C. E. Morris and family were enjoying a visit last Sunday at the home of Mr. Silas Morris of near Louisville, where they visited for the day and had a splendid time. Stripping Ground for Quarry A force of men began work Monday on the east quarry of the Tobin company, getting the ground stripped for the securing of stone for use on the river development jobs now underway in this part of the country. He is having a store room built on wheels, the vehicle being drawn by an auto the same as a trailer. In it he will have a stock of goods, mostly groceries, which he will carry to the doors of the housewives over this section of the county. Joe Bauer is building the store on wheels for Tony at the Frans lumber yard and will have it done in the near future.

OHIO MAN TAKEN IN RAID Omaha.—Raiding an Omaha house before dawn to find their quarry asleep, Omaha police Sunday arrested a man wanted by Ohio authorities on bank robbery charges.

Detectives Green and Lynch said the man confessed he was Merritt Longbrake of Claypool, Ind., who escaped jail at Bellefontaine, O., in July, 1933, where he was held on charges of twice robbing a Huntsville, O., bank, following his arrest at Warsaw, Ind.

The drowsy captive declared his wife knew nothing of his activities but she was also detained. A money bag with $400 was found under Longbrake's pillow. Two guns, an automatic and a .22 caliber rifle, and $60 in silver, were cached in his car, a 1935 model, which he said he bought at Chicago a few days ago.

BILLY NEVILLE IS BETTER Omaha.—Hopes were entertained Sunday night for the recovery of Billy Neville, 9, Omaha boy who is fighting for life following an unusual operation performed Friday for removal of a dermoid tumor from his heart. A slight improvement was observed during the day.

Grazing Area Acute Worry Over the State

Agricultural Expert Says Pasture Problem Follows the Drouth and Overuse.

Lincoln, Neb., March 10.—Arthur Peterson of the Nebraska Agricultural college reports many Nebraska farmers face the immediate problem of providing grazing for their live stock during the coming months, as pastures in many areas have suffered immeasurably from the 1934 drouth and over-grazing.

He had just returned from a series of pasture improvement meetings thru the state.

In the northeast, pastures probably are in better shape than in any other part of the state, he said. The percentage of grass kill there ranges from 25 to 50 per cent, he estimated. Pastures, however, on north hillsides, shaded areas and in flood area are in fairly good condition. The eastern part of the river counties in the southeast section also is in "fair" condition, Peterson reported.

One of the biggest pasture problems of Nebraska for 1935 lies in the southern and central parts, Peterson declared. In many places 75 to 100 per cent of the grass has killed out. Native grasslands have withstood the drouth quite well and will in most cases, come back, he said, but even these will have to be carefully managed and pasturing delayed.

"The necessity of working out a temporary pasture rotation is facing many farmers in order that pasturing in old fields can be delayed while they are being rejuvenated or while new permanent pastures are being established," he declared. "Many old pastures will need re-seeding this spring."
