Plattsmouth Camp North of City Finished

Thursday Evening Will Mark Reception and Entertainment by Members of Camp.

Thursday evening Plattsmouth camp of the FERA will tender a formal reception to the residents of the community on the occasion of the completion of the permanent buildings of the camp that will house the eighty to ninety boys and young men that comprise the camp membership. This camp has grown into one of the large enterprises of the government in this section of the state and during the time that it has been in operation has cared for a large number of the boys.

The camp is located on a farm of 150 acres that is devoted to farming and dairying, there being twenty-five head of cattle, all of the work being done by the boys themselves. The cows in the herd at the camp are milked twice a day and serves to supply the camp with milk. The new mess hall, with the kitchen in connection will seat 125 persons at one time and will be one of the big improvements in the camp facilities for the winter.

In the preparation of the meals the menus are supervised by the regular chef of the camp and who is assisted in the work by the boys from the camp personnel. The offices of the camp as well as the canteen that is maintained at the camp are under the direction of the chief clerk.

It is planned with the new mess hall that various entertainment features will be given by the boys themselves or visiting entertainers and will aid in making the winter season at the camp a great deal more pleasant.

The new barracks will provide fine comfortable quarters for the boys during the winter season and in connection there will be maintained bath houses which will be operated by the members of the camp.

WOMAN HANGED IN A CELL

Gotha, Germany.—Frau Worch, wife of the former mayor of Tangewiesen, was found hanged in a cell at Graefentonna, where she had been imprisoned after eighteen months in a concentration camp. Frau Worch and her daughter were held as hostages after Mayor Worch fled from Germany because of Nazi enmity. The mayor, in early days of nazism, ordered police to take action against the new movement.

GERMAN CELEBRATION

Deshler, Neb.—The German society of this place will hold a celebration Sunday, Oct. 14. There will be a musical program in the afternoon and addresses will be made by Dr. W. H. Werkmeister of the University of Nebraska, and C. H. Binderup of Minden, democratic candidate for congress. A German play will be given in the evening.

GUNMEN GET DIAMONDS

St. Louis.—Joseph Goldmuntz, New York jeweler, was robbed of a traveling bag which he said contained between $50,000 and $60,000 worth of uncut diamonds when two men held him up in a taxicab near union station.
