

Nehawka

Lois Troop was spending the day last Tuesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Victor Wehrlein.

W. O. Troop was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday, driving over to the county seat in his car.

Earl Troop, who is employed at Dorchester, was a visitor for over the week end at home, returning to his work late Saturday evening.

Glen Rutledge was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Sunday afternoon, called there to look after some business matters for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rough were at Tekamah last Sunday, where they were visiting at the home of a brother of Mr. Rough for the day.

Miss Lois Troop was a visitor for a short time during the week with her sister, Mrs. Maybelle Gorder, who is attending summer school at Peru.

Raymond Creamer and the family were enjoying a visit last Sunday at the home of John Frizel and wife, they spending the day there with their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson were at Avoca last Monday, where they attended the funeral of the late Louis Marquardt, one of the pioneer residents of that community.

Eugene and John Hicks were at Plattsmouth last Sunday, where they were visiting for the day at the home of Charles F. Hitt, who is employed on the river improvement work.

Miss Lois Graham, of Allerton, Ia., who has been attending school at Tarkio, Mo., was a guest of friends in Murray a few days last week, returning later to her home in Iowa.

Mrs. Ray Campbell was taken to the University hospital at Omaha last week, where she underwent an operation for relief from appendicitis and where she has since been improving very nicely.

Mrs. J. H. Steffens, who has been ill for so long a time and confined to her bed, continues in the same state of health, but hopes are entertained that she may start to show marked improvement soon.

Mrs. Gertrude Beckner, of Nebraska City was visiting with friends and looking after some business matters north of Nehawka last Saturday. She also visited with relatives in Louisville while up this way.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Edmonds were enjoying a visit from Mrs. Edmonds' sister and husband, who are here from their home in Minneapolis. All enjoyed the visit very much, not having seen each other for some time.

Robert H. Chapman, rural mail carrier on the north route out of Nehawka, and B. E. Summers, agent for the Missouri Pacific at Nehawka were looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Tuesday afternoon.

Eugene Hicks, who some time ago had a foot broken while working at the stone quarries, is almost entirely recovered and was over to Omaha for an examination last Saturday night. He went to work for the stone company again last week.

Mrs. George Troop, of north of Nehawka, was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Friday, where she was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Kenneth McCarthy, caring for her sister, who was injured some time since and has not entirely recovered.

James M. Dunbar and family, of Auburn, were in Nehawka for the day last Sunday, where they were visiting at the home of James M. Palmer and during the morning the boys were over to Avoca, where they were visiting for a short time.

John Opp and family and Enos Plunkett were over to Iowa on last Sunday, visiting at the old townsite of Hillsdale, where they looked after the graves of some friends buried in the cemetery of that pioneer village which has long since passed out of the picture.

Miss Maurine Cisney was a visitor for the past week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lewis, of near Coleridge, returning home last Saturday. She reports conditions there are about the same as here, except it has been considerably drier in that vicinity.

Thomas E. Fulton, the veteran Cass county blacksmith, is able to get down to the blacksmith shop on nice days, where he meets a number of his friends. He is very thankful that he is able to go that far, but does not venture farther as his supply of strength is limited. His many friends are hoping that he may soon show even greater improvement.

Played Golf Early

Very early last Sunday morning, Frank Lemon, Dernel Adams, Albert Anderson and Robert McConaha motored over to Nebraska City, where they shot a few rounds of golf at the early hour of six o'clock, while the dew was on the roses.

Visiting in the East

Mrs. J. W. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wessell, accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Merick and their daughter, Miss Ida, departed on Wednesday morning for New York, where they will visit Dr. Miller, who is a physician on duty with the Pacific fleet, which is now cruising in Atlantic waters and who will depart from New York for Newport News on July 5th. Following the departure of her husband, Mrs. Miller will go to Washington with the party and they will visit the interesting places in the nation's capital city. Returning, they will come by way of Chicago, where they will stop off to take in the sights at the World's fair. In all they expect to be away for about three weeks.

Children's Day Program at the Methodist Church

Beautiful Pageant Staged by Young People of Sunday School Is Colorful Feature.

The Children's Day program at the Methodist church Sunday morning was called "A Basket of Flowers. Miss Mildred Hill was in charge of the decorations. Trellises covered with greenery, artificial grass and hollyhocks, made a scene that was altogether lovely. The music was furnished by Mrs. L. S. Devoe. Mrs. Howard Davis was the reader. Mrs. Hallie Perry was in charge of the costumes. Each flower that grew in the garden was appropriately represented. The list of characters were: Sun - Allan White; Butterfly - Donna Mason; Lullaby - Jean Persinger; Service - Ruth Ann Hatt; March - Mary Catherine Wiles; April - Margaret Yelick; May - Wauneta Johnson; June - Virginia Trively; Rose - Ruth Mason; Weed - Donald Busch; Primrose - Mary Rishel; Daisies - Eleanor Mason, Doris Hutchison; Black Eyed Susan - Virginia Oufft; Pansies - Norma Spidell, Peggy Highfield; Forget-Me-Nots - Sharon Hill, Marilyn Kleck; Hollyhock - Mary Alice Oschlagler; Lily - Vivian Warner; Jack in Pulpit - Jimmy Mauzy; Bouncing Betty - Dorchea Duxbury; Zenta - Mary Catherine Reeves; Johnny Jump Ups - Jimmy Hutchison, Arthur Capper; Baby Breath - Dolores Groff, David Lillie.

Proceeding the garden scene the beginner, primary and junior departments each furnished a group of songs. Rev. Troy baptized Clementine Woster and received four boys into the church, Robert Beal, Joe Noble, Joe McMaken, Jr., and Jim Mauzy.

Howard Davis, superintendent of the Sunday school, gave the history of the educational fund, established in 1873. A revolving fund used by Methodist young people in securing an education. The collection of the service goes to this fund.

The committee in charge was Mrs. Howard Davis, superintendent primary department; Mrs. Harry White, superintendent beginners department; Mrs. Vernon Arn, superintendent junior department; Mrs. E. H. Wescott. The committee thanks all who contributed to the success of the program.

TWO YOUNG MEN ARRESTED

Monday night following a report made to local officers, that the license plates of the car of L. J. Stiles had been stolen, two Plattsmouth young men were arrested in Sarpy county with the plates on their car.

The two young men gave the names of Ed Price and Alvin Shryock, 17 and 18 years of age. At the time they were arrested by Officer Gates they were driving an old Hupmobile and on which was the license plates. Officer Gates held the two on a charge of intoxication, they being taken to Papillion. The plates were returned to their owner here by Deputy Sheriff Walling and it is expected that the two will be allowed to be tried on the charges filed against them in Sarpy county.

CAPTURE GAS THIEVES

Tuesday night at Elmwood Marshal Sterner and a posse of several citizens made the capture of three Lincoln men who were caught draining gas from cars in that little city. The men were caught with cans and syphons in their car and had evidently been well prepared to carry on this line of work.

The men gave the names of Gerold Gillian, Ted Rogers and John Jacques, all of Lincoln and the latter a Mexican.

The message was sent to this city for the sheriff to come and secure for the men and they were accordingly brought here by Deputy Sheriff Walling and lodged in the county jail for safekeeping.

HERE FOR VACATION

Mrs. Alice Andrews, one of the instructors at the Nebraska School for the Deaf at Omaha, is here to enjoy the summer with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Kerr and has been joined by her daughter, Miss Mia Andrews, who is a student at the Iowa School for the Deaf at Council Bluffs.

County Treasurer and Mrs. John E. Turner and daughter, Dorothy Jean, were at Elmwood Sunday to spend the day with relatives and friends.
