OPENING FOR HOME OWNERS

Chicago.—A plan to provide 1.5 billions of private capital to a half million families who now have applications on file with the Home Owners Loan corporation and who cannot expect to receive loans because theirs are not distress cases was outlined here by I. Friedlander of Houston, Tex., president of the U. S. Building and Loan League. Friedlander, en route to Washington to preside at a meeting of the advisory council to the federal home loan bank board, said his plan involved close co-operation between the FOLC and the federal housing administration and would dispose of half the cases now on file with the HOLC. He suggested that if the FHA will examine those HOLC applications where the applicant offers sufficient security and has a capacity to repay, "private capital will be quick to respond to this program by rearranging the terms of the notes which are eligible for insurance" under FHA terms.

IN MEMORY OF WM. SPLITT

"He Is Just Away." I cannot say and I will not say, That he is dead, he is just away. With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand, He has wandered into an unknown land. And left us dreaming how very fair, It needs must be since he lingers there. And you, oh you, who wouldn't yearn, For the old time steps and the glad return.

ARMOR PLATES FOR BANK

Kearney, Neb. — Installation of armor plates to protect the Fort Kearney State bank vault is being rushed and the work will be completed shortly. The interior of the vault is being lined with heavy plates of manganese steel. An alarm system, sensitive to extreme heat and to loud noises, will be an additional protection against bandits. The Fort Kearney State bank was held up and robbed of $5,600 by bandits Oct. 3, 1933.

Cities and Hamlets to Join in Ball for President

From Every Section of County Comes Assurance of Support of Funds for War on Paralysis.

While social sophisticates from coast to coast vie with each other to hold the largest and most colorful birthday party in history for President Franklin D. Roosevelt on January 30th, lumberjacks, miners, and other groups in isolated spots across the continent are writing by hundreds to national headquarters for the birthday ball at New York City, humbly offering to share in what promises to be the greatest social and humanitarian event of the nation's history.

Typical of the spirit behind the work, whose objective is to raise money for a country-wide war on infantile paralysis, is a letter made public today by Col. Henry L. Doherty, national chairman of the 1935 Birthday Ball for the President. It comes from Ryderwood, Wash., a logging community.

"We are all logger," writes the chairman. "Five hundred of us ride from 5 to 20 miles to work every morning and with the outdoor life in the woods, we need plenty of rest. But we will all tune in on Wednesday night to hear the President's message."

Contrasting with this is the Chicago Birthday Ball program, which will feature numbers by more than a dozen of the nation's most famous jazz orchestras, and the Waldorf-Astoria Birthday Ball in New York, to be attended by Mrs. James Roosevelt, the President's mother, and by notables who include the famous leaders of the city's social and industrial worlds. Equally colorful will be the Washington affair on the same night under the chairmanship of Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson. It will attract to it all the nation's political leaders and statesmen.

"Between such communities as Ryderwood and New York are hundreds of others of varying size, all working day and night to make their particular party the leading social event of the year," Col. Doherty says. "Letters pouring into national headquarters daily indicate that everyone is working at top speed, and all concerned are to be congratulated on the enthusiasm with which they have taken up the task of raising funds for a nation-wide war on infantile paralysis."

"The 1935 Birthday Ball for the President promises to be not only a huge social success, but the greatest single event ever organized by the American people for the rehabilitation of victims of infantile paralysis and to ultimately stamp out the disease."

According to Col. Carl Eyoir, general director of the Birthday Ball program, there is every indication that the total number of celebrations held on the night of the 30th will exceed the 5000 which was the original goal of the 1935 birthday program.

FOLLOW POLICE ACTIVITIES

Omaha.—Police believe that four bandits who stole an Omaha's car probably to use in a robbery in some nearby town utilized a short wave radio to keep in touch with police movements. The car belonged to Gilbert K. Drew, who was stopped by the men.

One turned on the radio and was startled to hear a broadcast of Omaha police. "Are you a copper?" Drew was asked. He assured them he was not and they let him out on his promise not to report the auto theft. They said they would leave the car on Omaha streets within a few days.

Drew notified police, however, but asked them not to broadcast the theft, as the quartet threatened to wreck his car if they heard the report on the radio.
