STUDY CROWN POINT ESCAPE

Washington.—The justice department said it is studying a report of an investigation inaugurated to determine whether any federal statutes were violated in connection with the escape of John Dillinger from the Lake county jail at Crown Point, Ind., and the events that followed. The department said the inquiry was conducted by its own investigators and that the report has been received here, but that the contents will not be divulged until a thorough review has been completed.

The report is understood to deal not only with the escape of the notorious criminal, but with the alleged abduction recently by J. Edward Barace, deputy attorney general of Indiana, of eight "witnesses" to the affair. The "witnesses" were alleged to have been held in a Monticello hotel, and in one at Indianapolis.

SIAM KING PROLONGS STAY

Bangkok, Siam.—The ministry of the royal household is shipping two big automobiles from the royal garage to King Prajadhipok in London, it was revealed. This was generally believed to indicate the monarch proposes to prolong his stay abroad, with the probability of abandoning his decision to abdicate becoming more remote than ever.

BOARD PASSES RELIEF LEVY

New York.—After a personal plea from the floor by Mayor LaGuardia, the board of aldermen passed the $60,000,000 relief levy, including a 2 percent sales tax from which food is exempted. Despite the protests of business organizations, the levy seemed certain to pass the board of estimate after a public hearing Wednesday and become law.
