George A. Stites was called to Plattsmouth last Friday, where he had some business matters to look after.

Mrs. Truch, of Nebraska City, was visiting in Union last Thursday, having some business matters to look after here.

Miles M. Allen, of Plattsmouth, was calling on friends in Union last Monday, and was looking after some business matters here.

Miss Harriett Leach, who is attending the state normal school at Peru, visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach, over the week end.

657,154 transcriptions of braille for the blind were made by hand and duplicating process by Red Cross volunteers. Certainly a wonderful service on behalf of the blind. Join the Red Cross and assist in this great work.

Rue H. Frans and family, of Syracuse, were visiting in Union on last Sunday, being guests for the day of Mrs. Jennie Frans, Mrs. Rose Kendall, mother of Mrs. Frans, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Frans.

Life Saving—72,000 received free instruction last year. Cass county chapter gave instruction to 350 or more—23 passing the Junior Life Saving and eight the Senior Life Saving tests. Why not join—now—the American Red Cross?

Ralph Opp, Missouri Pacific agent, and his wife are spending a vacation in Texas, where they are enjoying themselves immensely. While they are away, business at the station is being looked after by C. H. Whitworth, who is a very efficient man for the position, having had much experience in this line of work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Stone, of Hastings, arrived in Union Monday for a visit at the home of Mrs. Stone's mother, Mrs. Mary B. Allison. Mrs. Allison has been in very poor health for some time and while she is better at this time, is still far from being in her accustomed good health. Her many friends are hoping she may continue to improve and soon be entirely well again.

103 disasters in 52 weeks—78 in the United States, in 163 counties. Fifteen in the Philippines, three in Puerto Rico and seven in foreign nations. 21 storms lashed the coast from Texas to Pennsylvania. Except for Red Cross promptness there would have been greater loss of life. The national Red Cross disaster expenditure last year totaled $1,862,390. You can aid this great work by your membership. Join the American Red Cross now.

Henry H. Becker has a contract for the delivery of some 21 cars of lumber to the river work east of town, the same being used in the weaving of mats for use in slowing up progress of the water and causing it to drop its silt, thus building up accretion land along the future main channel of the Big Muddy. Only a part of the lumber has been delivered so far, and a goodly force of men are engaged in the work of weaving the mats. The river program is an extensive one and requires a lot of material as well as manpower to complete.

Visiting with Folks Here
Mrs. Owen Ross, of Oak Park, Ill., which is a suburb of Chicago, arrived in Omaha Sunday and was met there and brought to Union in the afternoon for a visit at the home of her brother and sister, Frank and Anna Bauer. Mrs. Ross has been in delicate health for some time past and Anna Bauer was there for a month or more this fall caring for the sister, returning to her home here only about ten days ago. Mrs. Ross will remain here for some time, hoping that her health will improve and her strength return.

Had Good Farm Sale
C. W. Hoback, who has no farm for the coming year, was compelled to hold a sale as he had no place to keep his stock. He found a good market for the animals and other property, such as farm implements, etc. This was especially true in the disposal of the chickens, which Mrs. Hoback had raised with great care, securing one of the best strains of layers for her flock, and was able to realize 46 cents apiece for every one of them, which is a good price, but they were good chickens, so why not?
There was also a demand for the farm machinery at good prices and in all they were well pleased with the sale.

Attended Football Game
A number from Union went to Lincoln last Saturday to attend the football game between the University of Nebraska and the Pittsburgh Panthers, which was won by the latter. A packed stadium greeted the Cornhuskers in this crucial test of strength and there were plenty of loyal Nebraskans present to cheer the boys on to victory, but of no avail. Among the Unionites present were Eugene Roddy and his father, John B. Roddy, Earl Hathaway and James Fitzpatrick. They all enjoyed a very fine time and a good game, although Nebraska was the loser.

New Physician in Union
Dr. R. R. Anderson, who was in charge of the practice of Dr. R. P. Westover, at Plattsmouth, for several weeks in the early fall while the Westover family took a vacation trip through the west, has located here and is ready for any and all business which may come his way. He is a capable physician and comes highly recommended. Union has need of a good doctor and welcomes Dr. Anderson to our midst.

Basketball Game Last Week
The basketball game which was played between a team from Union high school and a picked team of town lads, some of whom played on former high school teams, last Thursday, resulted in a victory for the high school boys over the town team by a score of 35 to 33. Another game was arranged for Wednesday of this week, and we will give you the results of this latter game next Thursday.

A Joyous Occasion
On last Wednesday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor, at seven o'clock, was celebrated the marriage of Miss Beulah Niday, daughter of Mrs. May Niday and of the late John L. Niday, and John M. Kimm, both of near Union. Edgar Pike and Miss Ruth Warden accompanied them as witnesses, Mrs. Taylor also being a witness to this very pleasant event.

Following the wedding, the bridal party together with Mr. and Mrs. Taylor went to the home of Mrs. May Niday, mother of the bride, where an enjoyable wedding dinner was served and a reception held for the newlyweds.

The bride was born and reared in this vicinity and is a graduate of the Union high school and a devoted worker in the church and Bible school at the Baptist church, being a teacher of the primary class in the Bible school and an active member of the young peoples society.

Mr. Kimm, the groom, is a young man of high character and has been making his home near Union for a good number of years, being engaged in farming.
The young people left for Cedar county, Nebraska, where they both have friends and relatives and where they visited for a number of days, returning to their home near Union this week.

Congratulations and best wishes are in order.

Thankful for Supplies
Miss Augusta Robb, chairman of the Cass County Chapter, American Red Cross, has received a letter from William Beaumont General Hospital, at El Paso, Texas, expressing thanks for ten bedside bags which were made by volunteer Red Cross workers in Cass county and asking that she extend the appreciation of hospital authorities to each and every one taking part in their preparation.
One paragraph of the letter tells of the hospital, as follows: "In case your workers are not well acquainted with our hospital, we should like them to know that this is a general Army hospital located near the military post of Fort Bliss, down here on the border between Mexico and the U. S. A. The country round about El Paso is sandy desert with only greasewood, mesquite, Yucca and cacti growing on it, but the hospital area has been so well built up and landscaped that it is a veritable oasis in the desert. It is really a beautiful spot with many flowers and trees and even a large lily pond and with gold fish. The hospital plant has every possible facility for taking care of the patients fortunate enough to be entitled to hospitalization here. If any one of your group should ever come this way, please be sure to visit us."

Your membership in the American Red Cross helps the Cass County Chapter to bring this joy to our disabled veterans. These bags were made by Elmwood Red Cross members.
To insure continuation of the Red Cross service throughout the nation this coming year, you should join now. The annual roll call, which began on Armistice day, will continue until Thanksgiving day.

Episcopal Auxiliary Meets.
The home of Miss Augusta Robb was the mecca for quite a number of ladies on Friday of last week where they went in response to an invitation from the Auxiliary members entertaining that afternoon.

The meeting was one of special interest because of the presence of two guests from Plattsmouth, the Misses Mia and Barbara Gering, who had been invited to give a report of the Episcopal convention which met in Atlantic City, N. J. They were delegates from the Nebraska Diocese, Woman's Auxiliary.

Besides the members of the Auxiliary, friends from the other churches each member inviting guests, who might be interested in hearing report of the church's work. All expressed much pleasure in being included in the invitation for such an enjoyable event.

Miss Mia Gering, speaking first, told of the vast crowds attending the convention, there being about 35,000 at the first meeting. The laymen's offering presented at this meeting amounted to $274,000, a result of seven months work with Charles Taft of Cincinnati as chairman.

The second meeting an offering of nearly $8,000 was received. This seemed to us a vast sum but still not adequate for the church's need.

Miss Barbara in closing her report stressed the thought that seemed to be uppermost in the hearts and minds of those attending that great convention of clergy and laymen, "that greater consecration to Christian ideals and the upbuilding of Christian character was the supreme need of our present age."

At the close of the review other members of the Auxiliary assisted Miss Robb in dispensing refreshments of sandwiches, salad, cakes and coffee, while the guests spent the time in pleasurable conversation.

TAKE PART IN OBSERVANCE

The opening of the regular service of the Zephyr, Burlington crack train from Lincoln to Kansas City, was the occasion of an interesting ceremony at the Burlington station at Lincoln. Among those taking part were two former resident of this city, Mrs. John Fitzgerald and Mrs. Flora Waugh of Lincoln, who in 1870 had been passengers on the first Burlington train into that city from Plattsmouth.

ENTERTAINS FOR DINNER

Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hillard Grassman was the scene of a very enjoyable family dinner honoring Mrs. Belle Stoner, of Glenwood, mother of Mr. Grassman. The day was featured by the fine dinner arranged by Mrs. Grassman for the occasion and the remainder of the time spent in visiting. Those from out of the city to attend the event were Miss Laura Grassman and Joseph Manacek of Omaha.

College football players face a new danger. As for example, Abe Mikal of Louisiana State, whom Huey Long is going to launch as a politician. Somehow we'd about as soon see the boy turn pro and become a football tramp in the usual way.

Elmwood News

John E. Turner and family of Plattsmouth were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clements.

Alex Miller who has been very poorly for the past few weeks is at this time reported as being much improved and is able to be about again.
Last Friday the Weeping Water football squad played the Elmwood high school and as a result the Weeping Water team won by a score of 14 to 6.

Louis Bornemeier, the man who conducts the Farmers Co-Operative market in Elmwood, was called to Lincoln last Tuesday to look after some business matters.

While W. D. Skeen, the harness maker, is feeling very much improved he is not as yet able to be at the shop to do any work in his line. It is hoped he will soon be in his usual good health.

The Rev. Ernest Baker, pastor of the Christian church of Elmwood accompanied by the wife were over to Lincoln last Tuesday where they were attending a convention of the church for the day.

County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder was a visitor in Elmwood on last Tuesday and was looking after some business for the county. He was also consulting and visiting with Mr. Geo. W. Blessing of the Elmwood Leader-Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen D. Alvin, who operate the north produce and cream station, the weather being nice on last Sunday with their car, made a trip to Nebraska City and viewed the many pretty scenes in and about the city, and thoroughly enjoyed the day.

Harry Green, the traveling salesman, while out on his trip had the misfortune to get his car badly damaged in a wreck and lucky it was for him that he was not severely injured. He had to go to Illinois to effect a settlement with the people where he carried the insurance on his car.

Workers are engaged in putting of culverts on the O street road preparatory to the grading of the same in order that the paving may be done. With the work no farther along than at present it does not look like the workmen will be able to get at the paving this fall or winter.

Guy Clements was over to Lincoln last Tuesday afternoon where he went to attend the funeral of his friend, Carl Weil and with whom he had been thrown in contact and whom he loved and honored. Mr. Weil was a member of the state banking association and was loved and respected by a large number of people.

B. I. Clements was called to Murdock on last Sunday to take George L. Berger to the hospital at Omaha, but making all haste they could, the life ember in the body of this pioneer passed out and the body was brought to Elmwood where it remained in state and will until the coming Sunday when the funeral will be held at the Methodist church and conducted by the Rev. W. B. Bliss, pastor of the church. Interment will be in the beautiful Elmwood cemetery.

Had Enjoyable Time.
The membership of the American Legion gave a very pleasant evening on last Monday when they provided a dance and which was enjoyed by the boys and many who were not members.

Making Changes in Building.
Rolland Schlichtemeier who operates the north garage and who believes in having things so that the best results may be obtained from the work and at the same time comfort be maintained, has been removing the work shop from the north-west corner of the large storage room to the corner next to the office so that the heat which warms one room need not be wasted as he is having them open into each other. Rolland was busy on Tuesday of this week making the changes.

George L. Berger Is Dead.
Mr. George L. Berger, a unique character whose life had become entwined with the history of Cass county during the past sixty-five years and who had been visiting here for the past several months had decided to depart for Long Beach, California, on November 15th, where he expected to make his home for the winter. He has a home there, one at Elmwood and another at Murdock and one at Omaha. He went over to Murdock late last week where he was visiting with his half brother, A. J. Bauer, when he was taken suddenly ill, and it was determined to take him to the hospital for treatment and the ambulance of the Clement funeral home was called, but before the conveyance arrived at Murdock, he had passed on. The remains were brought to Elmwood where they were prepared for burial, and will lie in state here until the coming Sunday when the funeral will be held from the Methodist church of Elmwood and the interment made here. A full account of this great American will appear in the coming issue of the Journal.

Eastern Star Visit Friends.
The Order of Eastern Star of Elmwood were guests in a body at the meeting of the Order Eastern Star of Palmyra on Tuesday evening of this week. The order at Palmyra showed their guests a very good evening with their regular meeting and also with some special features. The visiting party from Elmwood were loud in their praise of the way in which the Palmyra sisters honored them.

Spending Vacation in South.
On Wednesday of this week Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hickman and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cobb departed for Hot Springs, Arkansas, where they are to enjoy some three weeks of a vacation, and will endeavor to enjoy the time with the beautiful scenery, the mild climate and with the warm baths. They should return invigorated and enjoy every minute while they are away.

MR. AND MRS. STIVERS HONORED AT PARTY

Miss Erma Stivers, assisted by Mrs. W. C. Stivers and Mrs. John Stivers, gave a surprise party on Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Stivers, Thursday evening, Nov. 8. There were some 40 guests present.
The evening was spent in games, cards and visiting.
The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tucker of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Terryberry and family and Bernice Kaffenberger, of Cedar Creek, Nebr.
At a late hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses consisting of sandwiches, pickles, fruit salad, cake and coffee.—Glenwood Opinion-Tribune.

CASS COUNTY STUDENTS

Two students from Cass county are among the 629 enrolled at Hastings College this year, and there are three graduates or former students of the college residing in the county, according to records of the registrar and the alumni secretary.
The students in college this year are Mildred Hartsook, special, from Greenwood; and Paul Iverson, senior from Plattsmouth.

The Hastings alumni living in the county are Paul Ambrose and Carl Schneider of Plattsmouth and G. M. Corum from Louisville.

CHARGED WITH INTOXICATION

Tuesday afternoon Fred Haffke, local truckman, was arrested by Sheriff Homer Sylvester near Sixth and Main streets, after his truck that he was driving had crashed over the curbing near the residence of William Baird. A charge of driving while intoxicated was filed this morning against Mr. Haffke and to which charge he entered a plea of not guilty. The preliminary hearing in the case was set for Saturday, November 24th.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Henry Starkjohn, who has for some time past been at Omaha undergoing treatment and recovering from an operation, has so far recovered that she was able to return to her home here. Mrs. Starkjohn is feeling much improved and it is hoped may be permanently restored to good health.
