THEATRE DISINFECTED DAILY

Guy C. Griffin, manager of the Ritz theatre, advises the Journal that it is the policy to disinfect the showhouse daily the year 'round, spraying a germ killing disinfectant throughout the auditorium prior to the beginning of each performance. "I doubt if there is a building, public or private, in the city, that uses nearly as great a quantity of disinfectant as we do," said Mr. Griffin.

In addition to this, the showhouse manager declared that he has taken other fumigation measures since the threatened outbreak of meningitis to protect patrons from contracting any form of contagion.

Since patrons do not sit facing one another as where gathered about tables, direct contact breathing is almost impossible at the theatre, and Mr. Griffin declares the danger of contracting meningitis germs there is not as great as where people congregate in stores or offices facing one another as they discuss matters of interest. He has rigidly enforced the ban on attendance of children under 17, however, as prescribed by the local board of health for such brief periods as may allow danger from the disease to pass.

VISIT AT UNION

From Monday's Daily
This afternoon a party of Platts-mouth residents were at Union where they spent a short time visiting with the residents of that section of the county and visiting with friends. The party comprised Judge Charles L. Graves, himself a long time resident of Union, E. H. Schulhof and George B. Mann, pioneer historian of Cass county.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of thanking the host of friends for their many acts of kindness and sympathy in the hour of the passing of our loved father, William Otterstein. Also we wish to thank all those taking part in the funeral services and to the friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers and also the Sons of Herman.—The Children of William Otterstein.

DEATH OF MISS ADAMS

From Tuesday's Daily
This morning Miss Carrie Adams passed away at 5:30 at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. C. Dovey where for the past six years she has been an invalid, being tenderly cared for by the sister through the long years of her illness until the dawn of today she was called to the last reward. Miss Adams has been in poor health for the past ten years.

The deceased lady is survived by two brothers and four sisters, A. C. Adams, Lincoln; John Adams, Phoenix, Arizona; Mrs. Emma Sawin, Boston; Mrs. Edna Wellington, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. O. C. Dovey of this city and Mrs. Edward Carr of Eagle. A sketch of the life of Miss Adams will be given later in the Journal. No announcement has been made as to the funeral services which will be held under the auspices of the Straight funeral home.

VISIT AT LINCOLN

From Monday's Daily
Fred I. Rea, district manager and E. L. McKissick, sales manager of the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co., for this district, departed this morning for Lincoln where they are to spend a few days. They will attend a conference of managers being held at the main office of the company on the proposed cheaper electricity rate for the territory served by the company.

RETURN FROM NEBRASKA CITY

Mrs. George Conis and children, Catherine and John, returned home Sunday evening from Nebraska City, where for the past several days they have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Stavron and with other relatives in that city. The Stavron family are starting on their journey to Greece and expect to spend several months there with relatives and friends.

AN APPRECIATION

We gratefully wish to express to our many and dear friends and neighbors our heartfelt appreciation of their acts of kindness and words of sympathy in the loss of our loved husband and father. We also wish to thank all those who aided in the funeral service, and for the beautiful floral offerings. These acts will long be a grateful memory.—Mrs. Sarah Pittman and Family.

TO ENGAGE IN BUSINESS

J. E. Lancaster, who has been for the past year in the service of the state as a member of the state sheriff's force, will engage in business in this city in the future. Mr. Lancaster has resigned his office to be effective on March 1st and is now planning to have his feed mill and equipment moved to this city and establish his business in Plattsouth.

The change is made largely on account of the health of Mrs. Lancaster which has not been the best and the duties of the deputy state sheriff being such that he was forced to be almost constantly away from home, made it unpleasant in the extreme for the family.

The many friends over the county will be pleased to see Mr. Lancaster back in the home community and trust that he may find success in his business enterprise.

JOLLY WORKERS CLUB

The Jolly Workers club held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. John Micin. All the members and four visitors were present. After the business was transacted the lesson "Handmade Rugs" was given by the leaders. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. John Micin, Mrs. Fred Buechler and Mrs. Verner Meisinger.

WILL CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. William Kaufmann, two of the estimable and highly respected residents of west of this city, are to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Tuesday, February 19th at their farm home.

Mr. Kaufmann is now seventy-four and Mrs. Kaufmann seventy-two years of age and have spent their married life in this community where they arrived as young people from their native homes in Germany, Mr. Kaufmann being a native of Westphalian and Mrs. Kaufmann of Saxony. Mr. Kaufmann arrived in this county in 1883 and was engaged in farm work and was employed in one of his first jobs at the farm of Frederick Wehrlein, one of the pioneer residents of this section, in later years engaging in farming for himself. It was on February 19, 1885 that William Kaufmann and Miss Lena Franke were united in marriage at Plattsouth.

This estimable couple have five children. Henry of this city, Fred at home, and Mrs. Berta Sutton, Mrs. Emma Threack and Miss Nellie Kaufmann, all of Omaha.

In honor of the forthcoming anniversary they had the pleasure of having a song dedicated to them over radio station KFNF today.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Egenberger entertained at a delightful turkey dinner at their home, a number of the friends being present to enjoy the occasion with them. The delicious repast and an afternoon of visiting served to pass the time most charmingly. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ofe, Mr. and Mrs. John Sattler, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Walling, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McKissick, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidtman, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Egenberger and Mrs. Louisa Bauer.
