Saturday evening Officer David Pickrel was called to the west portion of the city where a disturbance was reported as raging in the vicinity of Fifteenth and Main streets. It was found on the arrival of the officer that Joseph Sedlacek, residing at the southwest corner of 15th and Main streets, had become involved in an argument with members of the Kvapil family who reside just north of the Sedlacek place.

A dispute had arisen over the cutting down or damage of a grape vine of Mr. Sedlacek, as far as the police could determine and Mr. Sedlacek it was claimed had secured a shot gun and made threats as to his intention to settle the matter. The gun was found by officers to be unloaded, but Mr. Sedlacek was brought on down and placed in the city jail to await filing of a complaint and arraign-
