

Pioneer Resident Observes Anniversary

Mrs. Mary E. Cox Celebrates Her Eightieth Anniversary at Home in Custer County.

The 80th birthday of Mrs. Mary E. (Gilmore) Cox, a pioneer of Cass county, was celebrated on Redfarm Table in the southern part of Custer county, October 25th, and this anniversary combined with a Gilmore family reunion brought together 112 friends and relatives from many parts of this state and Kansas.

Mary Ellen Gilmore was born in Highland county, Ohio, Oct. 25, 1854, and came with her family to Nebraska in January, 1869. The family on this journey left the train at Bartlett, Iowa, then the end of the railroad, and with freight wagons the family and household goods were transported across the ice at Rock Bluffs. From here they followed a winding trail across an open prairie country past log houses and dugouts of the early settlers to the home of her uncle, John Gilmore, in Mt. Pleasant precinct who owned and operated a cattle ranch in this part of Cass county.

Judge James R. Gilmore, her father, who established a home a short distance down stream from the town of Weeping Water was well known throughout Cass county. Mrs. Cox remained with her uncle, John Gilmore, grew to womanhood, taught school and was united in marriage with Aaron P. Cox, January 13, 1877, by Judge A. N. Sullivan who then lived in Mt. Pleasant precinct.

In 1893 she, her husband and son, Walter, moved to Custer county where they took up a homestead. Her husband died many years ago and she lives on the homestead with her son, Walter.

The relatives from out of Custer county were Mrs. Ida M. Whitmore, two daughters, Mrs. Mary Cockayne, Mrs. Helen Jones, with three grandchildren from Wichita, Kansas; John E. Gilmore, attorney, wife and daughter, Helen, Hay Springs, Nebraska; Mrs. Albert Shellhorn, P. E. Tritsch and wife of Louisville; Lewis Hollenbeck, wife and daughter of Elmwood; Dr. G. H. Gilmore and wife of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Massie and Wilson Gilmore of Mt. Pleasant precinct.

NOVEMBER FOOTBALL

With November just ahead, the Plattsouth football team is beginning to prepare for the games which mark the closing of the 1934 schedule. Next on the list is the final home game with Tecumseh here on November 9th. Tecumseh has one of the best teams in the southeast, having lost but one game to the strong Falls City eleven. This will be a severe test for the light and inexperienced squad which Coach Rothert has this fall. The closing games on the Platter schedule will be away from home. On November 16th the Blue and White will travel to Rock Port, Missouri. Football relations on a two year basis have been begun with this Missouri school in the corner of the Show-Me state just sixty miles south. The curtain will ring down on the season at Nebraska City on Friday, November 23rd, and the Platters will hang up the mole-skins and get ready for basketball. If the weather permits, the Nebraska City game will be played under lights.
