Pretty Home Wedding is Held at Louisville

Miss Florence Shogren Married to Rev. C. Loyd Shubert, Pastor of Murray Christian Church.

At a home wedding attended only by the members of the two families and a few intimate friends, Miss Florence Shogren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shogren, became the bride of C. Loyd Shubert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shubert of Craig, Missouri, at 3:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. S. Reel, pastor of the Christian church of Pawnee City, Nebraska, officiated. The impressive double ring ceremony was used.

Mrs. David Shogren, aunt of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied on the piano by Miss Ruth Shogren, sister of the bride, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white crepe with a ruffled cape of the same material. The bridal veil of illusion was draped from a wreath of orange blossoms and the bridal bouquet was a shower of Talisman roses and sweet peas.

Miss Margaret Shogren, sister of the bride, and her only attendant, wore a gown of turquoise blue taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses. Mr. James Hoschar of Murray acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a lovely luncheon was served by the mother of the bride. The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Joe Schmader, aunt of the bride. Misses Ruth and Esther Shogren and Charlotte Schmader acted as waitresses.

Both of the young people are well known in this community. The bride has been a successful teacher for five years in the rural schools of Cass county. Mr. Shubert is minister of the Christian church at Murray and teaches the Lewiston school southeast of Murray. The young couple will make their home in the parsonage at Murray.
