

CONSTIPATION Can be Helped!

(Use what Doctors do)

Why do the bowels usually move regularly and thoroughly, long after a physician has given you treatment for constipation?

Because the doctor gives a liquid laxative that can always be taken in the right amount. You can gradually reduce the dose. Reduced dosage is the secret of real and safe relief from constipation.

Ask your doctor about this. Ask your druggist how popular liquid laxatives have become. The right liquid laxative gives the right kind of help, and the right amount of help. When the dose is repeated, instead of more each time, you take less. Until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without any help at all.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara, and these are natural laxatives that form no habit—even in children. Your druggist has it; ask for—can be expected and it should not be long until the hand is well again.

Murdock can be thankful to Chas. Schaeffer, whose interest and enthusiasm has brought into being a Chamber of Commerce organization, better known here as the Booster club. It is such interest as this that keeps the smaller towns alive and helps attract trade to the doors of local stores.

E. A. Ganaway, who has been operating a shoe shop in the building near that occupied by the Murdock Credit association, for a number of years, moved last week to a building across the street in which many attempts have been made to operate a cream and produce station. Mr. Ganaway will have more room in this location both for his business and living quarters, which were quite cramped in the other place.

John Eppings and the family and Carl Buck and family were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lancaster and family, of Murray, where they all enjoyed a fine visit and an excellent dinner. Is Kept Busy
H. W. Tool is still being kept busy with the manufacture of "what-nots" and quilting frame supports, for which he has found good demand.

Enjoyed Social Time
Mrs. Mearle Gillespie has been making some quilts and the fact being known to numerous of her friends, a number of the ladies about town with needles and thimbles went to the Gillespie home last Thursday, pitching in to help with the work. Soon they had one of the quilts finished and another on the frames and partly done. The assistance was greatly appreciated by Mrs. Gillespie.

Feeling Some Better
For a number of weeks, Oscar E. Moonald has not been feeling well, but has kept going, nevertheless. He is feeling some better at this time and has been able to get out and look after the sale of some crop insurance.

Arrival of Fine Grandson
There arrived via the stork route last week, a fine son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wilkins, both the young man and his mother doing very nicely. The arrival has brought happiness not only to the parents but to the grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Knope. The mother was formerly Miss Wilma Knope.

Attended Convention
The Rev. C. F. Weber, pastor of the Callahan church southwest of Murdock and also pastor of the church at Wabash, was in Lincoln the fore part of last week, where he was attending a convention of the ministers of the protestant churches of Nebraska, that was in session from Monday until Wednesday. A total of 238 ministers were registered and a very interesting meeting was had.

Organize Boosters' Club
The village of Murdock, like other town, big and small, is faced with the problem of keeping community spirit alive, and to that end has organized an active Boosters' club, which is analogous to the Chamber of Commerce of the larger cities. Henry A. Tool has been named president and Charles Schaeffer vice president, Lacy McDonald, secretary.

The sole object of the club is to promote the best interests of the town and its surrounding trade territory. One of the first problems to be tackled is the organization of a juvenile band among the students of the Murdock schools and to provide instruction for the same. The committee to look after this is composed of H. W. Tool, Dr. L. D. Lee and Lacey McDonald. Broadcasts of markets and other news of interest to the community over the rural telephone lines has also been started.

Among those who are interested in the new organization and doing their part to make it live up to its name are E. A. Ganaway, Henry Amgwert, A. J. Tool, Henry Carsen, H. W. Tool, McDonald's Drug store, A. H. Jacobson, Otto Elchoff and Mrs. George Miller. Everyone who has the advancement of Murdock at heart should align themselves with the Boosters' club and do their share toward bringing about desired results.

Nebraskans in Need of More Seed Loans

Nebraska Congressmen Hope to Get Seed Loan Funds Through Appropriation Bill.

Washington.—Nebraska congressmen were warned their farmers would need about $3,000,000 in federal seed loans within thirty or forty days, but the delegation was optimistic over the chances of obtaining funds in time thru the seed loan appropriation bill. It already has been approved by the agriculture committee.

Val Kuska, Burlington colonization agent, wrote Representative McLaughlin in that there would be some farmers in every county in Nebraska who would need some financial aid and said in a few, such as Sherman, Valley and Clay, loan needs would run upward of $100,000. His figures were based on data compiled by P. H. Stewart, University of Nebraska, showing Nebraska would need one and a quarter million bushels of oats and about 240,000 bushels of barley this year for seed.

Representative Coffee set at rest fears that the loans would not be available to Nebraska farmers because of a state law which provides that a crop cannot be mortgaged before it is planted. Coffee said the appropriation bill permitted agreements instead of mortgages to care for just such a situation.

Kuska warned that unless the seed was made available in time many farmers would have to let their land lie idle or plant corn. He expressed fear this would reduce the sign-up of corn-hog contracts and possibly encourage overproduction of corn.

thrill that I thought I should pass it on to others. Here it is:

"THE DIVINITY OF CHRIST"
"Christ is a rare Jewel, but men know not his value; a sun which ever shines, but men perceive not His brightness, nor walk in His light. He is a garden full of sweets, a hive full of honey, a sun without spot, a star ever bright, a fountain ever full, a brook which ever flows, a rose which ever blooms, a foundation which never yields, a guide who never errs, a friend who never forsakes. No mind can fully grasp His glory; His beauty, His worth, His importance, no tongue can fully declare. He is the source of all good, the fountain of every excellency, the mirror of perfection, the light of heaven, the wonder of earth, time's masterpiece and eternity's glory; the sun of bliss, the way of life and life's fair way. 'He is altogether lovely,' says the saint; 'a morning without clouds, a day without night, a rose without a thorn. His lips drop like the honeycomb, His eyes beam tenderness, His heart gushes love. The Christian is fed by His hands, carried in His heart, supported by His arm, nursed in His bosom, guided by His eye, instructed by His lips, warmed by His love. His wounds are his life, His smile the light of his path, the health of his soul, his rest and heaven below.'—L. Neitzel.

OLD GOLD PARITY UPHELD

New York.—An order of Supreme Court Justice Aaron Steuber placed on file requires the Bethlehem Steel company, in effect, to pay interest on an issue of bonds at the old gold parity of the dollar. The decision was in a suit brought by the City Bank Farmers Trust company, holding as trustee sixty $1,000 Bethlehem bonds which provided for payment of interest either in dollars, pounds or Dutch guilders at set rates.

Justice Steuber ordered payment of $2,437, the amount sought, without making any reference to the constitutionality of the gold clause, attacked by the plaintiffs as unconstitutional. The amount of interest due in terms of the dollar, according to the defendant's contention, was $1,500.

Business Groups to Form Contacts with Government

Administration With Aid of Business Leaders Establish Liaison for Their Interest.

That the business interests of the country can better place their needs and ideas before the government, the administration with the aid of some fifty-two of the leading business men of the country have arranged a contact that can place their plans before governmental authorities.

Under it all American business could contact the government on legislation or other matters through the 52 business leaders who constitute the business advisory and planning council of the department of commerce.

Final arrangements for the utilization of the business council were shaped in a conference yesterday between President Roosevelt, Secretary Roper and H. P. Kindall, chairman of the council.

The business leaders at the dinner included Winthrop W. Aldrich, chairman of the Chase National bank; Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company; Henry I. Harriman, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and Robert L. Lund, head of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Government officials included Secretary Wallace, Secretary Roper, Harry L. Hopkins, relief administrator; Jesse H. Jones, Reconstruction corporation chairman; James A. Mof-
