Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Schmittman, of Omaha, were visiting in Murray last Saturday night and attending the Minstrel show.

Mrs. Matilda McKinney has been very poorly for the past week and has been kept to her home and bed the greater part of the time.

of some chairs to the Legion hall, which had been used at the minstrel show Friday and Saturday nights.

Had Pleasant Evening

The dance which was held at the vacant room east of the Earl Lancaster store last Saturday night was well attended and enjoyed by a large number of people. There was very good music and a splendid time with courteous treatment accorded to all the visitors.

Murray Study Club Meets

The Murray Study club will meet with Mrs. Fred Hill on Thursday, March 15. Our last meeting was at the home of Mrs. A. D. Bakke on February 15. On account of so much sickness, a number of the members were unable to attend. The luncheon and lesson was enjoyed by those who were there. The lesson was on "Delays," which proved a very interesting lesson, led by Mrs. Boecker.—Club Reporter.

Car of Seed Potatoes

The firm of Tutt & Brubacher received a carload of Red River seed potatoes on Wednesday of this week and were advertising them at special low prices. Looks like now is the ideal time to buy seed potatoes, as they will certainly not be selling for any less along about planting time a few weeks hence.

Minstrel Show Draws Crowds

The Murray Minstrels, given under auspices of the Murray Presbyterian church, which had been under rehearsal for some time past, made its appearance before the public on Friday and Saturday nights, drawing packed houses each night. The show proved to be the finest mirth provoking entertainment put on here in a long time and provided a continuous roar of laughter from beginning to end. A nice sum was received for the use of the church.

Many at Bible School

On last Sunday, there were many at the Bible school service at the Christian church, the Young Peoples class having an attendance of 26 and much interest manifest in the lesson study. A total of 63 were present in all departments.

John Farris Still Poorly

On last Monday morning, Lee Farris, of near Union, was a visitor in Murray and was calling on his brother, John H. Farris, who has been so poorly for some time past. Although he is still kept at home the greater part of the time, Mr. Farris is now somewhat improved and hopes to be able to get out in a short time. His friends are also hoping soon to see him in better health.

Service This Coming Sunday

There will be services at the Murray Christian church this coming Sunday, with a discourse both in the morning and evening, with the Christian Endeavor in the evening and the Bible school in the morning. Let all come and enjoy these services.

Attended Inaugural of Taft

Twenty-five years ago Thomas Nelson, now with the Murray Lumber company, was making his home in Springfield, Nebraska, where he was engaged in business and as he was going past the bank, which was just across the street from his own place of business, he was accosted by the banker, Mr. C. F. Calhoun, who said to him, "Are you going to the inauguration at Washington and see Mr. Bryan inaugurated as president?" This being before election, Tom had his own ideas about who was going to be elected and answered his friend with the retort, "No, for two reasons, Mr. Bryan is not going to be elected and I could not afford to go anyway." The banker replied with a sporting proposition that if W. H. Taft was elected he would pay Tom's way there for the inauguration and if William Jennings Bryan was elected Tom should do the same for him. The terms of the wager were agreed to and as all knew, Taft was the one elected, so Mr. Nelson got a free trip to Washington and the opportunity of seeing the inaugural ceremonies.

The World-Herald has just published a short account of the unusual wager and its outcome. Tom enjoyed the trip immensely and even more so the pleasure of winning from his banker friend who was so cock-sure that Bryan would be elected.

PUBLIC LIBRARY NOTES

The report of the Plattsouth Public Library for January shows 23 new borrowers. The number of books exchanged was 5447. The largest daily circulation was 423. This day was at the beginning of the new quarter when a new competition for possession of the banner in the reading contest started.

The Story Hours have all been most successful. February 16 was in charge of Miss Hiatt and Miss Muenster February 23, Miss Farley and Miss James were in charge when an operetta was given. The March 9th story hour is on birds and there will be a collection of birds there for the children to see.

The library has ordered "The Washington News." This is David Lawrence's weekly paper of news of our national government, and tells interestingly of all that is happening in Washington.

A new book just received is Nicholas Murray Butler's "Looking Forward." Mr. Butler asks in his book "What shall we do?" We are surrounded by ideas of socialism, communism, dictatorships and whatnot. He answers his own question by asserting that the way out is in a new revival, the exact nature of which is described in his book.

The most popular book continues to be "Anthony Adverse" by Hervey Allen. Another fine book that may be found in the library now is "The House of Exile," by Nora Waln. This tells of the author's experiences and observations in twelve years spent in China, first as the formally adopted daughter of a high class Chinese household and later as the wife of a prominent English official in Chinese government service. You could not call this book strictly a travel book nor yet a biography. But it has the glamour, charm and personal touch of both, and also the suspense of a novel. Pearl Buck says, "Undoubtedly one of the most delightful books of personal experience that has yet been written about China. It's authenticity is beyond question."

Another new book with China as the locale is "The Mother," by Pearl Buck. It is the story not only of a Chinese mother but also of the "universal mother playing out on her little patch of land the part of any mother, rearing her children, sinking her life in theirs and seeing them marry and move on to their own destinies."

South Omaha Production Credit Assn. Meeting

Everett Spangler of Murray is Cass County Member of the Farm Credit Organization.

From Tuesday's Daily

The plans of the Farm Credit Administration for making short term credit available to the farmers of this area took final form today at a meeting of the board of directors of the recently organized South Omaha Production Credit association. The directors elected Mr. Chas. L. Yochum president, and Mr. Gates Lilley, vice-president. The loan committee will consist of Charles L. Yochum and W. F. Gutschow. Mr. George J. Thomas was elected secretary-treasurer of the association and will have offices at Exchange Bldg., South Omaha.

The Production Credit Corporation at Omaha, a division of the Farm Credit Administration subscribed for $112,500 worth of the stock of the local association and will pay in $50,000 at this time, thus enabling the association to start doing business within two weeks. This capital fund will be invested in government securities which will be pledged with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank and thus make available a line of credit for farmers of this section of approximately $160,000. The Omaha corporation has indicated that it will complete its purchase of the amount subscribed as fast as local borrowings demonstrate the need.

The South Omaha Production Credit Association is authorized to serve the farmers of Burt, Cass, Dodge, Douglas, Sarpy, Saunders and Washington counties. The borrower must offer satisfactory security including crops, livestock, or farm equipment and an acceptable plan of repayment. The loans are for short term purposes, growing crops, breeding or feeding of livestock, poultry production and dairying.

Those present at today's meeting included Mr. D. R. Henton and Mr. Y. E. Huffman, representing the Production Credit Corporation of Omaha, and Mr. L. B. Mann of the Farm Credit Administration at Washington. Others present were: Frances H. Hanson, Decatur, Neb.; Chas. Yochum, Ashland, Neb.; W. F. Gutschow, Blair, Neb.; Everett Spangler, Murray, Neb.; and James E. Sloss, North Bend, directors of the South Omaha Production Credit Association.

PREPARE HEALTH CENTER

Through the efforts of Superintendent L. S. Devoe and the co-operation of the board of education a health and nutrition center for Plattsouth has been approved and will be put into active operation with Miss Theresa Libershal as head of the center.

Undernourished children from two to five years to be given medical examinations are found to be in greatest nutritional need as records show.

The local center will prepare to care for twenty-five of the children and for whom accommodations will be made.

The local center is asking the co-operation of the public in carrying on their work and people who have discarded toys, especially doll furniture, dolls, picture books, empty spoons, animal toys, nests and cans or boxes, are asked to bring these to the relief office this week as they will be much appreciated.
