'Chevies' Win from Eagles in

Hectic First Inning of Game Spells the Downfall of the Fraternal Group 13 to 8.

Softball Game

After a first inning start that gave the Eagle fans the hope that they might ride to victory over "Doc" and uates of the University of Nebraska, his crew of "Chevies," the fraternal group in the second half of the first allowed eight of the auto team to trot over the plate. In the first half of the inning Cotner and McCarthy of the Eagles were safe on errors and then Brittain was walked to fill the sacks. "Dutch" Clark, shortstop of the Eagles dumped the ball for a double and scored two runs, Brittain later scoring on the hit of Fullerton, but Clark was held at third. With the Chevie half of the inning, Herb Schutz opened the argument with a long fly to left that was misjudged and was good for a circuit drive. Dew was on through an then Oliver shook the Eagle defense with another home run. A walk and three hits gave the Chevies a total of eight tallies before they were finally retired. The Chevies also addwhen Ashbaugh was walked and hits by McClanahan and Oliver, both doubles, resulted in an equal number of
