

Nehawka

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rhoden were over to Council Bluffs, where they spent Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Rhoden.

There is joy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schumacher on account of the arrival of a very fine young lady, who came to make her home with them.

J. J. Pollard and James M. Palmer were in Omaha last Monday afternoon where they drove that Mr. Pollard might look after some business in his line, that of agricultural implements.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop and daughter, Miss Lois, were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday, where they enjoyed viewing the flower show and were also visiting with friends as well.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooney, of Nebraska City, were guests for the day and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton, Mr. Cooney being a brother of Mrs. Burton. All enjoyed a very fine visit.

Some five or six men from here have been working at Weeping Water the past week, having accepted positions with the Ole Olsen quarries at that point, getting out stone for rip rap work on the river.

Frank Dill and family, of Mynard, were in Nehawka for the graduation exercises, they driving down for the occasion to be present at the graduation of their daughter, who was a member of the class of 1934.

Frank Boedeker and family, of Council Bluffs, were in Nehawka last Thursday to enjoy the commencement exercises of the Nehawka schools, as they had some relatives who were graduating with the class of 1934.

Earl Troop and wife, of north of Nehawka, and William Gorder and wife, of Plattsmouth, were in Omaha on Monday of this week, where they were visiting with friends and looking after some business matters.

Miss Mildred Burton, who is employed at the home of J. W. Stone and wife, accompanied by her friend, James Hoschar of near Murray, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton.

Making Himself an Auto

Hal Hansen, young son of Clarence Hansen, who is mechanically inclined, is busy at this time working on a motor car which he expects to use for pleasure when he gets it completed. He has the chassis all ready for the installation of the motor and will put in a gasoline propelled motor which he received as a legacy from an old washing machine. Hal is anticipating much pleasure from his new car.

Opening New Quarry

The firm of Martin & Day, of Lincoln, who purchased a portion of the land owned by the Pollard estate last fall, are at this time starting to open up a quarry near the west edge of the north orchard. They have taken one of their heavy excavating machines to the scene and began work Monday morning stripping the land. The work is progressing nicely and they expect to soon have the quarry ready for operation. Just how many people they will employ is not known at this time, but certainly there will be quite a few.

Every new industry added gives employment to men and helps relieve the general unemployment condition that has existed over the country the past few years.

Made Good Address

The commencement exercises of the Nehawka schools were well attended, the auditorium being filled to capacity with relatives and friends of the graduates. The principal address was delivered by Walter Kitchel, who had a splendid message for the young people and patrons of the school. He was accompanied here by his wife, they being friends of Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Stimbart, at whose home they were guests during the afternoon and evening.

Made Address at Wabash

Rev. W. A. Taylor and wife were at Wabash last Sunday, attending the Memorial services at the Wabash cemetery at which Rev. Taylor delivered the Memorial address. While there they both met many friends whom they had known for years, as Rev. Taylor was pastor there for a long time. The people of the community remembered Rev. Taylor with a very fine offering for his services on this occasion, for which they have his sincere thanks.

Old Dominion Celebrates

All those who once lived in "Old Virginia" met with a hearty welcome last Sunday at the Arbor Lodge state park in Nebraska City, where they went to meet with others from that state, who like themselves had followed the advice of Horace Greeley and "gone west" to make for themselves a home in the great commonwealth of Nebraska and its adjoining states. The former Virginians held a real get-together that enlivened recollections of their younger days and included the Virginia Reel and other similar customs of the years gone by. A general renewal of acquaintance, coupled with a bounteous dinner and much talk of the early days served to pass the time in most pleasant manner and now there is talk of the reunion being made an annual affair. There is nothing like getting together on occasions such as this and reviewing events of the years gone by, when neighbors and friends meet for a reunion of this sort. In all there were several hundred people present who had either migrated from the Old Dominion state or were the offspring of those early migrants.

Daily Vacation Bible School

The daily vacation Bible-school began last Monday with all interested in the success of the venture which has for its purpose the acquainting of all those enrolled with the scriptures. A corps of efficient teachers has been selected to have charge of the various instruction periods and there is bound to be much good accomplished during this school period devoted to Bible study. A goodly number of students are now enrolled and the school is getting started in fine shape.

Many Attend Flower Show

Many of the flower lovers of this vicinity were in attendance at the flower show held in Plattsmouth last Friday and Saturday and some prizes were awarded Nehawka people. Mrs. R. C. Pollard was awarded prizes for her iris display and Mrs. A. G. Murdoch was also listed among the prize winners, both of these ladies having especially beautiful flowers on exhibit. The show was held at the American Legion building with ample room for all the exhibits. Large numbers of Plattsmouth people and visitors from surrounding towns attended the show and all were well pleased with the quality of the exhibits, considering the dry weather that has prevailed. Outside of Plattsmouth, there were three towns in the county having displays, they being Murdoch, Avoca and Nehawka.

Nehawka Schools Close

The school year at Nehawka closed on last Friday, with a picnic at the school grounds, where the patrons and their families gathered for a community picnic, and where there were amusements of all kinds provided, including baseball, kittenball, tennis and other games and contests. Including adults and school children, there were nearly five hundred present and the grounds furnished ample room for the gathering. The school grounds at Nehawka are among the finest in the state, being away ahead of any in Omaha and the larger towns and with an abundance of shade from the native trees, elms, maple and other varieties, as well as the towering pines which were placed there by Mr. Isaac Pollard nearly a half century ago, makes the ideal meeting place for a gathering of this nature, without necessity of having to go to the country in search of a wooded spot. A fine picnic dinner was served, with an abundance of good things to eat being provided for all.

Memorial Day Observed

The committee having in hand the marking of the graves of the soldier dead of the numerous wars in which our country has participated, performed its duty well and in addition to designating the graves of the soldier dead and marking them with flag, also secured an abundance of flowers for the graves, while the friends and relatives of others buried there also brought flowers to mark the graves of their loved ones, making the cemeteries about Nehawka a most beautiful sight.

During the forenoon, services were held at the auditorium, with a well arranged Memorial program, consisting of music, songs and readings. The principal address was made by Rev. E. S. Pangborn, pastor of the Methodist churches at Nehawka and Weeping Water, and who made a most worthwhile patriotic address, encouraging Americanism of a character that will withstand the intrigues of anti-American doctrine and propaganda now being spread at large in the metropolitan centers and to a less extent in the rural areas of our country. His theme was "Keep America American for Americans." It was a well worded address and drew much favorable comment from among those who heard it.

Rev. Pangborn has just recently returned from a prolonged stay at the hospital in Omaha, and it was with pleasure that his friends here greeted him on this occasion.

From Tuesday's Daily
This evening Mr. and Mrs. Jack Figley depart for Wahoo where they will visit at the home of Mrs. Figley's mother, Mrs. May, later all three driving to Ohio, where they intend to visit with the father of Mr. Figley.

The departure of Mr. and Mrs. Figley from the city brings a great regret to the friends that they have made the past school year. Mr. Figley not returning here the coming school year as history and debate teacher.
