SUFFERS FROM ILLNESS

A. W. Farmer, clerk in the office of Judge A. H. Duxbury and one of the young members of the Cass county bar, is at home wrestling with the annoying malady of the mumps. Mr. Farmer was not feeling so well Monday and this morning on arising it was found that he was afflicted with the malady that has been prevailing in so many homes in this section.

SAFETY COUNCIL AWARD

New York.—The national safety council's "class A" award for railway employe safety work was awarded to George B. Vilas, vice president and general manager of the Northwestern railway.

Miss Mary Zitka of Omaha, was here Sunday to spend a few hours visiting with her mother, Mrs. Anna Zitka and other members of the family circle.

AVOCA NEWS

George Trook, the caretaker of the Avoca schools with the closing of the school year, completed nine years service as janitor and caretaker of the school property.

R. Davis and wife and their daughter of Sioux City, Iowa, were spending Mother's day at the home of Mrs. Derham on last Sunday and all enjoyed the gathering very pleasantly.

George Shackley, the painter and decorator, is decorating and putting in the very best of condition the home of Thomas Straub, Mr. Straub being among the first to get his home in order for the spring.

James E. Everett and family of Lincoln were spending last Sunday in Avoca, guests at the Rachel Everett home where they were spending Mother's day with mother and also with other members of the family.

John Ehlers and wife, former residents of Avoca and vicinity but at this time making their home at Bertrand, were here for the closing of the schools and as well remaining for over Mother's day to enjoy the day and a good dinner with the mothers.

Superintendent Lawrence Larson of the Avoca schools, Marius Nelson, Henry Maseman and Henry Bolter composed a party of citizens of Avoca who went to Plattsmouth last Friday to look after some business matters concerning the installation of electric lights for the night ball diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hennings were over to Louisville last Sunday where they were celebrating the day with their respective mothers, Mrs. John Gauer, who recently moved from the farm into Louisville and Mrs. N. C. Hennings who resides on the farm. They all enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Avoca Schools Have Closed.

With last week the school of Avoca closed and the students are at liberty after their nine months of study and work in the crowded school rooms and are out in the open until the coming of the school for the coming year in September. The banquets are over, the commencement exercises have been concluded, the oratory has subsided and the city is going on in its normal way. Large crowds and much interest was the feature of the past week with the governor of the state making the last address to the students who were concluding their studies for the time. Many from away from Avoca were here for the last days and to see their friends and relatives graduate and get out into the world for active service.

Ready for Kittenball.

The Civic Improvement club of Avoca have been making good progress in their preparing of the ball field for night games. They have just received six tall polls, all over fifty feet in length which they just had set at the school grounds and are now installing the flood lights for the lighting of the field, which is to feature the amusement of the people for the summer season. You may look for many good ball games during the coming summer.

Celebrated Mother's Day.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kokjer on last Sunday evening was held a very pleasant gathering celebrating mother's day when the daughters, three sisters, Mesdames John Ehlers, Henry Maseman and John Kokjer with their families enjoyed the day with the mother of the daughters, and say did they have a good time as well as a good supper.

Many Attend Alumni Banquet.

Some hundred and fifty of the former students of the Avoca schools and their friends gathered for the annual alumni banquet which was held last Friday night, and a hungry crowd they were at that, for everything was eaten up with the single exception of the cake for there was an abundance of that.

Pollards Visit in Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pollard now residing near Nehawka, but Mr. Pollard being a former business man of Avoca were visiting with friends in and near Avoca for the day on last Monday.

Enjoyed Birthday Anniversary.

The birthday of George Shackley came last Sunday and was enjoyed very pleasantly when the good wife prepared a dinner for him and his friends.

Sunday With Mother.

Mrs. Anna Meyers of Avoca was pleasantly surprised when last Sunday, Mother's day, her daughter, Miss Clara Meyers of Lincoln and Mrs. Ella Barker of Murray, where she is manager of the telephone exchange, accompanied by her daughter, ters, came to Avoca and spent the day with mother and as well enjoyed a very fine dinner.

Visiting in the North.

Robert L. Probst of Florida who has been visiting for a short time at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elmer J. Hallstrom of Avoca, in company with Mrs. Hallstrom and the kiddies departed for Mitchell, South Dakota, where they are spending some ten days at the home of a sister of Mrs. Hallstrom, Mrs. Maude Test and family of that place. The people of that section are greatly encouraged, for they say that not for many years has the prospects for a good crop been so favorable as this year.

Gathered in Avoca.

K. V. White and wife of Louisville with the mother of Mrs. White and also who is mother of Mrs. Fred Marquardt, Mrs. Burdella Stander, came to Avoca on last Sunday, and with Mrs. L. J. Marquardt, mother of Fred, all enjoyed the day and a very fine dinner at the Fred Marquardt home, where the two mothers were signally honored.
