Well Known M. E. Pastor to Go to Southland

Rev. R. D. Murphree, Former Pastor at Louisville, Giving Up Regular Ministry to Farm.

With the conclusion of his year's pastorate at Valley last Sunday, Rev. R. D. Murphree, former Methodist minister at Louisville, is retiring from Nebraska Methodist conference circles and removing to Norfolk, Arkansas, near where he concluded negotiations early in July for an acreage tract of land, and will engage in poultry raising and truck farming. The Murphree family made a trip down there just after the Epworth League institute at Columbus, of which he had charge, and concluded to move there to reside at the end of his year's pastorate at Valley.

It is Rev. Murphree's plan to continue active in church work and he will preach part time in a community church there as well as take renewed interest in boys' work—a field of endeavor in which he was particularly active during the four years he was located at Louisville.

The Murphrees came to Nebraska from Alabama five years ago, and their new home will be in much closer proximity to that of both their parents and relatives than it was during their residence in the north.

They were tendered a large farewell party by the congregation at Valley last Sunday, all of whom regret to see them leave there, as do the other friends at Louisville and elsewhere in this section of the country.

Norfolk is a small town, but is located within a few hours drive of Ft. Smith, second largest city in the state, where Rev. Murphree expects to find a ready market for the product of his truck garden. He has been engaged in chicken raising as a profitable adjunct to his ministerial duties during the last few years, when church budgets have been hard to raise and salaries curtailed.

OTOES HAVE HOPES

Followers of Nebraska City High school football teams are smacking their lips in anticipation of feasting at the expense of Plattsmouth High school this fall and subsequent breaking up of a long standing jinx held by the Cass county school over the Purple.

Fourteen lettermen, including the flashy Ronne, Rhoades and "Tazani" Armstrong are lost to Coach Fred Rothert this year. Co-Captains Bill Crouch and Howard Hirz are the only lettermen reporting in a squad of 35 candidates this season.

The purples haven't won a game from the Platters in ages. It was only last season when Charley Place's basketballers knocked their schedule with a victory over the Cass representatives that Plattsmouth's complete domination of Nebraska City athletics was destroyed. —Nebraska City News-Press.

Mrs. William Puls Honored on Her Birthday

Event Observed at Murray When Her Descendants Gather to Spend the Day.

The eighty-fifth birthday anniversary of Mrs. William Puls, affectionately known throughout the community as "Grandma" Puls, was observed on Sunday at Murray where Mrs. Puls makes her home.

The occasion brought all of the children home with the exception of two, Louis H., of Colorado and Laura, of Minneapolis.

The members of the party came with well filled baskets and which provided the means of a fine picnic dinner served in cafeteria style on the large tables spread on the lawn of the Hild home.

Later in the afternoon ice cream and cake was served that added to the pleasures of the member of the party. One of the features of the birthday was the large cake prepared by Mrs. P. A. Hild and which was the object of much admiration with its eighty-five glowing candles.

The children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren joined in their well wishes to Grandma Puls for many more such pleasant anniversaries.

Those present to help celebrate this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Puls, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Gansemer, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hild, Raymond Jr., and Marvin, Mr. and Mrs. John Hild, Ralph, Delores and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hild, LeRoy, Herbert and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Verner Hild and Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gansemer, Barbara, Lavon and Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. Clell Gansemer and Jo Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lutz and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Socher, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Friedrich, Rev. and Mrs. A. Lentz, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Puls, Glen Puls and lady friend, Leon Gansemer and his lady friend, Marie Lutz, Marie Lentz, Harold, Gerald, Joe, Louis, Helen and Ralph Puls, Bobby Puls and Marlen Hennings, and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hild who are living with Grandma Puls.

TWINS TO SHINE

The twins that reside in Cass county will have an opportunity of being given recognition on next Saturday evening in the "Stunt Parade," a feature preliminary to the fall festival.

The committee in charge have arranged a section of the parade that will include the twins that report to those in charge, Mrs. Robert Reed or Mrs. James G. Mauzy.

There are many twins over the county and they are urged to let the committee know of their intention to attend and are asked to take part in making this feature of the parade a great success.

Whether the twins are of mature age or those of more tender years, they are all urged to get in the spirit of the occasion and take part in the parade.

This will be an annual feature and one that the public will fully appreciate and should be a crowning feature of the pre-festival attractions.

GRAND ISLAND GIRL FOUND

Chicago.—Two young girls, one a visitor from Nebraska, who disappeared Friday, returned to their parents Sunday with a story of wandering thru the city for two days. They are Mary Evelyn Williams, 16, of Grand Island, Neb., and Norma Walker, 13, of Chicago. Friday at 9 p. m. they started across the hall of an apartment building where Mary was staying with her parents. They never arrived at the apartment across the hall, it was later learned.

Because neither wore a hat or coat, their parents believed they might have been kidnapped or lured away. Sunday morning Williams received a telephone call from his daughter. Later Norma telephoned her father, Hughes Walker.
