Many of the people of Avoca and the surrounding community were attending the Otoc county fair which was being held at Syracuse on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Carl Zeiser sold last week a new Case corn harvester to Frank Hunt which he is using for the harvesting of his corn crop and will also use it for the harvesting of his neighbors corn as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grasch of Farnham where they make their home and engage in farming were visiting for a few days with Mrs. Florence Durham, all enjoying the very pleasant visit.

Marius Nielson who resides just outside of town, recently dug himself a trench silo which he filled with corn silage which he will use for the feeding of his dairy cows next winter. Mr. Nielson is the dairyman of Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fannestak and their son of Omaha were here for the evening last Monday and while here they visited with a large number of their friends in Avoca and vicinity, returning to their home in Omaha later in the evening.

George Sudeman was assisting Paul Ottens place a new shingle roof on the home of Mr. Ottens in Avoca which is adding much to the betterment of the home and also is an insurance against fire and leakage when the storms come.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Thomas of Shenandoah were spending last Sunday in Avoca and wear guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Thomas, Postmaster and Mrs. W. H. Bogard, where all enjoyed a very pleasant day and a fine dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson and their son, Sam of Sumner, were visiting with friends and relatives in Avoca for the week end, meeting many of the friends whom they had known when they resided here. They returned home Monday.

Wm. Hollenberger, the genial merchant who always has a smile for everyone and at all times wrinkles his face, now sometimes when the twinges of the rheumatism comes surriving along and while he is not looking for them and they drive away the smiles for a while. We are hoping he will be better soon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Welabaum and two daughters, Dora and Nora of Adams were visiting in Avoca on last Sunday, being guests of Mr. Louis Carsten. They visited for the day at the Clyde Johnson home where Mr. Louis Carsten and Fred Carsten and family also came, thus all getting together and enjoying a very pleasant time.

T. M. Patterson of Plattsmouth and general agent for the Bankers Life insurance company, was a visitor in Avoca last Tuesday and was looking after some business matters for the company. In speaking to the wrtler he was saying he had just returned from a visit with his son, Dwight Patterson who is located in Sioux Falls, South Dakota and that he found there had been much more grain there than here and that everything was looking greener and the people there were greatly encouraged.

Had a Problem Sure.

A lad visiting one of the residents of Avoca from Omaha, where people are wise, while playing about the town ran across an ear of corn near the elevator and as he found it, it was of course his. He took it to the place where he was visiting and telling his host, he had found something which he was sure would make good feed for the chickens if the bits on the outside (the grains) could

Making Improvements.
A crew of workmen were busy with spade, pick and wheelbarrow, making an excavation under the bank building to obtain more room and when completed will make some changes in the heating plant, which will add much to the effectiveness of the heating of the building.

Visited at Beaver Crossing.
A merry party of the folks of Avoca on last Sunday went over to Beaver Crossing where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hille, the latter being daughter of Mrs. L. J. Marquardt. Those in the party were Mrs. L. J. Marquardt, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel, Fred Marquardt and wife, Harry Marquardt and wife of Avoca and when they arrived there they found Albert Coekel and family were there also. This made a merry crowd and all enjoyed a good time.

Will Have Better Lights.
The crew of workers for the Nebraska Power company who have been making changes in the wiring for the lights of Avoca have been getting the lines in good condition and will soon have the entire change made and the entire lighting system in better shape. Some of the poles have become weakened on account of age and exposure to the weather and it was feared that there would be breakages should they be used for another winter with a probability of sleet forming on the lines. Also in the near future it is expected that the line leading from Louisville to Avoca will have to be rebuilt.

Enjoyed Visit Here.
Mrs. Howard Capwell who is the president of the Cass County Bible School association and who makes her home near Elmwood, was a visitor in Avoca attending the session of the Bible schools of the Congregational church, and made a very fine address telling of the needs of the Bible school and how it worked in with the church in making a better society. The address was greeted with pleasure by the members of the school and also by the members of the church. Mrs. Capwell was the guest of Mrs. S. K. Harmon for dinner, they enjoying the visit very much.

Why Not Boy Scouts?
Avoca is abreast with many other places and ahead of some, and while other towns have Boy Scouts and Campfire Girls organizations, there are none in Avoca. Why does not some one who wants the friendship of the boys and interested in their welfare organize a troop of Boy Scouts. The boys will be glad to assist in the effecting of such an organization, for they will derive much benefit from it. Why not try it?

School in Operation.
With the same membership as prevailed last year the schools of Avoca opened on Monday of this week with all the instructors in their places and the scholars glad to be back at their studies after the summer vacation.

VISITS IN THE CITY

From Tuesday's Daily
C. E. Metzger, of Omaha, was in the city today to visit with friends and was accompanied by his son William. Mr. Metzger returned Monday evening from a trip of several months duration in Europe and which took him through France, Austria, Germany and Switzerland. Mr. Metzger visited the greater part of the time at Ulm, Germany, where his sister, Mrs. Amelia Meyers resides. He reports the conditions on the continent far from good in an economic way. The German people have a great confidence in Chancellor Hitler, whose foreign policy has caused a great deal of apprehension from the other nations.

Well Known Ashland Lady Dies at Omaha

Miss Dora Wigggenhorn, Niece of F. G. Fricke of This City, Died Sunday at Omaha.

The death of Miss Dora Wigggenhorn, 60, of Ashland, occurred Sunday at an Omaha hospital where she had been for some time taking treatment. The deceased lady was a member of one of the old and prominent families of Ashland and was well known in this city, where she had often visited at the home of her uncle, F. G. Fricke and family.

Miss Wigggenhorn spent the greater part of her lifetime at Ashland and was a graduate of the University of Nebraska.

There is surviving two brothers, E. A. Wigggenhorn and Ernest Wigggenhorn, both of Ashland, three sisters, Miss Eugenie, of Ashland, Mrs. Ida Meyer of Watertown, Wisconsin and Mrs. A. C. Pancoast of Omaha. The body will be taken to the late home and funeral services held at the St. Stephen Episcopal church at Ashland, on Tuesday afternoon.

W. C. T. U. ELECTS OFFICERS

The W. C. T. U. met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred G. Morgan, a pleasing number of the members being in attendance at the meeting. The session was devoted to the business of the Union, the social features and program being given way to the important matters demanding the attention of the ladies.

The chief business of the afternoon was the election of officers, the following being named: President—Mrs. E. H. Westcott. Vice-President—Mrs. George B. Mann. Secretary—Mrs. V. T. Arn.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. R. B. Hayes. Treasurer—Miss Elizabeth Spangler.

The various heads of the different departments will be announced later by the newly elected president and will be published as soon as announcement is made.

At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Morgan served dainty and delicious refreshments to add to the pleasures of the occasion.

Type and Hours of Various King Korn Parades Set

Total of Nine Parades and Soap Box Derby Preceding and During Four Day Fall Festival.

"I Love a Parade" might have been the theme song that inspired this year's King Korn committee to outdo all previous efforts along this line. Then again, it may be that the committee was just recalling what proved to be the highlights of last year and the previous year's show, when people stood at the curb lines, twenty deep, extending back to store fronts, while the various parades were being pulled off, the line sometimes surging out into the street far enough to impede progress of the parades.

Be that as it may, there is one thing certain, and that is the 1934 King Korn Carnival may be a little short of corn (new crop), but will more than make up for that with a series of bigger and better parades than ever before.

The two weeks preceding opening of the festival will witness four theme parades, each one sponsored by a separate organization and all trying to outdo the others when it comes to "putting it over."

The first of these theme parades is to be a Colonial and Indian parade on Wednesday night, September 5, with Mynard and community in charge.

On Saturday night, Sept. 8, comes the Pioneer and 49ers' parade, sponsored by BREX shop employees.

Wednesday night, Sept. 12 will witness the All Nations parade, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

The last of these four pre-carnival parades will take place on Saturday night, Sept. 15th, being a Stunt parade, sponsored by the Woman's club, who, it will be recalled did themselves proud last year in putting over a parade that made everyone sit up and take notice.

All of the above four pre-carnival parades are scheduled to start at 8:15 sharp.

Two Parades Opening Day

On the opening day of the festival, there will be two parades, the children's parade at 4 p. m., under auspices of the Woman's club, and a monster parade in the evening, incorporating all the features of the four pre-carnival parades outlined above. This parade will start at 7:30 in order to allow time afterwards for the opening night band concert and regular gift night ceremonies.

The afternoon parades are scheduled to start at the following hours: Wednesday 4:00 p. m. Thursday 1:30 p. m. Friday 3:00 p. m. Saturday 2:00 p. m.

Thursday, Sept. 20 will bring another one of those big farm parades. Last year the farmers demonstrated that they can really put on a parade by coming through with the "hit" parade of the entire festival, and they expect to outdo their former efforts, according to Charley Barnard, who has the arrangements for that parade in hand again this year.

Friday will be Merchants' parade, with a goodly list of floats promised. All Plattsmouth business houses will be urged to enter this parade.

Following the Merchants' parade, comes the famous Soap Box Derby, patterned after the national derby that took place in Dayton, Ohio, a fortnight ago. The elimination heats will be started at 4:30 and the finals run at about 5 o'clock.

Saturday afternoon comes the big Rural School parade, with a fine array of prizes for the winners and school ground athletic equipment for all entrants.
