Alvo News

James Foreman was looking after some business matters in Elmwood on Tuesday of last week and was meeting with his many friends while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rosenow were guests for the day last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Miller, where they all enjoyed the day most pleasantly.

Notwithstanding the continual rain which was in evidence, the free moving picture and lunch which was put on by John B. Elliott, Jr., was well attended, there being 23 guests present.

The Ladies Aid society of the Alvo Methodist church held a food sale at the store of E. L. Nelson on Wednesday of last week, having on sale some very fine cats for the Thanksgiving day dinner Thursday.

Joseph Vickers, wife and children were enjoying a visit in Lincoln last Thursday, where they were guests for the day at the home of a niece of Mrs. Vickers, partaking of a fine Thanksgiving day dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Creamer and their daughter, Miss Mary, were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of Grandfather and Grandmother Jewell, where they enjoyed a fine visit as well as a fine dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boyles and C. D. Ganz and the family were in Lincoln on Thanksgiving day, where they were guests of Mrs. Clara Prouty, a sister of Mrs. Boyles, and enjoyed a very fine Thanksgiving dinner.

The turkey shoot, that included also geese, ducks and other fowl as well, which was held at the home of Carl Johnson and was sponsored by John B. Elliott, Jr., on Monday, was well attended and many were the lucky ones who were able to take home a turkey, goose or duck for their Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Braun, of South Bend, where Mr. Braun is operator for the Burlington, drove over to Alvo last Thursday and picking up Mrs. William Yeager, mother of Mrs. Braun, continued on to Lincoln, at which place they enjoyed a very fine Thanksgiving dinner with relatives. They returned home in the early afternoon in time for Mr. Braun to go to work at the usual hour of beginning his shift, 4 o'clock p. m.

Entertained His Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stuve, who recently moved to Alvo from Sterling, with Mr. Stuve accepting a position in the Farmers and Merchants bank at this place, entertained the parents of Mrs. Stuve, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Sandusky, of Auburn, and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Patz, friends, of Lincoln, at a big Thanksgiving day dinner.

All Home for the Day

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Elliott, Sr., had all the children home on Thanksgiving day and sure they all enjoyed the occasion very much and the dinner which mother prepared, for indeed there is no cook like mother, as we all know.

Alvo School Notes

The fifth and sixth grades worked out a "Pilgrim Project" just before Thanksgiving. Poems and pictures about the Pilgrims were mounted. Posters illustrating rules of "good health" have been made for Hygiene. They were done in black and gray.

Coach Corr started basketball practice some time ago and the team is making good progress. A total of seventeen have been going out for practice regularly and out of this number there is sufficient material to select good first and second teams, as well as substitute players for both. It is anticipated Alvo will be able to render a good account of herself on the basketball court this year.

The school recently subscribed for the following magazines: The Reader's Digest, Popular Mechanics, Nature Magazine, School Musician, Good Housekeeping, Wee Wisdom, Spy Glass and the News Week. The Board of Education allowed $10 for magazines and each teacher indicated a choice of magazines for his particular work.

GREENWOOD

Mrs. G. W. Lunceford went to Waverly Friday afternoon to attend the R. N. A. lodge meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mathis and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Conley.

Mrs. Robert Burks and Mrs. G. W. Lunceford were shopping in Lincoln Thursday afternoon of last week.

The Greenwood Woman's club will meet Wednesday afternoon of this week with Mrs. Warren Boucher at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lapham, of Waverly, visited his father, Frank Lapham and other relatives here on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Fulmer were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walling at their home in Fremont Tuesday evening at a moose dinner.

Frank Lapham has been feeling quite poorly of late and was for a time confined to his bed, but was slightly improved early last week.

Norman Peters was a visitor in Omaha on last Thursday, where he spent Thanksgiving day with friends and enjoyed a fine roast goose dinner.

Arthur Talcott left Monday for Ithaca to continue on his work after spending Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Talcott.

Thanksgiving day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt A. Landon included their son, Wayne and family and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jardine.

Rev. W. E. Goings, who has been quite sick at the home of his brother, Walter Goings, is reported some better and was brought home Saturday of last week.

Thanks are due Chris Kolb for the kindly manner in which he assisted the Journal man in getting his car out of a roadside ditch. It was surely appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bucknell of Elmwood and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Skinner of Alvo visited at the White and Bucknell home Thursday afternoon of last week.

Carl Foster and Clarence Hurlbut, of Omaha, were guests at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Lulu Hurlbut for Thanksgiving day, enjoying a fine Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Holt, of Hampton were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Holt, where they all enjoyed the day very much and a fine Thanksgiving dinner as well.

Mrs. Ella Marshall, of Ashland, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting her sister, Miss Cassie Coleman and also attended the Dorcas society supper and bazaar Saturday afternoon and evening.

Glen Peters and wife were in Omaha over Thanksgiving day, taking a vacation and incidentally celebrating the passing of their second wedding anniversary while visiting with relatives and friends in the metropolis.

The bazaar and supper held on last Saturday evening by the Dorcas society was well patronized. The ladies took in more than $50, besides some contributions that are yet to be handed in. The money will be used to help carry on the church work.

On last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Landon were out to the farm, where they visited for the day and had dinner at the home of their son, Wayne Landon and family, enjoying the fine repast that was served, which included a big fat goose and all the trimmings.

Workmen from Lincoln were here last Thursday placing a new plate glass in the Frederick building to replace the one which was broken out some time ago. As the owner carried plate glass insurance, the insurance company has borne the cost of the replacement.

Miss Margaret Moon, who is attending school at Omaha Technical high school, was a visitor in Greenwood and a guest at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Sandborn for Thanksgiving day and the rest of the week, returning to resume her studies Sunday evening.

Gentry Vant, who is operator for the Burlington at Hastings, desiring to come to Greenwood for a visit with his parents and other relatives and friends, asked Goodhart Vant, his brother, to come to Hastings and work in his place while he took a layoff. Accordingly, Mr. and Mrs. Gentry Vant and little son arrived here on Wednesday and were able to spend a very pleasant holiday.

Grading the Lots

The hole which was left when the building just east of Sophas Peterson's blacksmith shop burned, after remaining unfilled except for such trash and other refuse as was dumped therein, was being filled by farmers of the community who have secured government feed loans and were thus paying the amount of their loan with work. A number of teams were in town last Wednesday, filling the unsightly hole and making the town look a lot better as a result.

Entertained for Thanksgiving

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Matthews entertained at their home in Greenwood on Thanksgiving day, having as guests for the occasion Mrs. Belle Wilson, mother of Mrs. Matthews and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barclay and sure they all enjoyed a very fine time.

Attended Meeting in Lincoln

Messrs Norman Peters and E. L. McDonald, who are members of the committee of the Greenwood Co-Operative Credit association, were in Lincoln last week, where they were attending a convention of delegates and officers of the various Co-Operative associations engaged in like business over the state and where they heard some interesting addresses and discussions of questions confronting the Credit associations.

During the afternoon the matter of desired legislation for regulation of Credit associations was the principal topic of discussion.

A banquet was held in the evening, followed by an address by George Wilson of the Banking department and it was a late hour when the Greenwood visitors got home.

Still Very Poorly

Uncle John M. Mefford, who sustained a severe stroke some two or three weeks ago, still remains in a very serious condition and while everything possible is being done for his welfare, his recovery is doubtful. His many friends are hopeful that he may yet rally and be restored to health again.

Had Most Enjoyable Evening

The members of the Altar society of the Greenwood Catholic church enjoyed a pleasant evening at the empty building east of the R. E. Matthews garage and provided a good time for all who came to enjoy themselves. There were card games, followed by the serving of a delicious luncheon and later a sale of foodstuff, all of which netted a neat sum for carrying on the work of the church.

Receiving Clinical Check-Up

Art Anderson, who has been in poor health for some time, and has tried many remedies and physicians, left Saturday for Topeka, Kansas, where he is entering a hospital for a complete clinical check-up to ascertain if possible the nature of his ailment and the treatment best recommended to insure restoration of his health. All are hoping he may learn the underlying cause of his illness and be able to overcome it.

Held Election of Officers

Greenwood lodge I. O. O. F., at a recent meeting, elected officers for the ensuing year, those selected to fill the chairs being as follows: Merton Gray, Noble Grand; John S. Gribble, vice grand; George Bucknell, secretary and Harry Hughes, treasurer. The list of appointive officers will not be announced until the next meeting.

Greenwood has a very active I. O. O. F. lodge, several of the members of which have been honored with higher positions in the district and state organization.

Land Brings $75 an Acre

Eighty acres of land comprising the George Nichols estate, located east of Greenwood, was sold on Saturday of last week at the door of the post office in Greenwood. There was a good sized crowd present and the land was sold to Joe Freis at $75.00 per acre.

Prepared for Supper and Bazaar

The Dorcas society met Friday afternoon at the church with a good attendance. The time was spent in preparing the booths and getting ready for the bazaar and supper the next day. A delicious luncheon was served.

The meeting on Friday of this week will be a covered dish luncheon at the church. The election of officers will be held at this time. There will also be a Christmas program and an exchange of gifts.

Legion Auxiliary Meets

The American Legion Auxiliary was pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon, November 21, with Mrs. Roy Comstock and Mrs. H. R. McNurlin as hostesses at the McNurlin home. There was a goodly number of members present with several visitors. Mrs. Ethel Armstrong and Mrs. Mae Olson, district president, of Davey, were the out-of-town guests. Mrs. Olson told of her recent trip to Miami, Florida, where she attended the national convention.

A delicious lunch was served by

MAY PUBLISH OWN PAPER

Baton Rouge, La. — "Reveille" student unanswered at Louisiana State university and there were prospects students may publish and finance an independent newspaper to escape Senator Long's dictatorship over the University Press.

The editorial staff of the Reveille, seven students—had resigned rather than submit the columns of the paper to a faculty censorship invoked to prevent criticism of Long.

The senator himself failed to answer "Reveille." He was nowhere in the front ranks of the controversy raging among students of the school of journalism who demanded they be allowed freedom of speech and print or they would permanently desert the college publication.

Samuel A. Montague, president of the journalism students, and one of twenty-six suspended for protesting the "gas" on the paper, said he had been told by Dr. J. M. Smith, president of the university that he would have no objection if the students published an independent newspaper.

SCORE INDIANS SHOT DOWN

Mexico, D. F.—Twenty Indians in the village of Huixtla, Chiapas state, stood quietly in front of their church last Sunday and allowed themselves to be shot down by officials who sought to remove and burn images. Three men and a child were killed.

The story, as told in belated dispatches, said the villagers adopted the method of passive resistance when officials tried to enter the church. They surrounded the edifice, standing quietly and refusing to allow the men to go in. The latter finally opened fire with pistols, killing four and wounding sixteen. The officers were forced to abandon their mission.

Smart-side-out
Hosiery
REVERSED BY MUNSING
Wear

- 1 They're exquisite sheer chiffon—flawless, ringless—made with the dull, flat inside surface on the outside—because clever women have discovered that hose look best when worn inside out.
- 2 Extra-dull surface makes legs and ankles look more slender, more lovely.
- 3 Stockings appear twice as sheer, twice as clear.
- 4 The ribbed surface on the inside grips the skin, holding stocking in place—preventing twisted rear seams, ankle wrinkles.
- 5 The smooth, flat surface resists snags and runs.
- 6 While stockings appear sheerer, the close weave actually conceals skin blemishes.
