State Music Contest.

The Girls Glee club and quartet of the Eagle high school participated in the state music contest held in Lincoln on May 5th and 6th.

The quartet were rated as good, when competing with 41 other groups in that division, while the glee club received a rating of superior. They competed with 14 other glee clubs in their class.

The patrons of the district appreciate the record made by the girls this year and also the untiring efforts of Mr. Hatfield who has been in charge of all the music.

Trinity Lutheran Aid.

Mrs. Elmer Adams entertained the Trinity Lutheran Aid last Thursday afternoon. Most of the members were present and Mesdames Ben Root, Walter Jacobmeyer, Mary Vickers, Melvin Beach and children and Rev. Rangelier were welcome guests.

Following the short business session, both the guests and members enjoyed the games which had been planned as the entertainment for the afternoon.

The hostess served a lovely lunch at the close of the social hour.

The next meeting will be June 7th at the home of Mrs. August Slekman.

M. E. Sunday School Party.

Rev. Chamberlain entertained his Sunday school class at a party in the parlors of the church last Friday evening.

The evening was spent playing games, carefully planned by a committee, which helped to make the party a success.

Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. Isabelle Jack, assistant teacher, served a lovely lunch, consisting of ice cream, doughnuts and cocoa.

More than twenty members of the class were able to attend the party and they report Rev. Chamberlain a fine host.

DEATH OF BABE

The many old friends will regret to learn of the death of Cathie Ann, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Newton, and granddaughter of Mrs. Ruth Thomsen, former residents here. The death of the little one occurred at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Lutheran hospital at Fremont where she had been for a short time under treatment. The little one had suffered from measles and whooping cough and with the complication that followed was unable to rally and gradually grew worse until death came to her relief.

There will be a short funeral service at the grave in Glendale cemetery near Cedar Creek on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 and the interment made in the Thomsen family plot there. Rev. G. A. Pahl of the St. Paul's Evangelical church of this city, will have charge of the services.

C. D. OF A MEETING

Plattsmouth Court Loretto 709, Catholic Daughters of America, put on the degree work at Nebraska City Sunday afternoon in St. Benedict hall, a large class being initiated into Court Emmanuel of that city.

Miss Veronica O'Connor state grand regent, and Miss Kernan, state director of the Junior Daughters, were present to assist with the work.

A delightful program was enjoyed and especially the piano solos by two blind children from the school of the blind in Nebraska City.

A delicious luncheon served by the Nebraska City Court brought a pleasant afternoon to a close.

COMPLETES ASSESSING

B. F. Dill, assessor for South Bend precinct for many years, again has won the distinction of being the first county assessor to complete his work and turn in his report to County Assessor W. H. Puls. Mr. Dill has been assessor in the "Bend" for a great many years and has proven the first assessor to wind up his work the greater part of the time in all these years. Mr. Dill and daughter were in the city Tuesday afternoon to file the report with the county assessor.

WIN A CLOSE GAME

On Sunday the Johnson team of the Nemaha County League took another victory when they turned back Burr by the score of 5 to 4. In the game the Plattsmouth players with the Johnson team contributed to the victory with Spidell securing two doubles and a single while Newman singled. The Johnson team will play next Sunday at Peru and a real battle is expected.

GIVE ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

Mrs. Verner Perry was hostess at her home at Big Springs, Nebraska, Saturday, April 28th, at a bridge party, announcing the forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Edythe, to Mr. Clarence Wright of North Platte.

There were five tables of bridge, the announcements being arranged in the bridge tables which were miniature brides with the names of Miss Edythe Perry and Mr. Clarence Wright and the date June 2 when the wedding occurs.

The Perry family are former residents of Cass county and members of one of the pioneer families of this part of the state. The bride to be is a granddaughter of Mrs. Catherine Glenn Perry, who makes her home at Murray with her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Spangler.

Miss Perry is a graduate of the Big Springs high school and also attended the University of Nebraska. She has taught music for the past three years in the North Platte schools. Mr. Wright is now the assistant principal of the North Platte high school.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Wright will go to Madison, Wisconsin, where Mr. Wright will take summer school work at the University of Wisconsin, and at this time will receive his master's degree.

They will be at home in the fall at North Platte, Nebraska.

WILL GIVE VIOLIN RECITAL

Miss Eunice Burbridge of Peru, Nebr., will present a violin recital here on Saturday, May 12, at 8 o'clock. She will be assisted by her sister, Dorothy, playing cello.

They are the daughters of C. C. Burbridge, formerly of this city, but now residing in Peru. He played in the orchestras and band of Plattsmouth.

Eunice is attending the Teachers College, where she is specializing in music. Dorothy recently won a superior rating at the district contest in Omaha and an excellent rating at the state contest. She is a senior in high school and will graduate this spring.

These girls gave a recital in Peru a short time ago. Their accompanist is Harriett Scott of Wymore, also attending college in Peru.

DRAWNS DOWN FINE

Joseph Sedlacek, against whom a complaint for disturbing the peace was filed Saturday night, was given his day in court Monday afternoon before Judge C. L. Graves. Mr. Sedlacek had made a plea of not guilty to the charge and the court listened to the evidence as presented by the complaining witness, Mrs. Mary Kvapil as well as Mr. Sedlacek. The defendant was charged with having threatened the complaining witness with a shotgun which was, however, unloaded. The court, after hearing the statements of the several parties in the case, gave his decision that the defendant should pay a fine of $8 and costs, amounting to some $11.50.

"DAD" PROPST IS BETTER

"Dad" Robert L. Propst, 119 No. Federal Highway, Lake Worth, Florida, has recovered his eyesight sufficiently to be about again. Mr. Propst was out for the first time in months today. An operation, performed at Miami in January, was successful, but painfully slow. However he received glasses Friday which enables him to read, also distance glasses. "Yes, I'm out of the darkness once more," Mr. Propst said. Mrs. Elvin E. Greene, Jr., accompanied her father to Miami on Friday.—Lake Worth Leader, May 5th, 1934.

TO HOLD MEMORIAL

There will be a special session of the district court held at the district court room in this city on Friday evening, May 11th, at 8 p. m. This session of the court will be in the nature of a memorial to the late Hon. James T. Begley, former judge of this district, given by the bar of the second judicial district. The public is cordially invited to attend.

W. A. ROBERTSON,
President 2nd District Bar Association.

HERE FROM CANADA

Mrs. W. P. Kreager, who has been at Arrowwood, Alberta, Canada, for a short time looking after matters pertaining to the settlement of the estate of her sister, Mrs. Jessie Kiser, returned home last evening.

She was accompanied by her two nephews and niece, Howard, Norman and Marion Baker, who will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. Kreager at the farm west of M.
