MANLEY NEWS

August Pautsch, of Louisville, was a business visitor in Manley on last Tuesday and enjoyed meeting a large number of his friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyers and the family, of near Avoca, were visiting for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Scheehan last Saturday.

Teddy Harms and Andrew Schlieffert were called to Plattsmouth last Tuesday afternoon, looking after some matters of business there for a short time.

Mrs. Oscar Dowler entertained a group of lady friends from Weeping Water on Tuesday of last week. A very pleasant afternoon was had, climaxed with the serving of delicious refreshments.

Walter Mockenhaupt had the misfortune to lose one of his valuable horses. The loss is most untimely as this is the season of the year when one has need of every available horse to keep up with the farm work.

Rev. Father Patrick Harte and George Rau made a trip out beyond Lincoln last week, Father Harte having a speaking date at York, and Mr. Rau going on to Utica, his former home, where he will remain for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. McDonald and Mrs. Walter Mockenhaupt were in Murdock last Tuesday afternoon, the ladies attending a meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America while Mr. McDonald was looking after some business matters and visiting with friends.

Buskirk, of Scottsbluff, a sister of Mrs. Steinkamp, was also here for a few days, but has returned to her home in the western part of the state.

Boys will be Boys

Some of the fun loving folks of Manley in some way managed to attach a surprise torpedo to the motor of Joe Johnson's car, and when he started the engine there was a whistling noise, a loud explosion and a lot of dense smoke. Joe took the surprise good naturedly, got out and examined the car, removing the torpedo from one of the spark plugs and drove on home, enjoying the excitement fully as much as the onlookers.

Young Folks Guests at Dance

Friday evening of last week, May 17, a party of young people from the vicinity of Manley went to Plattsmouth to attend a social dance given by the Sodality of St. John's Catholic church. All enjoyed a most pleasant time. Those in attendance were Norma Wilte, Sue Mockenhaupt, John and Ellen Kelly, Leo Marks and Gladys Hohman, Loretta Elan, Rose, Kathryn and Eddie Sheehan.

Royal Neighbors Meet

The members of the Royal Neighbors of America had a meeting scheduled for last Monday afternoon at the hall in Manley, but some one had hung the key to the hall behind the door and it was not found, so the ladies went to the home of Mrs. Oscar Dowler, where they enjoyed the afternoon with card games and surely had a good time.

Married in the West

Announcement has been received here from Los Angeles of the recent marriage of Herman Harms. A note attached to the announcement stated that a letter would follow soon telling more about the wedding, when this arrives we will be glad to give our readers the further particulars. In the meantime, we join with friends of Mr. Harms in wishing the newlyweds happiness and success as they journey through life together.

Sure Enjoyed New Bicycle

Little Millie Auerwald was made very happy when her father presented her with a new bicycle, and as a way of expressing her joy, invited her little girl friends to enjoy riding the new wheel. The little girls took turns going around the block and all enjoyed their rides.

Herman Dall at Home

Herman Dall, who was injured and had his car damaged when struck by a street car in Omaha as he was backing from a parking space, after remaining in the hospital for some time, was able to return home last week and is getting along fairly well, but has to visit Dr. L. D. Lee at Murdock every day for treatment and examination. The many friends of Mr. Dall are hoping that he may soon be entirely recovered from his injuries.

GERMAN PASTOR ARRESTED

Berlin.—Universal disappointment was voiced by confessional church circles that Reichsfuehrer Hitler, in his reichstag address, failed to extend an olive branch for an end to the German church dispute.

Instead, the Berlin committee of the confessional synod said, evidence has come that interference with its members is increasing.

At Breslau, Rev. Mr. Dunzel, head of the confessional movement in Silesia, was reported to have been arrested because he refused to obey a police order banning him from Silesia.

SIX DIE IN FREAK CRASH

Canton, China.—Six men were killed and forty-four injured in a freak airplane accident at the Canton military aviation field Tuesday. One of three airplanes in formation flew too low. It smashed into a building, killing the pilot instantly. The wall fell in upon forty-nine soldiers listening to a lecture. Five were fatally injured.

Work-relief money should be spent only on worth-while projects that will be of benefit to the greatest number.

ETHIOPIA WARNS LEAGUE

Geneva.—Ethiopia warned the League of Nations, now considering her dispute with Italy, that she would yield neither "to Italian intimidation nor Italian violence."

Emperor Selassie's latest communication was read by the council at the end of the day's session which saw Ethiopia formally charged with maintaining slavery and the slave traffic. Baron Pompeo Aloisi, the Italian delegate, made the charge.

The day also served to emphasize the difficulties confronting Capt. Anthony Eden, British lord privy seal, and Pierre Laval, French foreign minister, who are seeking ways to settle the frontier dispute outside the league halls.

In contrast to Ethiopia's insistence that the league deal with the conflict, Eden and Laval faced Italy's open unwillingness to submit to this procedure.

Alaskan Settlers to Draw Lots for Land

Matanuska Valley Colonists to Determine Location of Their Farms Thru Chance.

Palmer, Alaska.—A lottery in which nobody can lose, every participant to receive forty acres of rich land, was being arranged for the settlers of the Matanuska valley. Arrangements for the "sure thing" drawing under government auspices were started as more than 600 new colonists from Michigan and Wisconsin arrived in the new agricultural empire to start life anew.

Their arrival brought the permanent population of the colony to about 850, not including some 600 transients destined to return to the United States as soon as the settlers have been given a start in pioneering under the midnight sun.

Location is the only issue to be settled by the drawings, which probably will take place in a day or two. Some families will draw acreages adjacent to Palmer, the community center.

Others will find themselves as much as ten miles out of town, depending on their luck in the draw.

The newest, and for the present, the last contingent of colonists reached Alaska soil at Seward, arriving there from Seattle on the army transport St. Mihel. The men of the new group entrained at once for Palmer, involving a 125 mile rail journey to be here in time for the drawings.

Already the location of the forty acre tracts has been nearly completed and each has been staked out by Ross L. Sheely, of the University of Alaska extension service and his assistants, who began work the first week in April. The snow was hardly off the ground at that time.

The tracts are much the same, with stands of wood on nearly all of them, on a rolling plain. Scattered over a wide area, some are as far as ten miles from the newly formed community center here. Several creeks and small rivers run thru the valley.

CAN CARRY PASSENGERS

Washington.—The commerce department announced the Hanford Tri-State airplanes can restore passenger service on all their lines at midnight after about a fortyday suspension. During the suspension, the Hanford lines have been carrying mail and express on their lines, operating principally between Minneapolis, St. Paul and Bismarck, N. D., Sioux Falls, Omaha, Sioux City and Kansas City. The commerce department announced inspectors had satisfied themselves the air company's management had revamped its old operation and maintenance procedure completely.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that poison the system when retained. Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, getting up at night, swollen limbs; feel nervous, miserable—all upset.

Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any drugist.

Labor Backs Roosevelt on NRA Extension

President, Unions Join Hands in Militant Drive; Wagner Disputes Bill is Endorsed.

Washington.—President Roosevelt and organized labor joined hands Friday in a militant campaign to put over a two-year national recovery act extension and enactment of the Wagner labor disputes act.

This was the first time the chief executive has endorsed the Wagner bill against which industry has bitterly protested.

Roosevelt first made known his views to senate and house leaders in a White House conference. He said he was opposed to the 10-month extension provided by the resolution adopted by the senate.

Then he called in William Green, American Federation of Labor president, and John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers president, and had them sit with administration officials in drafting legislation.

Harmonize Bills. The work of "harmonizing" the two bills was done in an outer office. Those present also included Secretary of Labor Perkins, Senator Wagner (D.), New York, and several NRA board members, including Chairman Donald R. Rieberg. Leaving the conference, Green said:

"It is my opinion the president is sympathetic and friendly to the act sponsored by Senator Wagner."

To senate and house leaders Roosevelt outlined this NRA plan:

1. Extension to April 1 or June 16, 1937—that is, 21½ months or two years.

2. Prohibition against price-fixing as provided in the senate resolution.

3. Removal of codes on businesses "substantially affecting interstate commerce. The senate resolution limited codes to interstate commerce.

4. Three months to revise codes instead of one month as provided by the senate.

House leaders gave assurance the committee will report out a bill substantially as the president desires. The house may pass it Wednesday.

The chief executive was warned, however, that a prolonged fight faces the proposed two-year extension in the senate. Threats of filibuster were being made by senators who are determined to fight against anything more than a 10-month extension.

Strike Threat.

Green's threat of a general strike, made at a labor mass meeting in New York Thursday night, was reiterated as he appeared as a witness before the house ways and means committee Friday.

The labor leader said: "I meant just what I said. Everyone knows we've got the strength to put a national strike over."

Green called for support of the 30-hour week and Wagner labor dispute bills in congress.

RAINS SWELL RESERVOIRS

Scottsbluff, Neb.—Water is flowing into the Pathfinder dam at the rate of 2,800 acre feet per day, T. W. Perry, manager of the Pathfinder irrigation district, said Wednesday.

At the Guernsey dam recent cloudbursts and rains have swelled the flow to 3,600 acre feet per day, he said. So great has been the increase water is now being let down to Lake Minatare, storage lake near Minatare, so that no water will be lost if the Guernsey reservoir overflows, Perry said.

Storage at the Pathfinder Wednesday was 165,830 acre feet, compared to 329,820 acre feet at the same time last year. Outflow on May 20, 1934, was 2,930 second feet, but Wednesday there was no outflow at the dam, nor was there any likely to be needed for irrigation purposes for some time, because of recent rains. In the last two days precipitation at the Pathfinder dam has totaled .73 inches and at the Guernsey dam, one inch.

Storage at the Guernsey dam is rapidly approaching the total of the same time last year. Wednesday there were 42,920 acre feet in the dam, compared to 54,820 acre feet last year. Its capacity is 70,000 acre feet. The Pathfinder's capacity is 1,070,000 acre feet.

Visiting Father

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stromer were in Wabash last Saturday and while there papered one of the rooms at the home of John C. Browne, father of Mrs. Stromer. Thus the father was saved the work or expense and at the same time enjoyed a pleasant visit with his daughter and husband.

Attended Memorial Services

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Banning were in Union Memorial Sunday and listened to the services at the Wyoming church, at which the Rev. B. N. Kunkel, pastor of the church, was the speaker. They also visited with friends and relatives in Union and Nebraska City while there.

Helped Each Other

A. B. Stromer was scheduled to make a trip to Lincoln to take some of the young folks over for music practice, and his wife as well, but found Art Dinges contemplating a trip to get some supplies for his garage here, and so they doubled up, A. B. staying at home and looking after business at the garage while Art took the women and little Ruth Ann Ganz over, securing the necessary repair parts while there. Thus one trip accomplished what would have taken two. That's the way the boy work together in harmony.

Garrison Gets Life After Plea of Guilty

Mon Who Figured in Kaspar Case Claimed to Be Victim of Bad Companions.

Omaha.—Earnest Garrison, 21, pleaded guilty in district court late Wednesday to a second degree murder charge in connection with the slaying of Patrolman Reynold E. Wolfe in an Omaha gunfight Feb. 23 and was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor.

Garrison was taken before District Judge Yeager after Jack Hayward of Lincoln, Garrison's attorney, appeared in the office of County Attorney English and announced his client was ready to plead.

Hayward told the court that Garrison was a victim of bad companions, dating back to his association with Deryle Kirk, Omaha gunman, several years ago.

"After serving a year for theft, following his arrest with Kirk, Garrison stayed out of trouble until he met Roland Welch," Hayward said. Welch, companion of Garrison, was killed in the gunfight with Omaha police in which Officer Wolfe also was slain.

As a result of Garrison's arrest and subsequent disclosures, Dr. Joseph P. Kaspar of Prague, former state senator, is serving a one year term in the state penitentiary on a charge of receiving stolen property from Welch and Garrison.

Patrolman Charles Drehsen, who was wounded in the gunfight, is expected to return to duty shortly.
