

GREENWOOD

Henry Backemeyer, of near Murdock, was here calling on old friends Friday morning.

Mrs. Dora Leesley and grandson, Lester Lapham and Bill Leesley were shopping in Lincoln last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodhart Vant were called to Lincoln the first of last week by the death of her father, the late Frank Smith.

Miss Elva Coleman, who is teaching at Elmwood, visited over the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nils Coleman.

Mrs. Ethel Armstrong and son, Max, of Davey, visited at the William Armstrong and Vern Shepler homes here last Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Finlay and son, Howard, of near Emerald, spent a short time Sunday afternoon visiting her mother, Mrs. Myra Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weitzel left Friday for Sioux City, Iowa, where Mr. Weitzel will fill a vacancy in some of the high school departments for this semester.

Miss Florence Beighley, who is a teacher in the Plattsmouth schools, came home Friday evening to visit over the week end with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong.

Rev. Bruce Gideon, pastor of the Methodist church, will attend the Wesleyan University this semester and expects to finish this year. He started Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilkens moved their barber shop the first of the week from their former location into the building recently occupied by the D. N. Gribble barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Buckingham had their small daughter, Joyce Marie, baptized at their home on Sunday by Rev. B. E. Gideon, pastor of the Greenwood Methodist church.

Fred Etheredge received a letter on Wednesday from his wife, stating that the nephew whom she went to nurse, following an operation, is showing splendid improvement at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mathews and son, Emory, drove to Omaha Sunday afternoon, where they were guests of her cousin, Lee Wolfley and family. They returned home late Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bucknell and sons on Sunday evening. Mr. Allen is a nephew of Mrs. White.

Mrs. Dora Leesley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leesley and daughters, Margaret and Alice Marie, and son, Joe, drove to Omaha Sunday, where they spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hal Woodard and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gakemeier and daughter, Magdalene, Mrs. John Gakemeier and three children all of Murdock and Mrs. O. F. Peters and sons, Grant and Norman, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Peters on Sunday.

Mrs. Elsie Peters and son, Norman, were in Plattsmouth last Wednesday, where they were called to look after some business matters for a short time, driving over in their car. While they were away the business of the Credit association was being looked after by Mrs. Warren Boucher.

Raymond Lambert, who has been at the Bryan Memorial hospital at Lincoln for a number of weeks, where he has been receiving treatment following an operation which he underwent, was allowed to return home early last week and is making good progress since returning home.

The Rev. W. E. Goings, pastor of the Christian church of Greenwood, in company with some friends from the vicinity of Waverly, were spending some time in Harrison, Arkansas, where they visited and looked after some business matters. They arrived home early last week. They thought it was a very nice country, but not nearly so good a place to live as the town of Greenwood, or, in fact, any part of good old Cass county.

Methodist Guild Enjoy Meet The ladies guild of the Methodist church of Greenwood were enjoying a meeting last Wednesday at the parlors of the church, where they held a business session that was followed with a fine program and later a delicious lunch served by the hostesses who had charge of the gathering.

Returns Home Mrs. Charles Dyer, who has been at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln for several weeks following a recent operation, has now improved to a point where she is able to come home. It is expected she will continue to improve rapidly here and will soon be able to be up and around as usual.

Visited in Weeping Water Messrs E. L. McDonald, Evan Armstrong, Perley Clymer and W. A.

Armstrong made up a party who went to Weeping Water last Wednesday, where they looked after some business at the farm bureau office connected with the government's cornhog program. The farmers are pretty much all interested in the new proposition the government is putting out, and which permits the use of contract acres for the growing of forage crops of all kind.

Life Long Friends W. E. Pailing, who with his daughter, Miss Anna, have been making their home at Harbine, where Miss Anna is a stenographer and book-keeper with a lay firm, has been visiting for the past week with his old friend, Fred W. Etheredge, whom he has known during his entire lifetime. Mr. Pailing's mother was present at the time of the birth of Mr. Etheredge and cared for him at birth, and then when Fred was 11 months of age, Mr. Pailing was born and Mrs. Etheredge's mother served as Walter's first nurse. They were born in houses next door to each other. The house in which Mr. Pailing was born still stands in Plattsmouth, but the other house was torn down a few years ago to provide room for the building of a modern residence by Mr. and Mrs. John Albert. No wonder these two men are such close friends.

The Journal reporter in looking after news, chanced to drop in on Mr. Etheredge who told us the story of their babyhood.

Birthday Anniversary Wednesday Wayne Landon, who he was born, selected the 30th day of January for his advent into this world, utterly unconscious of the fact that the president of the United States had chosen the same day. However, Wayne was enjoying his natal day very nicely on last Wednesday and was looking after the business he had in hand and getting his day's work done as usual.

Enjoyed Meeting at Fremont The manager of the Greenwood filling station, C. W. Sewkirk, and his assistant, Arlo Goings, accompanied by Messrs Ray Clarkson and Guy Pitzer, who are employed in the service station at Ashland, were over to Fremont where they enjoyed a visit of the employees of the company that operates this particular line of service stations and where they listened to a discussion of the operation of filling stations by a representative of the company from Waterloo, Iowa.

Former Citizen Dies at Lincoln George Conkilo, age 78, who has put in nearly a half century in and around Greenwood and who once owned a good farm three miles north of town and has worked over nearly every acre of land within miles of Greenwood before he moved to Lincoln some twenty years ago, died at a hospital in Lincoln last Monday and was buried at the Greenwood cemetery on Thursday afternoon. The wife had died some years ago, and has been sleeping in the beautiful Greenwood cemetery, his remains being laid besides those of the wife.

Will Set Incubators Soon The Leesley Hatchery, W. H. Leesley, manager and proprietor, are getting in readiness for the setting of their battery of incubators, with a total capacity of over 5,000 eggs. It is their intention to set the incubators around the middle of this month.

To Live in Greenwood Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Laymon, of Lincoln, have purchased the Mrs. Mamie Kimberly property in the northeast part of town. After making some repairs on the same, the Laymon family will move here in the spring to make this their home.

Visited at Byron Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Newkirk and son, Raymond, and daughters, Virginia and Marjorie, accompanied by Miss Irene Kelly and Arlo Goings, drove to Byron, Neb., Sunday, where they spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pailing and family and Mrs. W. E. Newkirk. They reported them all as being real well.

Happy Birthday The Sophomore class went to the home of Supt and Mrs. Warren Tuesday evening, where they pleasantly surprised Mr. Warren in honor of his birthday. The evening was spent in playing games after which delicious refreshments were served at a late hour before time came for departure. All departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Warren many more happy birthdays.

Enjoyed Brief Visit with Brother. W. A. White and G. E. Bucknell drove to Omaha Friday morning, at which place they met Mr. White's brother, Mr. Noble White, of Sacramento, Cal., where they spent a few hours visiting with him between trains. He was on his way home from a business trip to New York City.

Ladies Toggery An Inner-Belt That's Adjustable! As the inner-belt gradually flattens your abdomen, you can adjust it, by the lacings on each side. This well boned belt is 12-inches deep at center front, tapering to 10-inches at the sides. The garment is of peach brocade with a semi-uplift of Satin Tricot. The boning in back extends to the $5 shoulders. Model 3612. GOSSARD

This was the first time he had seen his brother for about twelve years and needless to say it was a happy meeting.

Gave a Card Party The American Legion Auxiliary unit gave a party for the members and the public at the I. O. O. F. hall last Thursday evening. There were fourteen tables of players present.

Mrs. Bessie Birdsall, wife of A. R. Birdsall, died last week after a lingering illness. She will be remembered as having resided in Greenwood for a number of years, conducting a cafe here for some years. She has been in poor health for three or four years and during most of that time they have lived in Weeping Water. Of a kindly disposition, always making friends and keeping them, she was universally liked. A more complete account of her life will appear in our next issue. The funeral was held on Sunday.

KANSAS DRYS ARE WARNED Emporia, Kas.—William Allen White predicted prohibition in Kansas would be sent "to the scrap heap" if a law is passed outlawing 2.2 beer. The Emporia editor, describing himself as "one who has fought for prohibition for forty years," declared: "To prohibit 2.2 beer will cause a revolt of tens of thousands of honest young dreds from the whole prohibition theory. Very soon another referendum will send Kansas prohibition to the scrap heap." Several bills to revise the Kansas liquor laws are under consideration by the legislature. They range from repeal to restriction of the alcoholic content of beverages to one-half of 1 percent.

PERSONAL EXEMPTIONS ON YOUR INCOME TAX

In addition to the personal exemption of $1,000 for single persons and $2,500 for married persons living together and for heads of families, a taxpayer is entitled to a credit of $400 for each dependent, defined by income tax law and regulations as a person under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective. The term "mentally or physically defective" means not only cripples and those mentally defective but persons in ill health and the aged.

In order to be entitled to the $400 credit, the taxpayer must furnish the dependent his or her chief support. The credit is based upon actual financial dependency and not mere legal dependency. For example, a father whose children receive half or more of their support from a trust fund or other separate source is not entitled to the credit.

Neither relationship nor residence is a factor in the allowance of the $400 credit for a dependent. The taxpayer and the dependent may be residents of different cities. If husband and wife both contribute to the support of a dependent, to $400 credit may be taken by the one contributing the chief support, and may not be divided between them.

A single person who supports in his home an aged mother is entitled not only to the $400 credit for a dependent, but also to the personal exemption of $2,500 as the head of a family. A widower supporting under similar circumstances a dependent child under 18 years of age also is entitled to the personal exemption of $2,500 as the head of a family, plus the $400 credit for a dependent.

Under the Revenue Act of 1934 both the personal exemption and the credit for dependents are required to be prorated where the status of the taxpayer changed during the year.

ORDER

In the District Court of Cass county, Nebraska. In the matter of Frank A. Clويد, Administrator of the estate of Martha Young, deceased, for license to sell real estate.

Now, on this 29th day of January, 1935, Frank A. Clويد, Administrator of the estate of Martha Young, deceased, having presented his petition, and under oath praying for license to sell the following described real estate of the said Martha Young, to-wit:

Lot eight (8) in block thirty-seven (37) in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska—or so much thereof to bring the sum of $250.00, for the payment of charges allowed against said estate, charges and costs of administration, for the reason that there is not a sufficient amount of personal property in the possession of said Frank A. Clويد, Administrator, belonging to said estate, to pay said debts, allowances and costs.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at chambers in the City of Plattsmouth in said county, on the 21st day of March, 1935, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock a. m., to show cause if any there be, why a license should not be granted to said Frank A. Clويد, Administrator, to sell so much of the above described real estate of said deceased as shall be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order be served upon all persons interested in said estate by causing the same to be published for four successive weeks in The Plattsmouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed and published in said county of Cass.

HARRY D. LANDIS, Judge of the District Court.

In the District Court of the County of Cass, Nebraska. Charles Vallery, Plaintiff, vs.
