Baseball Picnic.

Eagle baseball team defeated the Louisville team by the score of 5-3.

Following the game about thirty-five gathered and enjoyed a swim in the sandpit and later a fine picnic supper in the Louisville baseball park.

Snip and Stitch Club.

The Snip and Stitch sewing club were entertained at the home of Irma May Adams on Tuesday afternoon of August 7th. All the members except one, were present.

Plans were made for an achievement day program which will be held later in the summer. Committees were appointed by the president, who will carry out the plans for this event. Each may invite a guest to attend this club activity.

The selection of suitable materials, designs, and patterns for kitchen aprons were discussed. The laundry bags which were all quite well made, were judged. Each girl showed a marked improvement in her sewing.

After the lesson the hostess, assisted by Lucille Norris served ice cream, wafers and punch.

The next meeting will be at the home of Lois Jean Lytle on the afternoon of August 21st.

An Old Resident Laid to Rest.

Many relatives and friends gathered at the McFall home last Saturday afternoon to attend the funeral services held for Mr. M. McFall, a highly respected resident of this community for more than fifty years. The services were in charge of Rev. Allen Chamberlain, who from the scriptures spoke comforting words to the family and paid tribute to the departed one for the fine life he had lived. Mrs. Orill Allen and Mrs. John Fischer sang during the services.

Mr. McFall was born in Ontario, Canada, Sept. 13, 1857. When nineteen years of age he came to the United States and at Eureka, Nevada he entered the employ of the Union Pacific railroad as a train conductor, where he remained for several years. In the year 1881 he came to Nebraska and settled on a farm south of Eagle where he lived continuously until his death which occurred August 9th at the age of 76 years, 10 months, 27 days.

He was united in marriage with Irene Chaffield Sept. 24th, 1887. One daughter was born to this union. He was a member of the Eagle M. E. church for more than forty years.

He was always very much interested in community achievements, having served as president of the Eagle Telephone company, as a member of the Farmers' Elevator board, and in earlier years of the school board of his district, also always was a promoter of the local Farmers' Union.

As a husband and father he was devoted to his home and family.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Laura West, three grandchildren, Florence, Richard and Sumner West, a brother William, the last of a family of eight brothers and sisters, residing in Long Beach, Calif., and a number of nieces and nephews.

The pall bearers were H. L. Scattergood, Wm. Bunten, Irvin Stall, Chris Larson, Emil Oberle and Thomas Dysart.

Burial was in Rosewood cemetery at Palmyra.

BIRTH OF DAUGHTER

Those who attended the event were Neva Lancaster, Malvern Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Noell and family, Florence and R. A. Noell, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Griffin and family, Louise Bakke, William Griffin, David Lancaster, Alice Dill, James Hoschar, Raymond Lancaster, Louis Wagner, Norma Baumgart, Thyra Baumgart, Elmer Stoehr, Stella Parkening, Martha Kauffenberger, Floyd Gauer, La Verna Rhoden, Carl Lange, Opal Tennant, Geraldine Rhoden, John Kelly, Ellen Kelly, Vivian Terryberry, Elmer Spreig, Elmer Spreig, Elinor Spreig, LeRoy Hennings, Glen Kauffenberger, Ted Stoehr, Pete Hiems, Helen Hiems, Joyce Gauer, Glen Hefflicker, Gerald Kell, Marian Speck, Merle Meisinger, Gauer Salsberg.

All departed having had a very good time.

LIFE SAVING PROGRAM

The Cass county chapter American Red Cross life saving program given at the three lakes in Cass county proved to be very worth while under the capable instructor, David J. Chesneau, Red Cross examiner. The first week instruction was given at Louisville at State Recreation Park. Second week at Merritt Lake serving Plattsmouth. Third week at South Bend. The fourth week he is returning to Louisville, as many desired more training. For three days the following week he will return to South Bend Lake Park. Mr. Weaver, the Red Cross representative of South Bend notifies the county officers that the service was excellent and that community would appreciate having him a few days longer.

The management of these lakes, the local branches of Cass county chapter, at Louisville, Plattsmouth and South Bend, all have given splendid co-operation to the life saving chairman, Mrs. R. E. Norris and the county officers who are responsible for securing the service.

LOSE IN OMAHA OPEN TOURNEY

The last two Plattsmouth tennis players in the Omaha city open tourney were eliminated Monday evening. Larson drew Fred Rohrs of Peru as his opponent. Rohrs defeated Larson 6-2, 7-9, 6-4. Rohrs had defeated Wilbur Haesen of Lincoln Sunday to help Peru beat Lincoln 3-0.

Ralph Mason won by default from Charles Brown and Monday evening lost to Wilbur Fullaway 6-0, 6-2.

Tentative plans are under way to have the crack Shenandoah netsters here Sunday.

Mrs. Belle Stoner of Glenwood, arrived in the city Monday afternoon for a visit here with the relatives and friends and enjoying a short outing from her work.
