Easter Day Impressively Observed Here

Special Services Held at the Churches of the City to Honor Resurrection of Lord.

The residents of Plattsmouth joined Sunday in the observance of Easter day in a most impressive manner at the various churches of the city and with ideal weather conditions to aid in making it a day of pleasure to all of the large number of worshippers attending church.

The early sunrise service held at 6:30 Sunday morning at the First Methodist church was participated in by the various young people's societies of the protestant churches, a large number being present for this occasion that with prayer and song opened the day.

The congregations of both the St. John's and Holy Rosary churches at the 7:30 and 10:30 masses was very large as the members of the churches made their Easter obligation. The churches were bright with the floral offerings to add their touch of brightness to the impressive Easter mass.

The Methodist church was arranged very attractively with the potted plants and Easter lilies at the platform for the morning service of the church and which reflected in the sermon and the musical program given very impressive by the choir, the Easter message. At the morning service there was the baptism of infants as well as the reception of members who were joining their lives with that of the church.

At the St. Luke's Episcopal church holy communion was observed at 7:30 and at 10:30 at the church and the rector, Canon Peter, gave the usual Easter message at the 10:30 service and with a very fine program of the Easter hymns given by the choir and congregation.

The First Presbyterian church had one of the most impressive services of the day at their church and attended by a congregation that filled the church to its capacity. The church was beautifully arranged with the potted plants and lilies and a colorful touch was given by the presence at the service of the members of the Knights Templar, making their Easter obligation. The choir of the church gave two anthems, "Beautiful Savior," and "Open Our Eyes," most impressively given and adding a beautiful touch to the service. At this service there was the usual reception of members and the baptismal service for infants held by the pastor, Dr. H. H. McClusky. The sermon of Dr. McClusky was "He Arose."

The St. Paul's Evangelical church had the usual Easter program of great beauty and impressiveness, the choir giving the Easter hymns while the English communion service was held by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Pahl. Here, as at the other churches, there was the reception of new members into the church.

The young people of the Christian church had charge of the musical program of the morning service at that church and gave many beautiful selections along the line of the Easter thought. The message of the day was given by Rev. O. B. Chastain, pastor of the church.

Clarence Miller Escapes from the County Jail

Sentenced to Ten Years as Habitual Criminal, Lincoln Man Removes Window Bar and Flees.

Clarence Miller, Lincoln resident, who was captured at Sioux City, Iowa, a few days ago and brought here to answer to the charge of chicken stealing, is once more a wanderer in the wide open spaces as the result of a daring escape from the Cass county jail shortly after 8 p. m. Monday.

Miller had during the afternoon been arraigned in the district court on the charge of chicken stealing for which he received a sentence of one year from Judge D. W. Livingston, as well as a ten year sentence for a habitual criminal.

The prisoner had been confined in a cell on the upper floor of the jail building with several other prisoners and shortly after Sheriff Homer Sylvester had left the building to look after some affairs out in the city, the prisoner started to get busy. The members of the Sylvester family were in the residence section of the structure and did not suspect that a jail delivery was being carried out.

Miller removed a lug screw that permitted the loosening of the bars of the jail and in a few moments he had made a space in the bars that permitted his getting his body through and from where he dropped to the ground and was away on his dash for liberty.

The other prisoners in the room with Miller did not accept his invitation to follow him and gave the alarm as soon as possible and the general alarm was sent out and groups of citizens and officers started in pursuit of the much wanted man.

Miller had served time in Nebraska and Kansas state prisons in the past and made his escape from the Kansas state penitentiary in 1924 but was later captured in Colorado and returned to serve his term.
