the pupils of her room on a hike Friday afternoon, April 19. They went to the Dowd farm south of town, and there enjoyed a good old fashioned wicker roast, as well as having an abundance of toasted marshmallows to top off their supper. The roasting and toasting was done around a huge bonfire. After enjoying their eats, the members of the party joined in playing various games. It was a late hour when they returned home, having had a most enjoyable outing.

Made Flying Trip to Kansas
Ed Bell received word last week of the serious illness of his sister, who resides at Colby, Kansas, and immediately he and Mrs. Bell left for the bedside of the patient. They made the trip down there in one day and remained until the sister was feeling better, when they drove back in one day. Mr. Bell does not have much good to say about northwestern Kansas, as he says it is mostly all blown away, with dirt drifts everywhere and no rain or moisture of any kind.

Many Get Jobs on O Street
The paving of some five miles of O street from the Elmwood corner east is affording work for a large number of west and central Cass county men, as the contractors have two shifts going and are hurrying up the job in order to get done as quick as possible and move their equipment elsewhere, where they have another job.

Among those from Greenwood who are working there are George Trunkeholz, James Bright, Warren Ellison, Johnnie Gundinger, Reuel Mick, Zane Blauvelt, Ross Casey and John Meyers.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, May 2, at the home of Mrs. N. O. Coleman, being another one o'clock luncheon.

Entertained L. C. C. Kensington
Mrs. Harry Schroeder entertained the members of the L. C. C. Kensington at her home in Ashland at a one o'clock luncheon on Friday afternoon, April 19. There were five tables of players present. After the luncheon, the afternoon was spent playing Five Hundred. Mrs. Everett Cope won the prize for the highest score and Mrs. E. A. Landon won the second highest prize.

Spent Pleasant Evening
A number of neighbors and friends went to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Abbott on Friday evening, April 19, for a very pleasant informal get-together party. The time was spent socially and in getting better acquainted. A delicious luncheon was served before the hour of departure.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Grady and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Grady and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Walradt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brunckow, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mathis and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Leesley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Conley and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marlow.

Bazaar Very Successful
The cemetery association bazaar last Saturday in the Masonic hall basement proved very successful. A large crowd was present and everything sold well. The fancy work sales totaled $12.80; food sales, $25.11; dues, $34.50; candy, $14.25, making a total of $86.66 netted that day. There are still a few more dues to come in which will add to the proceeds.

The ladies wish to thank everyone who helped to make the bazaar the success it proved to be.

SHOWER FOR FRIENDS
On Monday evening, April 22nd, about ninety relatives and members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Evangelical church at Murdock, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Schewepe to give a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brand who were married recently at Grand Island, Neb. They received many useful presents. The evening was spent in a social manner by the playing of various games, and the tableting of a wedding fifty years ago; one wedding twenty-five years ago, and also a modern wedding. These were filled with much humor, and evoked much laughter. A very delicious lunch was served by the various ladies and all wished Mr. and Mrs. Brand much joy and happiness in their wedded life.

Senior Sneak Day Observed
The Senior class of the Greenwood school selected last Wednesday as their sneak day and slipped away, leaving but one grade in the high school, the eleventh, and hardly enuf to keep the teachers busy. The ninth and tenth grades were in Omaha on an observation tour, but we were unable to learn just where the Seniors went, although we are advised they had a wonderful time and were on the go through out the day.

Selling Corn from Cribs
The Miller Cereal company disposed of some 12,000 bushels of corn in their cribs at Greenwood to Simon Rehmeier, of Alvo, which he had shelled by the Meyers brothers and looked after by Rex Peters. Mr. Rehmeier sold 10,000 bushels of the grain to a man near Martel and has disposed of the other 2,000 bushels in small lots to different parties. All of the grain was delivered by truck.

A large amount of corn has also been disposed of to parties living near Fairbury, by Mr. Rehmeier, who purchased an additional 12,000 bushels of the Miller Cereal company from their cribs in Alvo.

The shelling of this vast amount of corn has produced a lot of cobs, which are also a rather scarce article this year. Corn will continue to get more scarce up to the time of harvesting the 1935 crop.

Sophomores Entertain Seniors
The Sophomore class of the Greenwood high school entertained the members of the Senior class and the teachers at a party Thursday evening of last week at the school house. The time was spent playing games, after which a delicious lunch was served. The Seniors were loud in praise of the Sophomores, whom they declared to be royal entertainers.

Brotherhood Has Meeting
The Brotherhood of the Methodist church held their regular meeting on Thursday evening of last week at the church with a goodly number of the members present. A quartet from the Nebraska Wesleyan university gave several selections. The rest of the time was spent socially. Verle Marsh,

GAINED 20 POUNDS IN TWO MONTHS
"Up to two months ago my stomach was in such a bad condition I could not even take a cup of coffee in the morning without being in distress for two or three hours. I bought a bottle of your Emulsion and it helped me from the start, so much so that people thought something had happened to me all of a sudden."

"Since then I have used six bottles and now I can get up in the morning and eat corned beef and cabbage, my stomach is in such good condition."
—E. H. Knobloch, 1955 Lincoln Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Milks Emulsion restores healthy, natural bowel action.
This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Wonderful for weak, sickly children. You are urged to try Milks Emulsion. Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Wabash News

Henry Crozier, of Weeping Water, was looking after some business matters in Wabash last Tuesday afternoon.

Guy Hinds has been rebuilding the fence and making a gate at the home of Miss Myrtle Woods, adding to the general appearance of the property.

Louis Reese and Lloyd Richards were at Elkhorn last week, where they received a position working on the highway, remaining there to begin work at once.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Standley were enjoying a visit on Easter Sunday at the home of David Patterson, on the farm northeast of Weeping Water where Mr. Standley lived when a boy.

The Ladies Aid society met last week at the home of Mrs. Marie Golden, where they all enjoyed their get-together. The meeting was climaxed with the serving of delicious refreshments.

Members of the Wabash church were guests at the Easter service at the Callahan church, at which there were a large number present. A splendid discourse was rendered by Rev. C. F. Weber, pastor of the two churches.

Clifford Barley and family, who have been making their home in Lincoln, have been visiting here for a short time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gerbeling, and while here Mrs. Barley has been making garden at the Gerbeling home.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman, of Union, was looking after some county affairs in Wabash last Tuesday morning, driving over from his home town in his car. He also went to other points in this part of the county before returning home.

Bert Barden and family, who have been making their home north of Wabash, moved to town Saturday and are residing in the Modern Woodmen hall. Mr. Barden has been living in the neighborhood north of town for some time, working for farmers in that part of the county.

Send Supplies to Orphanage
The Ladies Aid of the church at Wabash last week sent two cases of fresh eggs to the orphan home in Omaha, which they had collected among themselves and by having others bring them in. The eggs were greatly enjoyed by the children at the institution, who were all grateful to their ladies for being so thoughtful of their welfare.

Finds Ancient Coin
While David Patterson was working in the field on the farm northeast of Weeping Water he found a 50 cent piece bearing the date 1832. On the coin was stamped its value and also along the edge extending part way around it were stamped the letters "FIFTY CENTS." It looks as though this piece should command a good price from the coin collector.

MEET WITH MIXED WEATHER
Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr returned Wednesday night from a visit with relatives at Hastings, having an experience with a mixed variety of weather on their trip. On their way out on Monday they ran into one of the worst dust storms that has been experienced in that part of the state, the dust being so dense that driving was a real problem. Tuesday night that section was visited by a seven inch rain, one of the heaviest that has been experienced in a number of years in Adams and adjoining counties. The rain was so heavy that water flowed over the highway between Hastings and Harvard and traffic was held up in Hastings owing to the high water to the east. Railroad traffic was also interfered with by the heavy rain. The rain was most welcome, however, as it protends the end of a two year drouth in the central section of the state.

HAVE INTERESTING MEETING
The Auxiliary of the St. Luke's church were entertained on Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Dora Fricke and with a pleasing number of the members in attendance. The Auxiliary has collected 100 handkerchiefs and which are to be sent to the St. John's mission school at Platteock, North Carolina, for the distribution among the children.

The next meeting will be a memorial for the departed members and will be one at which all members are urged to be in attendance and assist in the tributes.

Mrs. James H. Herold, of Lincoln, was a guest of the Auxiliary and met a large number of the old time friends.

Miss Fricke served delicious refreshment at the close of the afternoon.

SUFFERS BROKEN LEG

George Edminson was severely injured Friday afternoon at his work on the Missouri river improvement project south of this city. A large pile was being swung into place when it struck Mr. Edminson on the right leg, the blow being a very severe one and which resulted in the fracture of both bones of the leg. The injured man was taken to the office of Dr. L. S. Pucelik where temporary aid was given and he was then hurried on into Omaha where the leg was set and the injured man will be cared for at the hospital.

The family has suffered a great deal from illness and affliction in the past several months as their little daughter was one of those suffering from meningitis some two months ago.
