

Death of Old Time Resident of Community

Mrs. G. O. Schwenneker Passed Away Saturday Evening After Illness of Some Duration.

After an illness that has covered the past several months, Mrs. G. O. Schwenneker, 68, one of the long time residents of Plattsburgh, was called to the final rest at the family home in this city, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Schwenneker had been at an Omaha hospital for treatment but later was sent home to this city and since that time had gradually been falling until the end came to her suffering.

The deceased was born at Sarahville, Ohio, spending her girlhood there and at the age of sixteen years was united with the Methodist church in which she had been a loyal and faithful worker until her ill health compelled her to abandon many of her duties in the church.

On November 4, 1884, she was married in Illinois to G. O. Schwenneker and the family came to Plattsburgh forty-seven years ago and have since made their home in this community. In this city the family has been reared to manhood and womanhood and where the deceased lady has made a large circle of friends by her fine character and Christian life.

There is surviving the passing of this highly esteemed lady the husband and five children, Albert, Roy, Mrs. W. F. Evers and Mrs. Chester Weishner of this city and Earl of Kansas City, Missouri.

The funeral services were held this afternoon at 2:30 at the First Methodist church where for many years she has been a loyal and devoted worker. Rev. C. O. Troy, pastor of the church, had charge of the services and paid a tribute to the life of the departed lady in the community and in the activities of the church.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery west of the city.

Weeping Water

In a football game played between Weeping Water here and a team from Humboldt, Weeping Water won by a score of 25 to 7.

Bernard G. Wurl of Plattsburgh, democratic candidate for the position of county clerk, was a visitor in Weeping Water on last Monday.

Miss Clara Johnson has been visiting at Kearney for the past week where she has been the guest of her friend, Mrs. Porter Flake, wife of the sheriff of Buffalo county.

H. K. Frantz with a party of friends from Lincoln, was out in the western portion of the state over the week end and the first two days of this week where they were hunting pheasants.

Bill Johnson and brother, Art, were over to Lincoln on last Saturday where they were enjoying the football game between Nebraska and Iowa, which was won 14 to 13 by the Cornhuskers.

A. H. Kahn and wife, the bakers of Weeping Water, were over to Avoca on last Sunday afternoon where they were visiting at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Findley, the merchant of that place.

Lawrence Askew, the shoemaker, was visiting over near Murray at the home of Luther Wamack for the day on last Sunday, getting a taste of the country when it is raining. However they all enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Mrs. Sterling Amick was visiting for the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Engelkemier of Plattsburgh where she was enjoying a very pleasant visit and also was guest for a short time at the home of her parents as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields, the cleaners, were over to Omaha on last Sunday and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Reese of Louisville and the grandchildren, where they were visiting with friends for the day. They were as well trying out their new Chevrolet which they had just purchased.

Joe and John Bender were out on last Sunday exercising their bicycles and as the day was fine and the way was fair they had a very nice time. They are kept in the store for the day time during the week and take advantage of the bright sunshine and nice weather on Sunday to get out and see the country.

Ralph Binger was looking after some business matters in Lincoln last week for a short time and on his return was accompanied by his sister Mrs. Merlin Fernbaugh and their babe who visited here for the remainder of the week and over the week end. They were taken home last Monday by C. R. Binger and wife in their car.

Jack Philpot and wife were enjoying a four day visit with relatives and friends in the west, visiting in Colorado and Wyoming driving in their car and stopping at the home of their daughter and husband, Albert Snell and wife at Rosedale, where they also enjoyed a visit. They arrived home on last Sunday evening, well pleased with their trip.

Very Pretty Home Wedding.

The title of this article says "Home Wedding" and that is just it, for the contracting parties were married where they are to reside, on the Eugene Colbert farm west of Weeping Water. This is the farm where Eugene Colbert had been living and where he moved from on last month that his son, Howard E. Colbert might farm. The contracting parties were Miss Ruth Nye Crozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crozier, and Howard Eugene Colbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Colbert. The wedding was on last Saturday afternoon at four at the home which they had prepared. The Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union, performed the ceremony. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served to the newly wedded couple, and they departed via their auto for Lincoln and other points where they enjoyed a honeymoon until Tuesday of this week, returning to settle down on the farm at housekeeping.

Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crozier and Archie Crozier, Eugene Colbert and wife and daughter, Agatha and Lloyd Colbert, Leonard Doty and wife and Lawrence Colbert and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keckler, the latter couple standing up with the bridal party at the wedding.

nois and was united in marriage to Henry McNett May 1st, 1870, they coming to Nebraska and to Weeping Water to reside in 1900, where they resided until the death of Mr. McNett, March 3, 1927.

Mr. McNett was a soldier in the Union army during the Civil war and following his death Mrs. McNett continued to reside in Weeping Water until September 4, this year, when she was taken to the Soldiers' Home at Milford and where she passed away last Monday morning. The remains were brought to Weeping Water by the Hobson funeral home.

There were five children born to this couple three of whom preceded the mother in death, the others being Mrs. Nettie Wade of Weeping Water and Dixie McNett of the western part of the state.

The funeral occurred Wednesday from the funeral home, conducted by Rev. E. S. Pangborn, pastor of the Methodist church of which the deceased was a life long member. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

To Organize Brotherhood.

The Rev. E. S. Pangborn, pastor of the Methodist church of Weeping Water and as well that of Nehawka, was over to Nehawka on Tuesday evening at a meeting for the men of the Methodist church where they were discussing the organization of a Brotherhood of the men of the Methodist church of that place, like the one which is in Weeping Water. A further report of the organization will occur at a later date.
