The final details of the banquet to be given by the Plattsmouth Woman's club is now being worked out and all preparations made for this annual event which will be held on Monday evening, May 7th at the First Presbyterian church.

The banquet is to be served by Circle No. 1 of the Woman's federation of the church and will be open to the general public, both men and women. The main speaker of the evening will be William J. Hotz, eminent Omaha attorney, who will speak on "The Law and Economics of the Air Mail Situation," speaking from an extended experience in the air development of the country.

A fine musical program is being arranged under the direction of Mrs. Jack Figley and which will surely be one of the best that has been presented here.

The Plattsmouth high school beginning typewriting team composed of Henry Kaffenberger, Virginia Trively, and John Nottelmann scored first place in the Cass county typewriting contest held at Louisville Saturday. The championship team composed of Kathryn Hough, Lillian Sedlak and John Kelly won second place in the advanced division. Kathryn Hough placed second in the one-minute championship. In the individual ten-minutes for championship division Lillian Sedlak and Kathryn Hough placed fourth and fifth, and Henry Kaffenberger third in the novice individual ten-minutes. Ellen Kelly placed second in the novice one-minute.

Six schools participated in this contest and the pupils of Mr. Starrett made a very creditable showing, and some students were unable to take part due to other activities.

The Young Democrats club of this city in addition to their other activities are now planning the organization of a baseball club in this city. The club will have the opportunity of the services of many of the fast young high school players to form one of the best teams of its kind in this part of the state. The preliminary organization and practice will be held soon and the team be ready to book contests with other team of similar types.

George Cohan says he gets thousands of letters after each broadcast, from listeners wanting to know what, if anything, he did before he went on the air. Anyhow, it ought to cheer George up a lot to know that he's finally making a name for himself.

Jury Awards Lawrence Stull $3,500 Damage

Scaled Verdict Received as Court Convened This Morning—Relocation of Highway 75.

From Monday's Daily The jury that had heard the matter of the relocation of Highway No. 75, involving the appeal of C. Lawrence Stull from the appraisal placed on his land for road condemnation, this morning returned their verdict in the case.

The jury had come to an agreement Friday night but as the court was adjourned until Monday, it was not received until this morning when Judge Livingston arrived from Nebraska City.

The jury brought in a verdict in the amount of $3,500 as the damages that should be paid to Mr. Stull for the use of the land for road purposes. The appraisers in the case had placed the amount of damages at $1,351.25 and from this Mr. Stull had appealed to the court.

Mr. Stull had contended that the construction of this road in addition to others that had been placed through his farm has caused a great deal of damage in segregating the farm lands in several pieces.

DRAIN OUT OIL-EATING SLUDGE NOW

When you change to heavier grade oil, change to one that does not sludge. Sludge causes piston rings to stick and pump oil. Change to Iso-Vis "D" anti-sludge motor oil. It keeps rings lively and free, reduces oil consumption, cuts oil costs.
