

Alvo News

A young lady arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rueter last Saturday with all happy and doing nicely.

The Farmers Union held a very interesting business meeting last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Charles Ayres.

The Mothers and Daughters' Council held a meeting on last Friday, at which time they were entertained by a fine program.

Lucile Buising, who is employed at the Farmers Union store in Elmwood, visited at the home of her parents over the week end.

E. M. Stone was called to Lincoln last Wednesday, where he had some business to look after and was also visiting with friends for a short time.

John Elliott, sr., who has been feeling not the best for some time past, suffering with the flu, is reported as being much better and now able to be about.

Soren Petersen was delivering corn last Wednesday to the home of Floyd Dyart, who resides near Eagle, using the truck of Simon Rehmeier, whose corn it was.

On Wednesday of last week, the members of the Royal Neighbors of America were enjoying a meeting at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Cook.

Ervin Leesley, of Plattsmouth, who has been staying for some time at Greenwood, was a visitor in Alvo last Wednesday, while en route to his home in the county seat.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted McCartney was made happy last week by the arrival at their home of a very fine baby girl, with all doing nicely and joy reigning supreme.

W. G. Hoffman was in Omaha with a truck load of stock which he has been feeding and on the return trip, brought a consignment of paint and varnish for the store of Roy Stewart here.

A bouncing baby boy arrived at the home of Walter Deles Dernier some four miles west of Alvo. The mother and young man are both doing very well and the father is extremely happy over the event.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Nelson were in Lincoln Wednesday, where they visited the wholesale houses and brought back a truck load of goods for the store. While they were away, the store was looked after by Miss Neta Mullen.

There were many of the farmers in town last Monday, it being the time for the distribution of the corn-hog checks, which by the way have come in very nicely just at the opening of the spring season when the need for farm seed is very great.

Uncle J. H. Richardson, who is staying on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart, is still feeling quite poorly. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart go out and do the chores and care for the patient, who is showing good improvement with each succeeding day.

Simon Rehmeier has been handling a large amount of seed oats this spring, having received a large truck load brought by John B. Skinner on last Wednesday, that serving as a return load for Mr. Skinner after delivering a truck load of hogs to market for F. M. Prouty.

Miss Opal Coster is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gamlin, of Murdock, where she is looking after the house work and caring for Mrs. Gamlin, who has just returned from a stay at the hospital, where she underwent an operation and is at this time recovering nicely.

Mrs. Herman Stroemer has been having the home newly painted and varnished on the inside, but had to defer the work a short time on account of the dust storm which was interfering with the job and required keeping the house closed, and even then could not proceed.

Martin Nickles and wife, of Alvo, have been staying at the farm for the past week looking after the chores for Harold as he has been away quite a bit on account of the stork bringing to her and his wife a very fine little daughter to the hospital in Lincoln. Both mother and daughter are doing very nicely. Mrs. Nickles, Jr. was formerly Miss Helen Hardnock.

Mr. and Mrs. Gollaher of Grand Island, the latter a sister of Roy Coatman, arrived in Alvo last Thursday, stopping for a short time here on their way to Weeping Water where they were going to attend the funeral of the mother of Mrs. Gollaher, Mrs. Wm. Coatman which was held at the Methodist church at Weeping Water last Thursday afternoon.

Busy Appraising Farm Lands
In line with the requirements of the government on the corn-hog reduction program, T. M. McKinnon, Carl Johnson, Charles Ayres and Lloyd Grady were busy during the past week with the measuring and appraising of land taken from cultivation in this vicinity.

Attend Mother's Funeral.
R. M. Coatman was over to Omaha on last Wednesday evening, driving over to meet and bring his sister, Miss Gladys Coatman, who was returning from Ithaca where she is an instructor in the schools there, and was coming to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Wm. Coatman of Weeping Water. Mr. and Mrs. Coatman were over to the funeral Thursday.

Sold His Lands.
Joe Parsell who has owned an eighty acre farm south of Alvo sold it to some Lincoln parties recently and later purchased another piece of property in the country and has been deliberating about moving on the property and at other times thinks living in town would be better. He has not exactly determined as yet whether they will be farmers or remain in town.

Sang at KFAB Sunday.
Don Davis, the young man who does a song now and then and does it nicely, was the singer of some very beautiful songs over KFAB at Lincoln Sunday evening at 5:45. We are hoping that all were able to enjoy the singing of this young man.

Alvo School Notes.
A convocation of song was held in the high school last Tuesday morning. The period was spent in assembly singing led by Ernest F. Gorr.

Donald Davis, graduate with the class of 1934 and post-graduate this year, sang on the "Opportunity Hour" over KFAB on last Sunday evening.

Milton Hoffman, pupil in Miss Green's room, is in a Lincoln hospital with pneumonia. His condition is rather serious.

A new set of scenery is being constructed by a committee from the Parent-Teacher Association for the three-act comedy, "Where's Grandma," to be produced on March 29. The scenery will be given to the school by the organization after the play. Those on the committee are: A. B. Stroemer, Willard Christensen, and L. M. Hauptman.

"Where's Grandma" a comedy in three acts will be presented by the PTA on Friday evening, March 29. It was originally scheduled for March 22. The cast includes: Miss Eileen Green, Miss Thelma Reynolds, Miss Marjorie Arn, Ernest F. Gorr, Mrs. L. M. Hauptman, Miss Muriel Vickers, Miss Francisann Edwards, Loran Schuelke, and Donald Shelton. The play is directed by Mrs. A. B. Stroemer, assisted by Supt. L. M. Hauptman.

The Senior class chose the American Beauty Rose as their class flower and Red and White as their class colors. For a motto, their choice was "Strive, for at the gates of labor lies success."

"Let's Go Somewhere," a three act comedy, has been chosen by the Senior class for their annual production which will take place on Friday, April 19.

A convocation program to be given at Greenwood and Murdock is being worked out and will be given some time within the next two weeks.

Programs for the regular Tuesday morning convocations in the high school have been planned for the remainder of the year. Each high school class, two grade school groups, and the dramatic club are among the groups to give programs. S. C. Boyles will give the history of Alvo as one. Mr. Boyles has lived in the community since before the town was built. The Women's Reading Club is to have a program before the high school on May 14.

Some of the important dates for the closing of school are: April 16, All-school exhibit of work done during the year; April 19, Senior class play, "Let's Go Somewhere;" May 2, Band and public speaking class plays; May 10, May Fete; May 17, Junior-Senior banquet; May 19, Baccalaureate; May 22, Commencement; May 24, School closes.

Rev. R. J. McKenzie will deliver the baccalaureate sermon and Dr. A. V. Hunter of Wesleyan will give the commencement address.

FUNERAL OF FRANK PEHANEK

From Thursday's Daily
The funeral service of the late Frank Pehaneck who died suddenly Sunday afternoon were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Sattler funeral home at Fourth and Vine streets. A large number of the old time friends and neighbors were present to pay their last respect of tribute to a grand old departing friend.

The service was conducted by the C. Z. B. J. lodge of which he was a long and faithful member for many years. A number of the old and loved hymns were sung. The pallbearers were selected from the old time friends and neighbors who tenderly bore the body to Oak Hill cemetery where he is at rest.

Frank Pehaneck was born in Europe in 1865 where he was raised by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pehaneck. While there he was united in marriage to Mrs. Pehaneck who had been his helpmate through the many long years of suffering that he had endured. Later they came to America and to Nebraska and settled in Plattsmouth in a little cottage west of this city where he spent the remaining years of life. For many years Mr. Pehaneck had been in failing health and his condition was not thought so serious until the last days when he became ill and had failed quite rapidly, death taking him March 17, 1935 at the ripe age of 80 years.

Mr. Pehaneck had been a highly esteemed resident of the west part of the city, one who was well loved and respected by all who had the pleasure of knowing him, one who had been kind to everyone.

Those left to mourn the passing of this good man are the wife who resides in the west part of this city and two daughters, Mrs. W. F. Heffner of Howells and Mrs. Rose Janousek of Clarkson, as well as one step-son, Frank Kalasek of Chicago. There is also one grandchild, Frank Heffner.

The passing of the husband, father and grandfather comes as a great shock to the many members of the family and who greatly miss Mr. Pehaneck.

SMASH AN AUTO THEFT RING

Oklahoma City.—A detective disguised as a popcorn vendor is credited with smashing an auto theft ring which defied detection for weeks while twelve cars were stolen from the state capitol grounds and a hospital. Detectives decided the thieves recognized them because when their vigilance was relaxed another car would vanish. So—R. S. Worthy became a popcorn vendor. Friday night three men were under arrest in connection with the thefts.

The "liquid test" ...It ENDS bowel worries for many people

This is a test that tells you whether the system needs a cathartic change. If you have constant sluggish spells or sitious attacks, and laxatives seem to make things worse, it would be wise to try this:

Stop all use of any laxative that does not encourage variation from a "fixed dose" (which may be entirely too large a dose for your individual need). Use instead, a liquid laxative that you can measure and regulate as to dose. As necessary to repeat, take smaller doses, less and less often, until the bowels are moving without any help at all.

Doctors use liquid laxatives, and a properly prepared liquid laxative, containing natural laxative agents like senna and cascara is a joy and a comfort; a real help in establishing regularity. Ask your doctor about this! (Doctors use liquid laxatives.) You can get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a most dependable liquid laxative, at any drug store.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Mrs. A. J. Tool was spending a number of days last week at the home of Mrs. George Work and family.

A. H. Ward was looking after some business matters in both Greenwood and Ashland on last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were over to Lincoln on last Thursday where they went to look after some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Humphrey of Lincoln were visiting in Murdock last Sunday and were guests while here of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool.

Albert Bauer and Morgan Shatto were over to Plattsmouth last Tuesday where they were looking after some business matters at the court house.

Bert Muenchau and wife of Eagle were visiting for the day on last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Muenchau, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Buck. All enjoyed a very fine visit.

Last week Dr. L. D. Lee was somewhat sick for a number of days, but recovered quite rapidly and is caring for his extensive practice. The fact is a doctor cannot afford to be sick during these times.

Mrs. W. T. Weddell who has been at the hospital at Lincoln for some time where she has been receiving treatment and underwent an operation, is reported as getting along nicely at this time.

Charles L. Long who is a member of the band at Weeping Water, was a visitor there last Wednesday where he went to band rehearsal. Dr. Kunkel is the instructor of the hand and he knows his business.

C. B. Helmers of Omaha, who it will be remembered was an employe of the Bank of Murdock before its closing, and who has been making his home in Omaha, was in Murdock last week looking after some business affairs.

Mrs. Carl Kupke who has been in not the very best of health for some time past, having repeated attacks of appendicitis, went to the hospital early last week where she underwent an operation and is reported as getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Lennie Lau were in Omaha last Wednesday where they were making purchases for the beauty shop which is conducted by Mrs. Lau. They were accompanied by Mrs. Velma Smaha, she having some business to look after there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kupke were over to Omaha last Friday where they went to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Elsie Bohlsen and were accompanied home Monday by their grandson, Donald Bohlsen who is remaining with the grandparents for the week.

Married at Syracuse.

Miss Adelis B. Kepler, daughter of Wm. Kepler, residing southwest of Avoca and Loran Kirtchhoff residing in the same neighborhood, were united in marriage at the pavilion at Syracuse where also there was a dance given in their honor. Both parties are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dean and who has an invitation to attend the wedding and dance but it was so they could not get away.

Home from Hospital.

Mrs. Ray Gamlin who has been at the hospital for some time past where she underwent an operation, was so far improved that last week she was able to return home, although far from her former good health. Miss Opal Coster of Alvo is staying at the home where she is caring for Mrs. Gamlin until she is feeling better. The many friends are hoping that she may soon be completely recovered.

Hold School Caucus.

A school caucus for nominating candidates for the board of education for the consolidated school of Murdock, was held last week. Four were placed in nomination of which two will be elected, O. C. Zink, Will Stock, Charles Buell and Frank A. Melvin.

Taken to Hospital.

Mrs. Louis Wendt who has been troubled a great deal with appendicitis, was taken to the hospital last Thursday where she underwent an operation, following which she is reported as getting along nicely. Her many friends are hoping she may soon be back in her former good health.

Supplied at Weeping Water.

There is at this time a series of revival meetings being conducted at the Methodist church at Union and the Rev. E. S. Pangborn of the Weeping Water and Nehawka Methodist churches, has been assisting with the work at Union. His friend L. Neitzel was over to Weeping Water last Sunday and supplied in the services while Rev. Pangborn was at Union.

Speaking to Brotherhood.

On account of the storm last week the meeting of the Brotherhood of the Congregation church at Weeping Water was postponed and is being held this evening. Mr. L. Neitzel of Murdock is the principal speaker for the evening. There will be plenty of music and a general good time, socially and at the table they are to have a banquet.

Linger Longer Club.

On Friday, March 22, the Linger Longer extension club met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Brakbage for their last meeting.

Nearly all of the members were present at roll call. Election of officers for the coming year was held. Those elected were as follows: Leaders, Bernice McCrory, Marjorie Zink; President, Mrs. Elma Gerbeling; Vice-President, Mrs. Katherine Munford; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. May Eislisee; News Reporter, Della McCrory.

A song period was held after which the project leaders took charge of the lesson on "Safety in the Home."

Group achievement day is to be held at the school house on April 23 at 8:00 p. m.

Our first meeting for next year is to be held at the home of Mrs. Lillian Golden.—News Reporter.

Home from the Hospital.

Ed F. Brunkow who has been sick for a number of weeks and who was at the hospital for some time following an operation was improving so rapidly that he was permitted to return home last week and is steadily gaining. His many friends are pleased to know of his improvement.

Enjoyed Pleasant Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ward entertained one day last week and had as their guests for a six o'clock dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gustin and son, Jimmie, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Theil, jr., and family. The evening was spent in games and other amusements and a most excellent dinner was served. All voted Mr. and Mrs. Ward excellent entertainers.

Receive News of Baby's Death.

Mr. and Mrs. William Knaup of Murdock received word of the birth of a little son, Lyle Vernon, to their daughter, Mrs. Robert Chestnut of Billings, Oklahoma, on Monday, March 18th. Mrs. Chestnut was formerly Miss Verna Knaup. Later, however, they received the sad news of the baby's death late Thursday evening. Miss Opal Knaup, who is a graduate of the Evangelical Covenant hospital of Omaha, has been caring for her sister and the baby. Mrs. Chestnut is getting along as well as could be expected.

LOCALS TAKE CONTEST

The Savoy-Krug basketball quintet last evening cleaned up on the Glenwood all star aggregation at the local gym by the score of 58 to 46, the locals seeking revenge for several past defeats that they had sustained at the hands of the Iowans.

The locals were leading from the first of the contest, Arn and Donat being the point getters for the Plattsmouth group, while a field goal by Hatcher, star of the visitors, kept them in the scoring list.

The Savoy's continued their scoring in the second period and in which all of the local participated to leave the score at the half time as 24 to 10 for the Savoy's and who maintained their lead until the end of the contest.

In the last half Coffman, Donat and Knofficek were the backbone of the Plattsmouth offensive, while Hatcher served as the bright spot in the Glenwood lineup, scoring seven baskets for the visitors.

The box score of the game was as follows:

Savoy-Krug—
Arn, f	FG	FT	PF	TP
Rummel, f	4	0	2	8
Rhoades, f	3	0	1	6
Donat, c	1	0	0	2
