

Nehawka

Omar Schlichtemeier was called to Plattsmouth last Monday to look after some business matters for a short time.

Vance Harris, of Union, was calling on the merchants of Nehawka on Monday of this week, looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Opp and Enos Plunkett were in Omaha on Monday, where they went to look after some business matters for a while.

Delbert Switzer was a visitor in Elmwood last Saturday, where he went for a truck load of gas for the Trunkenholz Oil company of Nehawka.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rough were enjoying a visit last Sunday afternoon from their daughter, Mrs. Martin Ross and family, all having a very pleasant time.

George Trunkenholz, of Eagle, was a visitor in Nehawka on Tuesday of this week and was looking after business matters, consulting with W. H. Kruger, local manager for the concern.

Thomas E. Fulton, the veteran blacksmith, who has been very poorly for some weeks is still confined to his bed and not showing the amount of improvement his many friends are desiring.

It is going to be cold weather now pretty soon as M. N. Tucker and Grover Hoback were putting up the storm vestibule at the Sheldon Department store and they were none too soon about it, either.

Bruce Stone and wife and Charles Hall and wife were in Union last Saturday night, where they were enjoying a supper which was given in honor of Luther J. Hall, Jr., who was visiting here from his home in the west. The supper was given by Geo. A. Stites and wife.

While working in the stone quarries, Cecil Hicker had the misfortune to get one of his fingers crushed, the accident putting him out of commission so far as work is concerned for a time. However, the injured member is healing nicely.

The quarrying and hauling of stone to the river job now under way this side of Nebraska City, is going steadily forward in the quarries here, the hauling being continued throughout the day and night in order to keep the workmen supplied with stone.

Marion Pitman and family, of Avoca, were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Laura Fleischmann. Mrs. Fleischmann and Mr. Pitman are sister and brother. They also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Pitman, the parents, who reside here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chapman, of Ashland, were visiting in Nehawka last Sunday, being guests for the day and a very fine dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Opp. Mr. and Mrs. Herman P. Opp, of Lincoln, were also guests, making a very pleasant party.

The Nehawka Farmers Oil company received a car of gas Monday, which was unloaded with some difficulty as the belt broke and there was a delay, but the workmen stuck to the job in spite of the severe cold and succeeded in getting it done around the noon hour.

Luther J. Hall, Jr., of Snohomish, Washington, was a visitor in Nehawka with Charles Hall and other friends and relatives here. Mr. Hall had just brought some 25 head of very fine horses from his town to Galesburg, Ill., and delivered them there, and on his way back home stopped off to visit his friends and relatives here.

Methodist Brotherhood to Meet
The Brotherhood of the Methodist church, which is composed of the men of the church and Bible school, will hold their next meeting in the basement of the church on Tuesday, December 18. A fine program is being arranged and there will be plenty of good eats. Better make it a point to get an invitation to this meeting, provided you are not a member and then the next time they have a meeting be sure and be a member, for they are needing your services and they will also do you good as well as all others. Better investigate and know what they are doing.

Dick Chriswiser Very Sick
It is reported that Dick Chriswiser who was injured in one of his hips while at work is at this time at the home of his mother, Mrs. Martha Chriswiser in Plattsmouth, where he is receiving treatment. The dislocated hip, which has been put back in place, still continues to give the patient a great deal of pain, especially when he attempts to sit down. He can walk a little, but only with a great deal of pain.

Reservoir Now Complete
The reservoir of the new Nehawka waterworks system has now been completed, the finishing touches having been placed thereon Monday. The mains have been full of water for some time, but only for testing purposes. Just when service to the consumers will be established is not yet known.

Basketball Games Popular
The basketball team from Inland, where the father of Supt. C. E. Stimber resides, came to Nehawka last Friday and in a game played that day the Nehawka team was victorious by a score of 27 to 14. However, they played again on Saturday afternoon and the visitors won by a score of 30 to 19. On Saturday the town team of Union came over and played with the Nehawka town team, the score being 39 to 26 in favor of Nehawka.

Coasting Accident
Miss Hazel Drennen, age 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Drennen, while coasting last Sunday, was unable to manage her sled, which had attained great speed in its flight down a steep hill and it veered from the roadway and crashed into a telephone pole with great force. The young lady was thrown against the post, the impact causing considerable injury to her anatomy. A physician was called and gave her treatment but she has been compelled to remain in her bed for a number of days. It is thought no permanent injury will result. With coasting the popular sport just now, it behooves all to use great care in the prevention of accidents.

Enjoying Winter in West
Mrs. Ella Kearney was very pleased when she received a letter from her aunt, Mrs. Walter Homley, of Fort Albeni, British Columbia, in which there was enclosed a ticket, and asking that she come to their home in the far northwest and remain for over the winter. Fort Albeni is located on the Pacific coast where the climate is moderated by the gulf stream and where the winters are mild and pleasant.

Mrs. Kearney has written a letter to her friend, Mrs. Albert Wolfe, telling of the very pleasant trip she had covering much of the distance on the water, as she sailed up the west coast of our country and on north to the Canadian seaport. The mountains along the coast in Canada presented a wonderful and beautiful panorama, as they stretched out for miles and miles beyond the power of eyesight. Mrs. Kearney says she is enjoying her visit there a great deal and anticipates a pleasant winter ahead.

Visited with Friends Here
Louis Carsten, Sr., came to Nehawka last Saturday and visited over Sunday and Monday with friends in this vicinity, as he has a number of relatives and many friends making their home here. He was a guest while here of Leo Switzer and family, John G. Wunderlich and family and many others on whom he called briefly, enjoying the time a great deal as he renewed acquaintance with the old friends.

Grand Chapter Officers Visit Eastern Star

Interesting and Largely Attended Meeting Held by Home Chapter Tuesday Evening.

Home chapter No. 189, Order of the Eastern Star, held a very largely attended and interesting meeting Tuesday evening at the lodge rooms in the Masonic temple, the occasion being honored by the presence of the grand worthy matron and the grand associate matron.

Mrs. Clara Bathen, of Lincoln, with Mr. Bathen, who is worthy patron-elect of one of the Lincoln chapters, was in attendance and gave a most interesting talk on the work of the order as well as praise for the splendid manner in which the affairs of Home chapter are conducted.

Mrs. Margaret McPherson, of Lincoln, grand associate worthy matron, was also in attendance to join in the short speaking program. Mrs. McPherson is a former Plattsmouth lady and her visit here was especially enjoyed.

The local officers exemplified the initiatory work of the Star in a very fine manner that was highly commended by the visiting grand chapter officers.

During the evening the members had a charming piano duet by Mrs. L. S. Dorce and Mrs. R. W. Knorr that added to the interest of the program.

Following the ritualistic work and the remarks of the visiting officers, dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge of this feature of the evening.

Mrs. Mahle Pierson, worthy matron of the Auburn chapter was among the visitors in attendance at the meeting.
Mrs. H. F. Nolting, worthy matron of Home chapter, presided over the session of the chapter.

DR. FRED COLLINS ELECTED

Omaha.—Dr. Fred W. Collins of Madison, was elected president, and Columbus was chosen for the 1935 meeting at the convention of the Nebraska State Veterinary Medical association Tuesday. The session will end Wednesday.

Other officers elected were Dr. George Lennerts, Humphrey, vice president; Dr. E. C. Jones, Grand Island, re-elected secretary-treasurer; and Dr. B. F. Lott, Gresham, and Dr. Fred Barta, DeWitt were chosen directors to succeed Dr. F. H. Oert, Osceola, and Dr. Frank Breed, Lincoln.

David City was chosen for next summer's clinic.

Governor-elect Cochran approved the state matching federal dollars in a campaign to eradicate bovine tuberculosis from Nebraska herds in a speech before the association. He indicated he would include recommendations for a $75,000 appropriation in his budget message to the next legislature.

FARMERS RESCUE CHILDREN

Thorntown, Ind.—Prompt, heroic work by farmers saved the lives of children imprisoned in a school bus that burned after overturning in a ditch. Robert Leatherman and Juanita Smith, pupils, were severely burned.

Ray Youkey of Thorntown, driver, said the vehicle skidded on a curve and turned upside down. The children became panic stricken when the fire started. Homer Folk, farmer nearby, ran to the bus calling other farmers along the road. They dragged the children thru the windows and extinguished the fire.

CHANGE TO WINTER OIL!

Of course you can, Mrs. Motorist! That's Iso-Vis "D," the correct winter motor oil... It flows freely at 20° below zero. But just try the other one... the wrong winter motor oil... pulls like taffy!

Make This Test . . Then Get ISO-VIS "D"

STOP at any Standard Oil Station or Dealer. The attendant will invite you to try the demonstrator. Make the test—then draw your own conclusions.

The wrong kind of motor oil thickens and gets sticky in cold weather—just as it does in the demonstrator. On cold mornings this may mean a stalled engine, run-down battery, or even a costly repair bill.

The right kind of motor oil flows easily and lubricates instantly—no matter how cold the weather. That's why it's the best to fill your crankcase with Iso-Vis "D," either 10-W or 20-W. You get the right cold-weather motor oil in the correct grade for your car. Iso-Vis "D" like any high quality product has its advantages. For instance, Iso-Vis "D" does not become thick or gummy at below-zero temperatures. Neither does it thin out when the mercury rises. It assures you perfect lubrication during winter months regardless of temperature changes. Iso-Vis "D" allows your engine to start quickly with less strain on the starter and drain on the battery. It gives you smooth engine performance without waste of power, gasoline, or money that comes with the drag of heavy oil. Then, too, Iso-Vis "D" is sludge-free—and you know what that means to a motor. Make it a point to stop at your Standard Station or Dealer today. Change to Iso-Vis "D" and be ready for winter driving.

President Says Farmers Should Fix a Crop Limit

Calls for Adjustment of Agricultural Production to a Market That Actually Exists.

Declaring farm income has increased about a billion dollars over last year, despite the drought, President Roosevelt told the American Farm Bureau federation in session at Nashville, Tennessee, Monday, that agriculture must continue "to adjust its total production to the market that actually exists" if further gains are to be realized. Two other requirements for "an even larger increase in 1935" were cited—a sufficient increase in industrial production to expand the market for farm products and payment of more of the nation's export trade by increased imports.

The president spoke by telephone from the white house to the thousands of farmers gathered for the sixteenth annual convention of the federation. Cordell Hull was on the program for an address on "Agriculture and Foreign Trade Agreements," but because of an attack of laryngitis the speech was read by his personal friend, Judge J. M. GARDENHIRE. Hull said "excessive tariffs" are now "working great injury to agriculture than ever before" and urged development of foreign trade.

President Talks by Phone.
Edward A. O'Neal, president of the federation, told the gathering credit rates and terms to farmers should be liberalized; that agricultural should be relieved of its "inequitable tax burden" and that "inequalities resulting from the tariff structure and the monetary system should be corrected. Introducing President Roosevelt, O'Neal said into

Contractors Must Observe NRA Rules

Captain James M. Young Issues Order on Trucking for Federal River Work.

Omaha.—A blanket order directing a dozen contractors on federal river jobs in Nebraska to begin hauling rock under the NRA trucking code was issued at the office of Capt. James M. Young, district army engineer. Delegations of truckers working on jobs at Tekamah and Plattsmouth appeared at the office to describe conditions under which they were working.

Ralph C. Sweeney of Omaha, contractor on the Plattsmouth job conferred with E. F. Magaret, NRA trade practice officer for Nebraska, and later Magaret said Sweeney had issued orders for all his truckers to enroll under the NRA. No rock will be hauled on the Tekamah job, Magaret said, until he receives a report from Washington on a proposal submitted by the Tobin Quarries, contractor there. The Tobin Quarries, Magaret said, have offered to lease the trucks to the Tekamah haulers for $3 a day and pay the men wages of 60 cents an hour. He is seeking a ruling on the legality of the offer.

Contractors have been operating on the understanding that rock hauling came under the quarry code which permits lower rates than the trucking code, it was said. To pay trucking code rates will practically double the hauling outlay of the two contractors, according to reports submitted to Magaret.
