

Weeping Water

John Carnack of Plattsmouth was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water on last Tuesday and as well as meeting with many of his friends.

Miss Ruth Frantz who has been visiting with friends for some time returned home on last week and was pleased to be home again after her very pleasant visit.

Mrs. Nettie B. Amick, mother of Stirling Amick, who is making her home at the present near Effwood, was a visitor for a short time at the home of her son last Saturday night.

Charles Seeley and G. R. Blinger were over to Plattsmouth on last Monday, called to look after some business matters at the court house and as well meeting with their many friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sitzman were over to Plattsmouth on last Saturday evening, guests while there at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Floyd H. Gerbling and were also visiting with other friends.

Wm. Sporer of Murray was a visitor in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week having some business matters to look after and was meeting with his many friends as he resided here in the years gone by.

The H. K. Frantz home entertained on last Wednesday, the Fourth of July, at their home and had as their guests for the occasion, James Carr, Miss Elizabeth King, Maynard Liles, Russell Harris, all of Lincoln, where all enjoyed the visit very much.

Peter H. Miller and son Pete, were down to Pawnee City on last Sunday where they were looking after things on the farm which Mr. Miller owns there. They found the condition of weather and crops just about the same there as here and with the crops slightly better than here.

At the services on last Sunday at the Methodist church there was a large and very interesting congregation as well as a large attendance at the Bible school during the earlier morning hours. The church at this time is doing a good work and are adding much interest and a number of members to their rolls.

Clyde Gilmore of Louisville and Kenneth Collins, both alone, met at the top of a hill some seven miles north of Weeping Water with the result that both cars were badly demolished and the men both shaken up but not otherwise seriously injured. The top of the hill is a place which, unless one is very careful in keeping on his own side of the road, is liable to bring grief.

Attending Century of Progress.

A party of Weeping Water people departed on last Sunday, composed of Mr. and Mrs. James Kivitt, Mesdames Ralph Keckler and Joseph Abrahams, for the Century of Progress at Chicago where they will spend the week and return during the latter portion of the week endeavoring to see as much of the great exposition as the time at their disposal allows.

Weeping Water Another Candidate.

Weeping Water has another candidate for office, this time it being Mrs. Edna D. Shannon who has filed for the position of Register of Deeds, and a position for which she is well equipped having did much work in this office. Mrs. Shannon is well and favorably known and should she be elected will make a most capable and obliging official. Mrs. Shannon is making a vigorous campaign for nomination and election and will see the voters over the entire county before the coming of the primary election.

Has New Equipment.

The Hobson funeral home, which is always striving to give the very best service in their line, has purchased a new funeral car which will enable them to render better and prompt service when this service is needed. This firm have ever striven to make the loss of loved ones felt as little as possible by the very nice manner in which they give service to the public. Their funeral home is nicely appointed and every effort is extended to make their service the very best.

Busy Feeding Cattle.

Mr. J. L. Wiles was over to Omaha on last Monday where he made the purchase of a number of feeding cattle for his yards here, he having a large number on feed at all times and of which this is no exception. The cattle which were purchased at the yards in Omaha on Monday were brought to the farm and feeding lots north of Weeping Water on last Organize Tennis Club.

The young people of Weeping Water have recently organized a tennis club with some twenty-two members and have elected as their president, Mr. Wolcott and Russell Switzer as vice president. They will try and derive much amusement and exercise from the games which they will play.

Cars Collide.

There were two instances of cars meeting at the top of the hill, one in which Dr. W. H. Tuck was called to the home of Martin Nelson for service in his line and just as he was turning into the driveway of the farm a car from the west shot over the crest of the hill and between the car of the Doctor when they came together with the result that both parties were badly shaken up and some damage done to the cars.

New Jail Progressing.

The building of the new jail for Weeping Water is making good progress. This is to be one of the most secure of buildings and when once one has been placed therein he will be sure and be there when called for when wanted. The steel cage which contains two compartments is set on a slab of reinforced concrete, and around this is constructed the building proper which is also of concrete blocks making a most serviceable bastille and a home for those who do not care to be good. It looks like you had better behave yourselves for the unrelenting hand of the law says you must.

The Fourth at Weeping Water.

With the returning of the natal day the business houses were open during the morning hours that one might get what was needed for the day, mostly closing before noon. It has been the practice of a number of the members of the Methodist church to get together a few times the year and celebrat for those who have no near relatives to spend the holidays with and so they have selected the church basement for their get-together meeting time and they enjoyed their dinner and a very sociable time was had.

MAKES DONATION TO CAMP

Clarence Cotner, operator of the Plattsmouth-Omaha bus line, has been added to the list of those who have made donations to the equipment of Camp Wheeler, boy scout overnight camp south of this city. Mr. Cotner has added four bracket lamps to help out the lighting of the cabin and supplementing the gifts made by the W. R. C. several days ago.

Mr. Cotner has been much interested in scouting as his son, Donald, has been active in scout work for several years and is one of the veteran members of the local troop.

Barton Green Files as Morehead Waits

Lancaster County Republican Chairman Tries for United States Senator.

While deputy Secretary of State Tolson late Tuesday was holding the primary gates open for a possible filing from Congressman Morehead for United States senator, Barton Green of Lincoln walked in and planked down his own filing as a republican candidate for senator. Green, as an evidence of good faith, presented with his application a receipt for the $50 filing fee paid to the treasurer of Lancaster county. A petition had been filed for Green by Wymore people, but it failed to state what political party the petitioners affiliated with, so Green made his own personal filing, and the deed was done. Green is chairman of the Lancaster county republican committee and is active in state politics.

Five o'clock came and Morehead, who had been in Lincoln, did not appear, and Tolson closed the office until Thursday morning when it will reopen for the last day's rush, closing at 5 o'clock in the evening. This office, like others in the capitol, will be closed for observance of the Fourth of July, and candidates must wait until the following day.

Otto Meier of Lincoln, came in person and was the 319th candidate to file. He presented his nominating certificate as a democratic candidate for congress in the First district.

Mabel Gillespie of Gretna, member of the legislature, now holding a federal appointment, filed as a democratic candidate for congress in the Second district.

F. A. Dutton of Beatrice, now assistant in the state labor commissioner's office, is the subject of a petition from Beatrice democrats who ask him to be a candidate for attorney general. Nominations filed during the afternoon:

H. H. Harper, Omaha, democrat, for congress, Second district.

R. H. Sawyer, Lincoln, republican, railway commissioner.

Lee Card, Chadron, republican, congress, Fifth district.

E. E. Jackman, Grant, republican, congress, Fourth district.

Arthur Bowering, Merriman, republican congress, Fifth district.

Donald Gallagher, Lincoln, republican, attorney general.

George Amiot, Sidney, democrat thirty-first state senatorial.

Martin W. Dimery, Sidney, republican, thirty-first senatorial.

Edward Gillette, Holdrege, democrat, twenty-eighth senatorial.

Harry L. Babcock, Lincoln, republican, state auditor.

Acceptance of a petition nomination for congress in the Third district was filed by Karl Stefan of Norfolk, republican.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

From Tuesday's Daily
Elmer A. Webb, of the Journal, who has been at the U. S. Veterans hospital at Lincoln for the past three weeks, returned home last evening and is feeling very much improved as the result of his operation for the removal of a fatty tumor from the right shoulder.

Mr. Webb had expected to be home last week but a slight infection of the stitches of the wound made necessary his remaining at the hospital a few days longer.

The Webb family departed this morning for Creighton, Nebraska, where they are to spend the remainder of the week visiting with the relatives of Mrs. Webb there for a few days.

TO ATTEND FUNERAL

From Monday's Daily
The message was received here today of the death Sunday at Plainview of William Selvers, 45, well known here, who passed away after a short illness. The deceased was the husband of a niece of Mrs. Jacob Tritsch and the late Mrs. M. L. Frederick. The funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at Plainview and will be attended by Miss Amelia Frederick, Mrs. Jacob Tritsch and Mrs. Harry Shafer.

OPENING UP PARK

The new Playmore park, formerly operated by Louie Naeve, is to have the formal opening on Wednesday July 4th and affords this part of the state one of the most attractive parks of its kind.

The new dance pavillion and bathing beach makes the park one of the favorite spots in this hot and humid weather and a very large crowd is anticipated there for the Fourth.

The grounds embrace ninety acres suited for the use of picnic parties and many family groups have been there to enjoy this feature of the park.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. B. C. Hyde returned from Downers Grove, Illinois, where she has been for the past two weeks visiting at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Hyde. Mrs. Hyde accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Hyde to their home in Downers Grove after a two weeks visit in Plattsmouth with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Hyde reports that the sights at the Century of Progress are wonderful also that she visited many other points of interest in and around Chicago. She also renewed acquaintances of her former neighbors and friends at Downers Grove.

ARRIVES FROM CHICAGO

From Tuesday's Daily
This morning Miss Alice Louise Westcott arrived from Chicago to enjoy a vacation visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Westcott as well as the other relatives and friends. Miss Westcott has a very fine secretarial position at Northwestern university of which she is a graduate and has been engaged there since completing her school work.

Mrs. D. J. Boom of Nebraska City is here to spend a short time visiting at the homes of her niece, Mrs. Edward Gabelman and Mrs. John Jordan.
