. "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth (the gospel) came by Jesus Christ." (John 1:17.)

Note the great preacher— (1) His attitude, taking his proper place; (2) He opened his mouth, having something to say, he says it understandingly, using plain and forceful language; (3) Quits when thoughtful. Here follow the Beatitudes: "Blessed"—It is characteristic of Christ that his first great utterance points the way to happiness. Man was created for happiness and his whole life is spent in pursuit of it. "Poet in spirit" is the condition of man, who realizes his shortcomings, his unworthiness, humbles himself before God and so approaches his Maker; great wealth awaits the poor in spirit, all the riches of heaven are his. "Blessed are they that mourn." If we have no sorrow for sin, we shall not seek the divine forgiveness and purification. Only by the aid of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter whom Jesus sends, can we find the blessedness that comes from sorrow and pain. "The meek . . . shall inherit the earth." It is the meek who really inherit the earth—the unselfish, the humble, the religiously minded, who regard it as one of the many rooms in the heavenly Father's mansion, which they as his children are free to use and enjoy. "Blessed . . . hunger and thirst . . ." that feel their need of God, who alone can satisfy the hunger and thirst of the soul. If we are to be happy, and if life is to be satisfied, Jesus tells us that we must hunger and thirst after righteousness.

"Blessed . . . the merciful . . ." who having heard the moan for mercy, have run to its relief. Mercy is the reward of mercy. "Blessed . . . pure in heart . . ." Purity of heart makes possible the vision of God and the vision of God leads the soul into higher purity. Where the heart is impure, the mind is debilitated by it. "Blessed . . . peacemakers . . . sons of God"—they are not peace-lovers or peace-talkers, they were peace-makers, the constructive agents of tranquility, the efficient contributors to security, the mediators of peace.

How does the Father make peace of the twelve. This sermon is called by St. Augustin, "The Sermon on the Mount." Genung called it "The Magna Charta of the Kingdom of God." Dykes named it "The Manifesto of the King." "It is not a single discourse, but a collection of discourses delivered on various occasions and to various audiences, woven together and placed here at the beginning of the Gospel as a sort of frontispiece illustrating the manner of the Heavenly Teacher." (Prof. David Smith.) The parallel passage is "The Sermon on the Plain." (See Luke 6:20-49.) As we approach the teacher and his class on the mount, we think of Moses on Mount Sinai, receiving the ten commandments. "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth (the gospel) came by Jesus Christ." (John 1:17.)

the reward of mercy.

"Blessed . . . pure in heart . . ." Purity of heart makes possible the vision of God and the vision of God leads the soul into higher purity. Where the heart is impure, the mind is debilitated by it. "Blessed . . . peacemakers . . . sons of God"—they are not peace-lovers or peace-talkers, they were peace-makers, the constructive agents of tranquility, the efficient contributors to security, the mediators of peace.

How does the Father make peace of the twelve. This sermon is called by St. Augustin, "The Sermon on the Mount." Genung called it "The Magna Charta of the Kingdom of God." Dykes named it "The Manifesto of the King." "It is not a single discourse, but a collection of discourses delivered on various occasions and to various audiences, woven together and placed here at the beginning of the Gospel as a sort of frontispiece illustrating the manner of the Heavenly Teacher." (Prof. David Smith.) The parallel passage is "The Sermon on the Plain." (See Luke 6:20-49.) As we approach the teacher and his class on the mount, we think of Moses on Mount Sinai, receiving the ten commandments. "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth (the gospel) came by Jesus Christ." (John 1:17.)

Note the great preacher— (1) His attitude, taking his proper place; (2) He opened his mouth, having something to say, he says it understandingly, using plain and forceful language; (3) Quits when thoughtful. Here follow the Beatitudes: "Blessed"—It is characteristic of Christ that his first great utterance points the way to happiness. Man was created for happiness and his whole life is spent in pursuit of it. "Poet in spirit" is the condition of man, who realizes his shortcomings, his unworthiness, humbles himself before God and so approaches his Maker; great wealth awaits the poor in spirit, all the riches of heaven are his. "Blessed are they that mourn." If we have no sorrow for sin, we shall not seek the divine forgiveness and purification. Only by the aid of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter whom Jesus sends, can we find the blessedness that comes from sorrow and pain. "The meek . . . shall inherit the earth." It is the meek who really inherit the earth—the unselfish, the humble, the religiously minded, who regard it as one of the many rooms in the heavenly Father's mansion, which they as his children are free to use and enjoy. "Blessed . . . hunger and thirst . . ." that feel their need of God, who alone can satisfy the hunger and thirst of the soul. If we are to be happy, and if life is to be satisfied, Jesus tells us that we must hunger and thirst after righteousness.

Note the great preacher— (1) His attitude, taking his proper place; (2) He opened his mouth, having something to say, he says it understandingly, using plain and forceful language; (3) Quits when thoughtful. Here follow the Beatitudes: "Blessed"—It is characteristic of Christ that his first great utterance points the way to happiness. Man was created for happiness and his whole life is spent in pursuit of it. "Poet in spirit" is the condition of man, who realizes his shortcomings, his unworthiness, humbles himself before God and so approaches his Maker; great wealth awaits the poor in spirit, all the riches of heaven are his. "Blessed are they that mourn." If we have no sorrow for sin, we shall not seek the divine forgiveness and purification. Only by the aid of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter whom Jesus sends, can we find the blessedness that comes from sorrow and pain. "The meek . . . shall inherit the earth." It is the meek who really inherit the earth—the unselfish, the humble, the religiously minded, who regard it as one of the many rooms in the heavenly Father's mansion, which they as his children are free to use and enjoy. "Blessed . . . hunger and thirst . . ." that feel their need of God, who alone can satisfy the hunger and thirst of the soul. If we are to be happy, and if life is to be satisfied, Jesus tells us that we must hunger and thirst after righteousness.

Note the great preacher— (1) His attitude, taking his proper place; (2) He opened his mouth, having something to say, he says it understandingly, using plain and forceful language; (3) Quits when thoughtful. Here follow the Beatitudes: "Blessed"—It is characteristic of Christ that his first great utterance points the way to happiness. Man was created for happiness and his whole life is spent in pursuit of it. "Poet in spirit" is the condition of man, who realizes his shortcomings, his unworthiness, humbles himself before God and so approaches his Maker; great wealth awaits the poor in spirit, all the riches of heaven are his. "Blessed are they that mourn." If we have no sorrow for sin, we shall not seek the divine forgiveness and purification. Only by the aid of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter whom Jesus sends, can we find the blessedness that comes from sorrow and pain. "The meek . . . shall inherit the earth." It is the meek who really inherit the earth—the unselfish, the humble, the religiously minded, who regard it as one of the many rooms in the heavenly Father's mansion, which they as his children are free to use and enjoy. "Blessed . . . hunger and thirst . . ." that feel their need of God, who alone can satisfy the hunger and thirst of the soul. If we are to be happy, and if life is to be satisfied, Jesus tells us that we must hunger and thirst after righteousness.

Note the great preacher— (1) His attitude, taking his proper place; (2) He opened his mouth, having something to say, he says it understandingly, using plain and forceful language; (3) Quits when thoughtful. Here follow the Beatitudes: "Blessed"—It is characteristic of Christ that his first great utterance points the way to happiness. Man was created for happiness and his whole life is spent in pursuit of it. "Poet in spirit" is the condition of man, who realizes his shortcomings, his unworthiness, humbles himself before God and so approaches his Maker; great wealth awaits the poor in spirit, all the riches of heaven are his. "Blessed are they that mourn." If we have no sorrow for sin, we shall not seek the divine forgiveness and purification. Only by the aid of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter whom Jesus sends, can we find the blessedness that comes from sorrow and pain. "The meek . . . shall inherit the earth." It is the meek who really inherit the earth—the unselfish, the humble, the religiously minded, who regard it as one of the many rooms in the heavenly Father's mansion, which they as his children are free to use and enjoy. "Blessed . . . hunger and thirst . . ." that feel their need of God, who alone can satisfy the hunger and thirst of the soul. If we are to be happy, and if life is to be satisfied, Jesus tells us that we must hunger and thirst after righteousness.

Note the great preacher— (1) His attitude, taking his proper place; (2) He opened his mouth, having something to say, he says it understandingly, using plain and forceful language; (3) Quits when thoughtful. Here follow the Beatitudes: "Blessed"—It is characteristic of Christ that his first great utterance points the way to happiness. Man was created for happiness and his whole life is spent in pursuit of it. "Poet in spirit" is the condition of man, who realizes his shortcomings, his unworthiness, humbles himself before God and so approaches his Maker; great wealth awaits the poor in spirit, all the riches of heaven are his. "Blessed are they that mourn." If we have no sorrow for sin, we shall not seek the divine forgiveness and purification. Only by the aid of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter whom Jesus sends, can we find the blessedness that comes from sorrow and pain. "The meek . . . shall inherit the earth." It is the meek who really inherit the earth—the unselfish, the humble, the religiously minded, who regard it as one of the many rooms in the heavenly Father's mansion, which they as his children are free to use and enjoy. "Blessed . . . hunger and thirst . . ." that feel their need of God, who alone can satisfy the hunger and thirst of the soul. If we are to be happy, and if life is to be satisfied, Jesus tells us that we must hunger and thirst after righteousness.

Note the great preacher— (1) His attitude, taking his proper place; (2) He opened his mouth, having something to say, he says it understandingly, using plain and forceful language; (3) Quits when thoughtful. Here follow the Beatitudes: "Blessed"—It is characteristic of Christ that his first great utterance points the way to happiness. Man was created for happiness and his whole life is spent in pursuit of it. "Poet in spirit" is the condition of man, who realizes his shortcomings, his unworthiness, humbles himself before God and so approaches his Maker; great wealth awaits the poor in spirit, all the riches of heaven are his. "Blessed are they that mourn." If we have no sorrow for sin, we shall not seek the divine forgiveness and purification. Only by the aid of the Holy Spirit, the Comforter whom Jesus sends, can we find the blessedness that comes from sorrow and pain. "The meek . . . shall inherit the earth." It is the meek who really inherit the earth—the unselfish, the humble, the religiously minded, who regard it as one of the many rooms in the heavenly Father's mansion, which they as his children are free to use and enjoy. "Blessed . . . hunger and thirst . . ." that feel their need of God, who alone can satisfy the hunger and thirst of the soul. If we are to be happy, and if life is to be satisfied, Jesus tells us that we must hunger and thirst after righteousness.

SLAYMAN'S Fruit & Vegetable Market

Where Your Money Does Double Duty

Special on Grape Fruit

Good till Saturday Night
Pink Meat, hi quality, bushel $1.95
Arizona reg. 3 for 25c, 5 for 25c
Florida Seedless, 125 in sack $2

Apples by Bushel

Good Quality
Grimes Golden or Jonathan $1.80

Other Specials

CABBAGE, ext. special, lb. . . . 4c
Fancy New Crop
CAULIFLOWER, lge. head . . . 10c
While They Last
JUMBO CELERY, per stalk . . . 10c
Fancy, Well Bleached
PASCHAL CELERY, 10c, 2 for 15c
Fine Quality

Lowest Prices on All Fruits and Vegetables

We Buy Your Eggs and Butter

TRADE OR CASH

PRAISE BIBLE LESSONS

Readers of Journal give expression of their appreciation of the work of L. Neitzel, prominent Bible student and teacher of Murdock.

Wabash, Neb., Jan. 12, 1934.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Neitzel:

We have heard of you being ill for some time, for which we wish to express our heartfelt sympathy, wishing you God's blessings and hoping to see you out around again as one of the loyal Christian citizens.

We are in practice of reading your explanation on the Sunday school lessons in the Plattsmouth paper.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Neitzel:

I for one wish to thank you for the exposition you give the S. S. Bible lessons in the columns of the Plattsmouth Journal. We in the Masonic Home watch for the paper and would miss them were they discontinued.

The Bible student with the grip you have on its truths and teachings makes it well worth our while to give our attention and we patiently wait our turn for the one copy we have in the Home. All citizens of Plattsmouth should be proud of the Journal for giving space thus in its columns as well as the labor involved in enhancing its value as a newspaper.

Our Bible class continues under the leadership of Miss Minnie Nickum, meeting Sundays at 1 p. m. in the parlors.

We are always glad to hear you speak. Yours sincerely,

MRS. FRANCES TEMPLAR, Home Member

Plattsmouth, Neb., Jan. 9th, 1934.

Rev. L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb., Dear Sir:

I am writing to tell you that I appreciate reading your Sunday school lessons published in the Plattsmouth Journal, and I believe it is read by others. So I hope you will continue to have it published.

Yours truly,

MRS. MARTHA WETEN-KAMP, 818 Ave. D, Plattsmouth, Neb.

Murdock, Jan. 18.

Keep on writing the lesson in the Journal. I appreciate very much the time you put in. You are doing good. Yours truly,

A. STREICH.

Please do continue to give the articles on the Sabbath school lessons in the Journal. They are a great help to anyone who makes a study of the lessons. We feel that we would miss them greatly should they be discontinued. No better use could be made of the space used in the Journal each week. Sincerely,

MRS. C. D. SPANGLER, Murray, Neb.

MISS LOUISE VALLERY, who has been visiting on the west coast for some time has returned home after a very pleasant stay in the west. While in the west she was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harold Carrithers and family, the former Martha Vallery. Miss Vallery and sister, Grace, were in the city today from their farm home near Mynard.

CHINESE REBELS LOSE OUT

Hong Kong.—A report from Amoy said Chang-Chow, in rebellious Fukien province, was bombed and captured by Chinese national government troops. Eight ships, the report stated, landed troops opposite Amoy. Meanwhile, Gen. Chang Ching simultaneously advanced from the south on Chang-Chow and captured the city.

ARMY PILOT KILLED

Riverdale, Calif.—Lieut. John P. Donlin, 21, San Francisco, pilot attached to the 95th pursuit squadron at March field, was killed in the wreck of his light combat plane.

Journal Want-Ads get results! Good slogan to observe.

HOLD CLUB MEETING

The Jolly Workers project club met on January 23rd at the home of Mrs. Eernan Graham. The lesson was on "Happy Homes and Guilt Edge Investments," which proved to be very interesting to the members. Plans were made to have a Valentine party, which will be held on February 14th at the home of Mrs. Wallace Warner. A few items were discussed and a few games played. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Kaffenberger with Mrs. Pearl Meisinger assistant.

FREIGHTER SINKS IN CANAL

Colon, C. Z.—The royal Netherland freighter Brion sank in Gatun lake, half a mile south of the lock, the first vessel ever to founder in Canal Zone waters. Capt. W. H. Rohling and a crew of twenty-two were rescued by Panama canal launches. The full attempts to beach the vessel after foundering followed upon unsuccessful had developed a dangerous list. With her bow touching the bank she listed further to port and gradually submerged. The sinking was believed to be due to a leak which caused flooding of the hold.

GALLAGHER GRANTED STAY

Berlin.—Police announced they would permit Leo Gallagher, Los Angeles attorney who was arrested and ordered to leave Prussia within three days, to remain in Germany eight days longer. His efforts to speed up the release of three Bulgarians who last month were acquitted in the reichstag incendiary trial, but who still are in jail in Leipzig, incurred the displeasure of police who ordered his deportation as "an undesirable alien."

NEW DISTRICT MANAGER

Washington.—Appointment of David L. White of Kansas City as acting district manager of the Kansas City office of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce was announced by the commerce department. He replaces John E. Wrenn, district manager, who has been devoting most of his time during the past nine months to NRA work. The Kansas City office takes in western Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado.

VISITS WITH SISTER

From Thursday's Daily
Mrs. L. B. Egenberger departed this morning for Omaha where she will enjoy the day visiting with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Hotz, who is there to visit with her sons in Omaha. Mrs. Egenberger also will visit her children, Mrs. J. H. Carter and H. A. Egenberger and their families while in the metropolis.

VISITS IN THE CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tucker, Miss Laura Grassman and Joseph Manasek of Omaha were Sunday visitors in the city with the relatives and friends for a few hours, returning home last evening. While here Mr. and Mrs. Tucker visited with Mr. and Mrs. Simon Clark, grandparents of Mrs. Tucker.

HERE FOR VISIT

Fred Bannick, of Coleridge, Nebraska, is here to enjoy a visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Puls and family, as well as meeting the many old time friends in this community. Mr. Bannick is a former resident of this section and has many friends who are delighted with the opportunity of meeting him.

VERY PLEASANT EVENT

Monday the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weber of this city was made very happy by the arrival of a fine little son, who with the mother is doing very nicely. Mrs. Weber was formerly Miss Margaret Bergmann. The many friends will join in the congratulations to the happy parents and well wishes for the little one.

CHINESE REBELS LOSE OUT

Hong Kong.—A report from Amoy said Chang-Chow, in rebellious Fukien province, was bombed and captured by Chinese national government troops. Eight ships, the report stated, landed troops opposite Amoy. Meanwhile, Gen. Chang Ching simultaneously advanced from the south on Chang-Chow and captured the city.

ARMY PILOT KILLED

Riverdale, Calif.—Lieut. John P. Donlin, 21, San Francisco, pilot attached to the 95th pursuit squadron at March field, was killed in the wreck of his light combat plane.

Journal Want-Ads get results! Good slogan to observe.

COMPULSORY CROP CONTROL

Washington.—Secretary Wallace said that compulsory plans for farm production control suggested in congress must have strong public opinion behind them if they are to be effective. "It would be much simpler from an administrative standpoint to abandon the voluntary method for the compulsory approach," he said. "But from the standpoint of the future of democratic government, I feel that we should approach this sort of thing very carefully and only after thorough public debate. If the people feel that the emergency is of such extraordinary intensity that they want the centralizing power of the government brought in to a compulsory way, then I feel that we should give most careful consideration to the possibility of utilizing federal powers to enforce the sound and economic programs for agriculture that are now being offered farmers on a voluntary basis."

MISS DUKE NOT IN DANGER

New York.—Police discredited reports that Doric Duke, heiress to millions, had been threatened with kidnaping but acknowledged the receipt of a rambling letter about her from Yugoslavia. Assistant Chief Inspector Sullivan said the letter, written in the native language and mailed from the town of Skopje, was apparently the work of a crank. He said the letter, which was addressed to the police commissioner, merely congratulated her on inheriting a large fortune. It enclosed a clipping from the newspaper "Vretno" saying among other things that Miss Duke was frequently annoyed by curiosity seekers and kidnap threats. On this score the writer expressed sympathy. Sullivan declared there was nothing in the letter to cause anxiety for Miss Duke's safety.

SENTENCE LADY STRABOLGI

London.—A sentence of three months in prison was given the American-born Lady Strabolgi upon her conviction at the age of 70 of attempted fraud and conspiracy. The wife of the ninth Baron Strabolgi, a native of Sacramento, Calif., was found guilty along with Robert Muller, 62, of attempting to obtain money thru a scheme for developing timber concessions in Honduras which they allegedly said they owned. Muller was given a year's sentence. Neither term was to be served in prison but the jury recommended mercy for Lady Strabolgi because of her age. She was reported to be planning an appeal.

MUST CUT CWA PAYROLLS

Washington.—Harry L. Hopkins, civil works administrator, has directed fourteen states to reduce the number of men on civil works payrolls immediately. The reductions range from 81,000 in Wisconsin to 1,000 in Utah. In each instance the states had exceeded their quota. Illinois was instructed to cut to a total of 200,000, the actual number to be taken off the payroll not being specified in the telegram sent by Hopkins to the state administrator.

FIX FIVE DAY WEEK

New York.—A one year agreement with the New York Newspaper Publishers' association providing a five day, forty hour week was announced by Edward White, president of the New York Photo Engravers' union, at the union's annual meeting.

TO VOTE ON HALL

Beatrice.—Beatrice voters will decide the fate of a community hall project at a special bond election Feb. 23. The proposal is to issue $70,000 in bonds and to seek a PWA grant of $30,000 with which to finance the project.

MDIVANI AT YOKOHAMA

Kokohama, Japan.—Prince Alexis Mdivani arrived from Vancouver, B. C., on the steamer Hikawa Maru to wait for his bride, the former Barbara Hutton, heiress to the Woolworth millions. She is due Friday.

ARGENTINE HEAT WAVE

Buenos Aires.—A temperature of 103 degrees fahrenheit, the highest since 1923, was recorded here as the climax of a heat wave begun late in December. At several interior places the thermometer went to 111.

KILL SWISS POLICEMEN

Basle.—Two Swiss policemen were shot and killed while they were examining passports of two Germans suspected of having participated in a recent bank robbery. The assassins escaped.

YOUNG DEMOCRATIC CLUB

There will be a meeting of the young democrats of Cass county Tuesday evening, January 30th at 7:30. Held at Cass County court house. All democrats from age of 16 to 35 are urged to attend.

WANTED

Alfalfa or red clover hay. Plattsmouth Feed Yards. Telo 377 in day time or 376 in evenings. d28-tfw

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

In the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska. To all persons interested in the estate of William D. Coleman, deceased: Take notice that the administrator of said estate has filed his final report and a petition for examination and allowance of his administration accounts, determination of heirship, assignment of residue of said estate and for his discharge; that said petition has been set for hearing before said Court on February 16th, 1934, at ten o'clock a. m.

Dated January 22nd, 1934.

A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge.

NOTICE OF PROBATE

In the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska. To all persons interested in the estate of Christoph Bell, deceased: Take notice that a petition has been filed for probate of an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, and for the appointment of Fred W. Bell as executor thereof; that said petition has been set for hearing before said Court on the 16th day of February, 1934, at ten a. m.

Dated January 29th, 1934.

A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

In the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska. To all persons interested in the estate of George Everett, deceased: Take notice that a petition has been filed praying for administration of said estate and appointment of John Everett as Administrator; that said petition has been set for hearing before said Court on the 16th day of February, 1934, at ten o'clock a. m.

Dated January 15, 1934.

A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska. To the creditors of the estate of Oline C. Johnson, deceased: Take notice that the time limited for the filing and presentation of claims against said estate is May 16, 1934; that a hearing will be had at the County Court room in Plattsmouth on May 18, 1934, at ten o'clock a. m., for the purpose of examining, hearing, allowing and adjusting all claims or objections duly filed.

Dated January 19, 1934.

A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

In the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska. To all persons interested in the estate of John Hobscheidt, Sr., deceased: Take notice that the executor of said estate has filed their final report and a petition for examination and allowance of their administration accounts, determination of heirship, assignment of residue of said estate and for their discharge; that said petition and report will be heard before said Court on February 9th, A. D. 1934, at 10:00 o'clock a. m.

Dated January 19, 1934.

A. H. DUXBURY, County Judge.

LEGAL NOTICE

To Preston Midkiff, Lovina Ellen Midkiff, Sarah Midkiff, Matilda Evline Midkiff, Joshua Lynn, Henry Snider, Samuel Midkiff, Rachel M. Howery, Martha Walston, Mary Rowe, L. M. Rowe, Charles M. Bickel, Joseph Webster, and all persons having or claiming an interest in Lot and parcel of land situated in the southeast quarter of Section twenty-nine (29); Lot four (4) in the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter, and the southwest quarter of Section twenty-eight (28); Lot seven (7) in the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter; and Lots nine (9) and ten (10) in the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of Section twenty-nine (29); and Lot four (4) in the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of Section thirty-three (33), all in Township ten (10), Range four (4) East of the 6th Principal Meridian, all in Cass County, Nebraska, real names unknown; Take notice that James C. Roddy has commenced in the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska, an action against you as defendants, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a decree of said court barring and excluding each and all of you from having or claiming any right, title, lien, interest, or estate in or to the above described real estate, or any part thereof; and quieting the title to all of said real estate in the plaintiff against the said defendants.

You are required to answer the said petition on or before the 26th day of February, 1934.

JAMES C. RODDY, Plaintiff.

By Tyler & Peterson, Attorneys, of Nebraska City, Neb.