

Suggestions to Boys and Girls on Their Cares

Walter E. Pitkin in The Rotarian Gives Review of the Various Professions of Youth.

Walter E. Pitkin, friendly counselor of youth and author of "Life Begins at Forty," gives some practical suggestions for boys and girls in search of careers in the current Rotarian Magazine. Following intensive study and research, he recommends the following supposedly over-crowded fields as worthy of investigation:

"THE LAW. Many experts believe that there are reasonably good opportunities for (a) general lawyers in county seats and small towns; (b) high-grade trial lawyers; (c) lawyers who understand and can interpret clients' rights and duties in connection with the new industrial-social order and the regulation of business and industry; and (d) patent lawyers. But no thorough survey of opportunities in the law has ever been made.

"ARCHITECTURE. Architects who are trained in both design and engineering will soon be wanted in several countries for mass housing. Already the federal housing project in the United States opens up opportunities for the design and building of low-cost homes. Home owners, especially in the more prosperous small communities, will soon seek the services of architects competent not only to design but to supervise construction and financing of new quarters.

"MEDICINE. There are probably many openings for general physicians in small towns and rural districts. Doctors are now wanted, for instance, in rural Maine, and in several small towns of Vermont, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. There will soon be fine opportunities for high-grade young doctors to establish group medical service all over the country. At first, such progressive young physicians will be strongly opposed by orthodox members of the profession. Nevertheless, low-cost medical care financed co-operatively has already made remarkable headway, notably in some parts of the middle west and in California.

"VETERINARIANS. This field is not over-crowded. There are fine opportunities for veterinarians who can not only work with livestock but also on public health problems. Young Americans should look for openings in regions most thickly populated with livestock, with the possible exception of eastern metropolitan regions—namely Long Island, New York, and New Jersey.

"DANGER ZONES. Young people considering any of the following careers should be warned to investigate them with more than ordinary care before reaching a decision. For reasons too varied and detailed to report here, they seem to offer little promise: landscape architecture, library work, dentistry (at least for the present), journalism, the ministry, the fine arts, professional music, commercial farming on fifty acres or less, aviation, radio, mining engineering, motion picture work."

TESTIFIERS VOTES BOUGHT

New Orleans—Robert Gommilion principal witness against four ward leaders of the Huey Long political organization charged with buying votes, testified in criminal district court that unregistered voters were herded out of the government transient bureau here at $1 a head to vote for the victorious Long candidates in the Sept. 11 congressional election.

Counsel for the four countered with the charge that Gommilion, registration clerk in the transient bureau, promoted a similar deal in the January mayoralty election in which the old regular machine in New Orleans swamped the Long slate of candidates. Gommilion testified that Heausler gave him $232 to hand out for votes at $1 apiece, and that he was promised a job at $250 a month with the state highway department.

HITS FEDERAL COMPETITION

New York—Governor Talmadge of Georgia said the government should get out of business in competition with private enterprise.

"We would all be better off if the government withdrew from business," he said. "They still should exercise those functions of government aid, such as river and harbor control, but they should not compete with those people trying to make a living. That goes for the Tennessee valley authority, too. The government can't be doing much for the people by being in business."

Democrats Visit Alvo

The democratic candidates for office at tomorrow's election, accompanied by others of that political faith, made a tour of the county on last Tuesday, that brought them to Alvo for a brief stop. W. B. Banning, the spokesman for the group, introduced the various candidates, who were heard in brief remarks. With music to enliven the occasion, there was a goodly crowd out by time for the speaking part of the program. Upon leaving here, they were accompanied by a number of enthusiastic local democrats, who joined the throng at Weeping Water in the evening for a banquet and rally, at which they were addressed by Roy Cochran, candidate for governor.

Cass county is one of the finest agricultural centers in the state. Improved farming conditions and better prices for farm products will react to the advantage of every town in this territory.

Interest Rate is Fixed on Housing Projects

President Says That It Should Be Five Percent for the Entire Country.

Washington.—President Roosevelt directed the federal housing administration to fix the interest rate on mortgage loans for building new homes at 5 percent for the entire country. This was disclosed by Housing Administrator Moffett when he issued the rules and regulations under which the administration will insure mortgages for new construction. He made public correspondence between himself and the president in which President Roosevelt overruled a proposal that the interest rate be varied between 5 and 6 percent in different parts of the country. The rate for refinancing of mortgages was fixed at 5 1/2 percent. "I am aware," said the president answering Moffett's letter, "that a uniform rate may in the beginning cause less response to your program on the part of lenders and investors in some sections of the country. Nevertheless, the national housing act should not foster the continuation of high interest rates on insured mortgages in any part of the country. We all know that even in those sections where first mortgage money has been available at reasonable costs, home ownership has had to struggle under the handicap of exorbitant second mortgage interest rates." Mr. Roosevelt wrote, "Almost anybody knows of practices far too widespread where lenders have demanded and received 8 percent, 10 percent and 12 percent on first mortgage and much higher rates on second mortgages. These methods and practices in the field of home financing have been the opposite of commendable."

Moffett had written the president that "because of the high interest rate existing in some areas, as well as the variation in rates between states, it was my intention to follow the common practice which for a long period of time has been and is now in force."

"Despite my repeated appeal and your assurance," said the telegram "bombing again occurred causing damages and injuring an innocent child asleep. This is seventh of similar violence occurring within past six weeks and as far as I know no suspect was apprehended."

NAVY IS SEEKING MORE MEN

Washington.—The navy hopes congress will authorize a substantial increase in enlisted personnel that will bring its fighting vessels to 85 percent of capacity manpower. Secretary Swanson said there was no question but that the navy needed more men.

"We believe we should have 85 percent of complement in order to operate ships efficiently," he asserted. "That would be an average of about 88,000 enlisted men for a year, and it would mean a peak of 93,000 by the end of the next fiscal year. The strength now is 82,500."

JAPANESE CONSUL PROTESTS

Los Angeles.—A protest against violence in the alien land disputes in Arizona, was made in a telegram from T. Hori, Japanese consul here, to Gov. Meoer of Arizona. The protest followed the bombing Monday night of irrigation ditches on farms operated by Japanese in the Salt River valley.

Chicago.—A sweeping true bill charging conspiracy to commit violence was reported voted by the Cook county grand jury naming twenty-nine men reputedly involved in the long bus strike here. # Why Children Need a Liquid Laxative

The temporary relief children get from unwise dosing with harsh cathartics may cause bowel strain, and even set-up irritation in the kidneys. A properly prepared liquid laxative brings a more natural movement. There is no discomfort at the time and no weakness after. You don't have to give the child "a double dose" a day or two later.

Can constipation be safely relieved in children? "Yes!" say medical men. "Yes!" say many mothers who have followed this sensible medical advice: 1. Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Give the dose you find suited to the system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose, if repeated, until the bowels are moving naturally without aid.

An approved liquid laxative (one that is widely used for children) is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The mild laxative action of this excellent preparation is the best form of help for children—and grown-ups, too. The dose can be regulated for any age or need.

Your druggist sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

GRAIN ELEVATORS PROTEST

Washington.—Representatives of 12,000 country grain elevator operators protested to the NRA against the assessment of 5 cents a ton on coal retailed by them under the retail fuel code.

The representatives, headed by A. F. Nelson of Minneapolis, representing the National Federation of Country Grain Elevators, the country grain elevator code authority and state associations of Minnesota and Illinois, branded the assessments as "only nuisance taxes."

Frank Rutherford, Omaha, said coal sales represented only 4.6 percent of the total business of 114 Nebraska elevators reporting and that 90 percent of the elevators were located in towns too small to support an exclusive coal dealer.

MANCHOUKUO OIL MONOPOLY

Tokyo.—Heedless of protests from foreign interests, Manchoukuo is going right ahead with preparations to put into effect its proposed oil monopoly. The Hsinching government already has taken steps to eliminate the Standard Oil company of New York and the British Asiatic Petroleum company from distributing and retailing operations in Manchoukuo, it was reliably learned here. This is being done despite representations from the United States, Great Britain and the Netherlands.

CANDIDATES PAY VISIT HERE

From Saturday's Daily
The Plattsmouth residents had the two candidates for state representative here today to look after some business and incidentally to do a little campaigning. Troy L. Davis of Weeping Water, republican, and George E. Nickles, Murray, democrat, were meeting their friends in the last swing that they will have in the campaign now fast drawing to its close. With two such high class men Cass county can be assured of having a capable representative at Lincoln in the coming session of the legislature.

DOCTORS TO WAGE BATTLE

Washington.—Appointment of a national committee of physicians to work for repeal of laws prohibiting doctors from prescribing contraceptives when "professional judgment" so dictates was announced by Dr. Prentiss Wilson. Dr. Wilson is former president of the District of Columbia medical society.

The announcement made clear "the committee takes no position on the ethical or social aspects of the question, and its organization is by no means to be understood as a movement in favor of birth control."

"It seeks," the statement added "to free the medical profession from what it considers to be unjust and frequently paradoxical restrictions—leaving to the professional judgment and individual conscience of the physician himself the course to be followed in any particular case."

Divide Relief Funds Among the Various Counties

Those in Charge of FERA Work in the State Intimate Food Buying Plan May Change.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 2.—Nebraska's state relief committee today allotted $691,421 to counties for November care of the needy, to supplement an estimated $314,998 available from unexpended October allotments of available local funds.

Possibility that the policy of permitting individual purchases of groceries with relief funds will be discontinued was indicated when W. H. Smith, state relief chairman, announced Rowland Haynes, federal relief administrator for Nebraska, is conducting a survey on the feasibility of wholesale grocery purchases for relief needs. Smith said if this were done, grocery commissaries probably would be established, such as several counties operated when they handled the relief load prior to federal assistance.

Douglas county was allotted $236,432 for November, bringing the total allotments there to $2,450,277 almost half of the state's total. Lancaster county was given $92,685, bring the total assigned it since distribution of federal funds began in Nebraska, to $833,923.

CHICAGO FAIR CONCLUDED

Chicago.—A Century of Progress one of the greatest shows on earth, closed in a swift whirl of Halloween gayety and a deafening burst of fireworks.

So great was the crowd which stormed the gates during the last night of Chicago's front yard playground that two entrances were normally swung open to admit the late comers free. Army and marine reserve units were called out to marshal the throngs and preserve order. The men who founded and conducted the big show gathered before a large audience for the final ceremonies. Gov. Horner, Mayor Kelly of Chicago and Rufus Dawes delivered eulogies of an exhibition which in two years attracted nearly 39,000,000 persons in 1933 and 1934.

STOLE WHOLE HOUSE

Kansas City, Mo.—Mrs. Dora Reese discovered that the two-story house that formerly stood upon her lot was missing, when she drove in from Rich Hill with a prospective buyer. ## FRENCH PARTING WITH GOLD

Paris.—A trickle of gold from the vaults of the Bank of France to the United States started as the dollar rose to 16.1825 francs (6.586c to the franc), above the gold point. Bankers here have forecast the dollar's rise for the past week. Withdrawals of gold caused the Bank of France to report loss in its holdings for the first time since the January and February riots caused lack of confidence in the stability of the franc.

For thirty-three straight weeks the bank had reported gains in its reserves. The past week's losses, 7,250,000 francs, reduced its vault hoard to $2,475,000,000 francs (about $5,443,350,000), nearly 104 percent of coverage for all the nation's currency. The bank of France actually has been embarrassed by its huge holdings because, officials say, much of it came from speculators or capitalists and hence is certain to be taken away some day. Heavy losses of gold during troubled times, they say, might weaken public confidence.

CLAIMS 10,000 IN 'EXILE'

Helsingfors, Finland.—A Finnish workman has returned to Helsingfors to tell the weird story of 12,000 Finns he says were evicted to South Siberia because they tried to flee from Russia to their own country. The workman, named Valkana and about 40 years old, graphically described suffering and privation he asserted he and his fellow exiles underwent in the "land of perpetual fog."

He declared the victims were Finns who ventured across the border into neighboring Russian provinces out of curiosity, only to be seized when they tried to return to Finland. With their families they were sent to Siberia to serve "exile sentences" of from two to three years, he said.

CHICAGO OFFICERS PRAISED

Chicago.—Detectives John Lamb and William Newton, who shot and killed Maurice Stell, 16 years old, of Omaha, and Joseph Michuda, 25 years old, when they attempted to rob a tavern early last Monday, were praised by a coroner's jury Wednesday in returning a verdict of justifiable homicide.

The two young bandits were slain in a sharp gun battle with the detectives, who were in the tavern when they entered. Lamb, wounded in the groin, is recovering in the county hospital.

LYNCHING INQUIRY

Tallahassee, Fla.—A grand jury investigation of the lynching of Claude Neal, Negro, near Marianna last week was ordered by Governor Sholtz. He said "some of the ring-leaders of the mob are supposed to be known. The grand jury will meet Monday."
