Many Scouts Attend Court of Honor Here

Auburn, Peru, Nebraska City, Nehawka and Louisville Represented in the Awards.

A greater number of Boy Scouts than have attended any recent Court of Honor in Arbor Lodge district, were here last night for the bi-monthly distribution of awards for advancement in rank and merit badges. The total number of towns represented was only six, but each furnished a goodly number of boys, accounting for the fact that there were fifteen in the group advanced to second class Scouts, ten of them from Nebraska City. The three Plattsmouth boys to receive this honor were Vernon Long, Allen Persinger and Stewart Rylander.

In the first class awards, Nebraska City again led the field, with a total of seven out of nine. The only local boy receiving this advancement was John Kenneth Bestor.

The highest award presented by the Court was the silver palm, presented to Burrell H. Adams, of Nehawka, who has now qualified for a total of thirty-six merit badges, or fifteen since he became an Eagle Scout about a year and a half ago. The presentation of this distinguished award was made by Supt. Stimbort, of Nehawka, Scoutmaster of the troop there.

Two Plattsmouth Scouts were advanced to the Star rank, which is first in line above a first class Scout. They are George Mark and James Webb. The other Star award went to Wesley Stone, of Nehawka.

Thirty-two merit badge awards were presented to Scouts from Auburn, Nehawka, Louisville, Peru, and Plattsmouth, the local boys receiving the lion's share of these with a total of twenty-two, as follows: Stephen Davis, Bird Study, Beef Production, Cement Work and Music; Billy Evers, Bookbinding, Farm Home, Handicraft and Reading; John Rishel, Public Health, Farm Home and Civics; Burton Rishel, Bird Study, Farm Home and Handicraft; Bill Rosencrans, Photography and Reading; John Tidball, Firemanship and First Aid to Animals; John Cloldt, Pathfinding; James Sandin, Personal Health; Warren Reed, Scholarship, and Phillip Rosencrans, First Aid to Animals.

The program was opened with a presentation of some of the many uses of the Scout kerchief, presented by a group of Plattsmouth Scouts under direction of Scoutmaster Raymond Larson. Following this, Billy Evers, a member of the local troop, presented two violin numbers, accompanied by E. H. Wescott.

By the time this part of the program was over, the Board of Review had completed its examination of the various candidates for advancement, and conduct of the Court of Honor ceremonies was turned over to E. H. Wescott, vice president of the Arbor Lodge district, who acted as chairman in the absence of District Advancement Director M. R. Shrader, of Nebraska City, whose duties of superintendent of schools prevented his attendance at the meeting.

Mr. Wescott introduced Lee Harbottle, assistant Scout executive of the Cornhusker area, who is soon to leave for Sioux Falls, to become chief executive of that area, comprising 34 counties, 28 of which are in South Dakota and six in Minnesota. He paid a tribute to the splendid work of Mr. Harbottle in advancing Scouting and as the man who had been largely responsible for the success of the re-

Mr. Wescott traced the growth of the Scouting movement, which this year attains its twenty-fifth or silver anniversary. During the first five year period, the average membership was 186,000, whereas there are now registered in the United States a total of 1,904,629 Scouts. The Scout handbook, most widely sold book save the Holy Bible, has now passed the five million mark, the five millionth copy of this instructive and educational manual having but recently been presented to President Roosevelt, who is honorary chairman of Scouting.

Following the presentation of the various awards, Mr. Wescott introduced the different Scoutmasters and troop committee members who occupied places on the stage and a brief outline of the local Scout situation, as regards the need for organizing a second troop here and the shortage of funds to meet the Plattsmouth assessment of dues to the Cornhusker area due to failure of "150 Club" members to pay their dollar membership fee for 1935, was presented by the chairman of the local troop committee, Elmer Webb.

The meeting was closed by the singing of a stanza of the Star Spangled Banner, by Mrs. E. H. Wescott.

Following this, the Scouters held a short business session, accepting the invitation of Nebraska City to entertain the next Court of Honor in July. It is planned to make this an open air court, if weather does not prevent, as it did here.

Stress was also laid on the importance of attendance at the second annual Scouters' conference to be held at Camp Kiwanis, near Milford, June 1 and 2, at which time Plattsmouth hopes to be able to present its full per capita assessment of $90 dues to the Cornhusker area. Practically all of the other towns in the Arbor Lodge district have already paid their assessment for 1935, and Plattsmouth, which was among the first in last year, stands to be among the last this year unless greater response is received to the appeal for the payment of dues by "150 Club" members.

It was regretted that Assistant Scoutmaster J. R. Reeder was unable to be present, as he has been under the weather the past few days.

POLICY REJECTIONS GAIN

Kansas City.—Dr. Henry Cook, vice president and medical director of a life insurance company said the percentage of unfavorable reports on insurance policies under $25,000 had increased from 10 percent in 1929 to 16 percent last year. He spoke before the midwest conference of the life office management association, the research group of the insurance business, in conference here.

Doctor Cook said depression conditions have caused worry which has led to the use of more coffee and tobacco, and in many cases to the drinking of more liquor.

IN TURKEY BUSINESS

Glenn Woodbury, district court reporter, will try his luck at turkey raising this summer at his home on South Third street. Mr. Woodbury has erected a wire covered pen and next week will receive a consignment of 50 young turkeys. If everything goes right he will increase the number to 100 later. White and bronze varieties will be raised.—Nebraska City News-Press.

ATTACKED WITH A HAMMER

Big Spring, Tex.—Mark A. Sarver, oil field worker, was near death in a hospital from hammer blows while Sheriff George Ratliff held Sarver's wife whom the officer described as suddenly deranged. John Sarver, 12, one of the couple's six children, suffered minor injuries when, Sheriff Ratliff said, he and a sister, Leona, 19, wrested the hammer from their mother. Sarver was attacked while he slept.
