

The Importance of Foundation Garments

is well known to women who wish their clothes to hang and look well. A properly fitted girdle brings out the proper lines of your outer clothing, whereas an improperly fitting undergarment can spoil the appearance of any dress.

We feature American Lady Girdles, Elastic Step-ins, or back lace corsets for the heavier type.

DEBATERS TO AUBURN

From Tuesday's Daily
A group of the Plattsburgh high school debaters were at Auburn this afternoon where they participated in a debate with the squad of that school. Those who made the trip were Ellen Kelly, Lois Mendo, Earl Lamberson, Edgar Seitz, who were accompanied by Madge Garnett and Edward Wehrlein, both of whom had very fine records in their debate work while students at the local high school. The party was in charge of Jack Pilsley, coach of the squad.

No better town in which to reside than Plattsburgh.

Death of Mrs. Samuel Hackenberg Sunday

Long Time Resident of Community Passed Away Late Sunday Evening—Ill for Some Time.

Mrs. Samuel Hackenberg, 69, a resident of Plattsburgh for the greater part of the past forty-five years, died late Sunday night at the home where she had been cared for by the members of the family in the past several months as her health had been gradually failing until death came to her relief.

The deceased lady was born in Wisconsin and spent her younger years there, later moving to Iowa, and where she married Samuel Hackenberg, they coming to Nebraska shortly after their marriage and have made their home here and for a two year period at Alliance.

There were eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. Hackenberg, five of whom are living and three have preceded the mother in death. In addition to the husband the survivors are Alonzo Hackenberg, Mrs. L. W. Niel and Gretel Hackenberg, all of this city, and Mrs. Lloyd Sharpe and Russell Hackenberg of Omaha. There is also one brother and one sister, Lee Layton, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. M. M. Kline of this city.

It is expected that the funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 from the Sattler funeral home at Fourth and Vine streets.

CARD OF THANKS

Our most heartfelt thanks and appreciation is extended to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly administered to us during the brief illness and loss of our beloved wife, mother and sister. Their many manifestations of kindness have comforted our hearts and lightened our load of grief and the memory of this loving sympathy will linger with us as long as life shall last. It is our prayer that God will bless you and bring to you that same sweet sympathy in your hour of grief and sorrow.

The Lord, who sends us grief to bear, sends friends, who understand and care.—S. O. Hackenberg and Children; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Layton.

HAS FOOT OPERATED ON

Frank Rehal of this city was operated on Monday at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha for the second time for injuries suffered in the breaking of the heel of the right foot last May. The foot has never healed and two weeks ago it was necessary to remove some splinters of bone from the heel and since that time the foot has not healed properly, and made necessary the second operation.

PAY HONOR TO JUDGE

From Wednesday's Daily
In honor of the memory of Judge James T. Begley, whose funeral was held this afternoon, the business houses of the city at the request of Mayor John P. Sattler, were closed from 2 to 3 o'clock.

The representatives of the various business houses and Chamber of Commerce of which the departed had been a president, were in attendance at the services at the St. Luke's church.

Pal of Bank Robbers Held in Jail at Omaha

Writer of Intercepted Letter Is Returned to Nebraska by State Sheriff Fred Benton.

Arvell Conrad, former soldier at Fort Crook and pal of the trio that attempted the robbery of the Plattsburgh State bank here last Wednesday, was returned to Nebraska Tuesday afternoon by State Sheriff Fred Benton.

The connection of Conrad with the three Plattsburgh bandits was made by means of a letter intercepted here by Sheriff Homer Sylvester and addressed to John R. Langston, one of the men attempting the job here.

State Sheriff Benton brought Conrad to this city late Tuesday afternoon and he was quizzed by Benton, Sheriff Sylvester, A. C. Anderson and Fritz Franks of the Omaha detective bureau.

The letter was sent to Langston on Monday preceding the attempted robbery here and missed connection with the man to whom it was addressed and later was sent here to the jail and where it was intercepted by Sheriff Sylvester and then sent to Sheriff Carman at Sabetha, Kansas. Conrad formerly was a buddy of Langston, John E. Scislowski, his confederate in the Plattsburgh robbery attempt, and of Clyde Durham, who was slain during the same hold-up. Conrad was discharged February 17 as a private in Company C, Seventeenth infantry, at Fort Crook, and went to Sabetha a week ago.

Sheriff Carman said he readily admitted writing the letter to Langston, but insisted, "I don't know what I mean by it."

TWO SCHOOLS FOR INDIANS

Mrs. Clara C. Clayton, state child welfare director, said there are two agencies in Nebraska giving care and supervision to Indian children. The majority of these children, she said, are not dependent, but return to their parents for the summer vacation months.

The institutions are the Winnebago Indian mission, directed by the women's board of domestic missions of the Reformed Church in America, and St. Augustine's Indian school, sponsored by the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, both located at Winnebago.

The mission has thirty-eight boys and forty-two girls in its care and supervises them in their parents' homes during the summer. The children live at the mission but attend the Winnebago public schools. During the summer the mission takes in boys and girls in need of temporary supervision and care.

St. Augustine's school cares for 57 girls, with an elementary school of eight grades maintained for nine months a year. The children return to their own homes for the summer vacation.

MOURNS COMPOSER'S DEATH

The death of Dr. Daniel Protheroe, noted composer and musical director, has brought a deep feeling of personal loss to two Plattsburgh residents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Figley, both of whom had been under his direction in musical training.

Mr. Figley has received choral training under the noted Welsh musical genius and Mrs. Figley studied directing under him at Chicago. Mr. Figley had a most intimate touch with Dr. Protheroe as he was often a guest at their home while taking his musical work.

A special memorial to Dr. Protheroe was offered by the Presbyterian choir Sunday morning at their service, in his anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," and Mr. Figley gave as a solo offering, "Cling to the Cross," another of the compositions of Dr. Protheroe.

Emergency Recovery Laws Again Upheld

High Court Rules That the New York Statute Fixing Price of Milk Is Valid.

Washington.—The supreme court placed a second judicial prop beneath emergency recovery legislation, adding to its now historic decision supporting the constitutionality of the Minnesota mortgage moratorium law a second verdict declaring valid New York's statute fixing a minimum price for milk. As in the Minnesota case, the decision was by the narrow margin of 5 to 4, which has come to be expected on questions involving liberal as opposed to conservative interpretation of the constitution. Administration leaders, looking forward to possible tests of national emergency laws, were elated at the result.

The decision was handed down by Justice Roberts, with Chief Justice Hughes and Justice Brandeis, Stone and Cardozo forming with him the majority. Justice McReynolds, speaking also for Justices Van Devanter, Sutherland and Butler, delivered an emphatic dissent. The question arose in a case brought in the name of Leo Nabha, a Rochester grocer, who sold two quarts of milk and a loaf of bread for 18 cents and was convicted of violating the law.

government," Justice Roberts asserted the supreme court had "repeatedly sustained curtailment of enjoyment of private property in the public interest." He added: "The owners' rights may be subordinated to the needs of others" and "that the state may control the use of property in various ways," gives illustrations of numerous instances in which it had been done.

"The constitution does not guarantee the unrestricted privilege to engage in a business or to conduct it as one pleases," the opinion declared, explaining that "certain kinds of business may be prohibited and the right to conduct a business or to pursue a calling may be conditioned. Regulation of a business to prevent waste of the state's resources may be justified. And statutes prescribing the terms upon which those conducting certain businesses may contract, or imposing terms if they do not enter into agreements, are within the state's competency."

UNDERGOES OPERATION

From Wednesday's Daily
This morning at the Methodist hospital at Ocahu Mrs. C. R. Troop of this city was operated on for the removal of a cataract growth from her eyes that has been giving her a great deal of trouble for several months. Th many friends here are trusting that the operation may soon restore Mr. Troop to the full use of her eyes and permit her usual activities.
