of Summerfield, Kansas, spent the day with them, taking well filled baskets of lunch to add to the cafeteria dinner which was served at the noon hour and which included fried chicken and all the trimmings. And all sure enjoyed it after their long drive. The cream and cake were served before the guests departed for their home. It is needless to say all enjoyed the day and hope to have another chance to visit at this Kansas home.

Meeting Aid Society.

The Aid Society will meet at the Christian church Wednesday afternoon, July 11th. Hostesses, Mrs. Fred Hild, Mrs. Margaret Brendell, Mrs. Will Seybott.

BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSING

In order that the owners and clerks of the various business houses of the city might more thoroughly enjoy the day of independence, the business houses of the city were closed at noon. Owing to the fact that there was no formal celebration staged here a large part of the vacationers motored to the nearby bathing beaches or cities where formal celebrations were staged. A number from here motored to Red Oak, Iowa, where they spent the day in the enjoyment of the celebration.

Earl Freeman and family were spending Sunday at the home of his parents, Edward Freeman and family northeast of Weeping Water.

Elmer J. Hallstrom was called to Lincoln on Tuesday of last week where he had some business matters to look after for the Farmers Bank of Avoca.

Fred Marquardt and wife were visiting in Louisville last Sunday and where they also attended a picnic at the lakes along the Platte in the evening.

John Everett and family were enjoying a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Brinton at Elmwood on last Sunday where all enjoyed the visit very much.

The clever and genial agent for the Missouri Pacific, Mr. A. W. Carr who has served the public at the station was transferred to the third trick job at Union last Tuesday and a Mr. Bogheim was sent here in his place.

R. L. Propst, father of Mrs. Elmer Hallstrom, is visiting at the Hallstrom home in Avoca from his home at Lake Worth, Florida, and is accompanied by a Cuban maid who assists him in getting about as his eyes are very poor.

Wm. Sporer who had not been in Avoca since the time the railroad was built until the present, was visiting with friends here on last Tuesday. Mr. Sporer who resided northeast of Weeping Water years ago makes his home at Murray at this time.

Simon Rehmeier and the family of Alvo were visiting at Avoca on last Monday evening, and sure they do not forget when the celebration is had here for it affords them an opportunity to visit with their many friends. They were accompanied by Professor Leo Hauptman and family who are residents of Alvo, as Professor Hauptman has been elected to be superintendent of the Alvo schools. They also visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hauptman.

Celebration a Success.

The Fourth of July celebration which the people of Avoca put on every year on July 2nd in the evening was duly held on last Monday evening and a large and well pleased crowd was present and enjoyed the program, and as well were thrilled by the potent clouds which threatened rain but did not deliver the goods. Some were frightened away on account of the threatening weather but most stayed the evening out. There was music by the juvenile band and Hal Garnet and family of Plattsmouth were here and sang which was enjoyed.

The two daughters of Herman Wagner also gave a musical number. Ernest Gollmer, Oscar Zimmer and Verne Rawalt were heard in a saxophone trio which was very pleasing to all. One of the pleasing features of the evening was the Chick-house Orchestra which was composed of Lloyd Behrens, Vern Rawalt, Ernest Gollmer and Emory Vails. They sure did bring the applause from the happy crowd. Mrs. J. C. Cullen and P. Straub gave a very pleasing dust. The Friendly Farm Girls, and you could see friendship in their happy smiles, was the next number and was rendered by a chorus of Sophia Stubendick, Opal Ruffner, Ines O. Ohlersberg, Edna Mohr, Alma Hillman and Lorine Wahlers. A whistling solo was given by W. H. Sims of Lincoln.

A very fine time was had notwithstanding the fear and hope as to that of rain.

Candidates Were Here.

Among the merry crowd visiting the happy throng were a number of candidates, they being W. C. Kieck who is county attorney and wishes to succeed himself, John E. Turner, county treasurer who is seeking reelection and our own Shorty Homer Sylvester who desires to be sheriff for another four years and was accompanied by his amiable deputy, Thomas Walling, all adding to the interest and color of the celebration.

Mrs. Steinhoff Passes.

Mrs. Wm. Steinhoff, formerly Miss Lena Buckman, aged 54 years, passed away at their home in the country several miles southwest of Avoca last Thursday evening after a short illness. Mrs. Steinhoff was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Buckman of Avoca. She leaves the husband, two children and her parents to mourn her departure. The funeral was held from the North Branch church and attended by a host of friends, so many that the church building could not hold them.

If we had taken our boom time architect's advice and built a 3-car garage, we could now move into the garage and rent the house.

Every penny spent for advertising will yield a big return.
