Return to West

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Palmquist left Thursday morning for their home at Sacramento, Calif., having spent the past couple of weeks here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palmquist and family. They expected to stop at numerous places along the way and make their return trip a real sightseeing occasion.

Noticed Improvements

Otto Renwan was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Monday and was meeting with his many friends at the court house. He says he noted many improvements in the town and especially the business district since his last visit there a few years ago.

Death of Mrs. Geo. W. Squires

Goodhart Vant, the operator, who is on the extra list, was called to Fremont for a few days during the past week to relieve George W. The funeral was held last Wednesday at Fremont, where the remains were laid to rest.

Margaret Stewart Very Poorly

Miss Margaret Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stewart, has been in very poor health for some time and is confined to her bed. Although she has been visited by local physicians and a specialist from Lincoln, the cause of her illness has not as yet been definitely determined.

Attempted Burglary

Some one with little regard for the rights of others and evidently having in mind the commission of burglary, hurled a brick through the window of the North service station which is conducted by Mr. Ulstrop and daughter. The station had been closed for the night and it is not known at just what hour the window was broken, but the parties doing it evidently became frightened and left, as nothing was discovered missing.

Entertained Kensington

Mrs. Ben Howard entertained the members of the Greenwood General Kensington and the Ladies Card Club on last Thursday at her home. There were a large number of the members present and a most pleasant time was spent playing cards, after which a delicious lunch was served. All were loud in praise of the hostess for the very fine time that had been provided. Bridge was the featured card game of the afternoon.

Pleased with New Home

W. S. Karns, of Wann, was a visitor in Greenwood last Wednesday, coming down with a truck for the remainder of the goods which he had left here when they moved to Wann. After the picnic supper, Miss Leasley took the members of the class to Ashland, where they enjoyed a picture show. All returned home late in the evening, a tired but happy bunch. The members of the class extend thanks to Miss Leasley for providing them with such a splendid evening's entertainment.

Entertained Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary was entertained last Wednesday afternoon, May 15, at the home of Mrs. J. S. Gribble, with Mrs. Wm. Buck and Mrs. Al Bauers as hostesses. All the members but one were present. One new member was enrolled and there are prospects of two more joining the organization. The next meeting will be a picnic at the cabin with a picnic lunch.

Will Observe Memorial Day

At a meeting of the American Legion held Tuesday evening of last week, it was decided to observe Memorial day with services at the Methodist church during the forenoon of May 30th, and exercises at the cemetery during the afternoon. There will be a salute fired at the cemetery. The graves will be decorated by a bevy of little girls who will carry a flag and a wreath to be placed on the grave of each deceased war veteran.

Returned from Trip to Washington

As was announced briefly in these columns last week, Evan H. Armstrong returned home from a trip to Washington, where he was the Cass county member of a delegation of Nebraska farmers who went to the capitol to interview numerous government officials, even to the president himself in regard to plans for farm recovery and better agricultural conditions in the middle west. Mr. Armstrong was much impressed at the kindly manner in which President Roosevelt received the committee and the apparent strain under which he has been laboring to bring about the aims of the New Deal and restore the good times that existed a few years ago. Mr. Armstrong tells of meeting and conversing with Senator George W. Norris, Senator Borah, Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace and a goodly number of other political celebrities, most of whom are in accord with the plan of the president, and that all are willing to listen to reasonable arguments for or against any of the many proposals that have been advocated for the betterment of conditions.

The delegation had a nice trip and saw many interesting sights during their stay in the capital city.

Killed in Auto Wreck

Word was received here that Gerald Palling, son of W. E. Palling, was killed in an automobile accident at Los Angeles. Further particulars are lacking at this writing.

Former Resident Very Ill

Many of the people of Greenwood will recall when Andy Stevens was located here as one of the citizens of the town, prior to moving to New Hampton, Mo., where he has been engaged in farming for some time. Mr.

J. Howard Davis Attorney at Law Plattsmouth

Stevens was a very close friend of S. S. Petersen, our blacksmith, and they have visited back and forth numerous times since his removal from this vicinity. Mr. Petersen received a letter recently from Mr. Stevens, bearing the information that he was not in good health and that he has been at a hospital in St. Joseph for a clinical examination and X-ray pictures, which revealed that he has gall stones and an operation will be required to bring him relief. This will be performed at the hospital in St. Joseph in the near future. The many friends of Mr. Stevens trust that he will come through the ordeal successfully and that this will bring about the restoration of his health.

CITY OF BAYARD FLOODED

Bayard, Neb.—The southwest portion of this city was flooded Friday night by waters that roared down Wild Horse creek from the scene of a cloudburst nine miles north of here.

While no excessive damage was reported, Mexicans living in the lower portion of the city were forced to abandon their homes, as the water swirled to a depth of three feet around the small shacks.

A virtual lake was formed between the Bayard hotel and the Burlington railroad station. Lumber yards were inundated. Water in the creek rose from a bare trickle to twelve feet in an hour. Fred Beltner, farmer living five miles north of Bayard, said.

Residents prepared to take care of those who were forced to abandon their homes and waters were reported receding late in the night. A similar flood occurred here three weeks ago.

Less Butterfat in State Than in Normal Year

Seasonal Decline Appears—Attention Is Called to Jersey Parish Shows in June.

Butterfat production in Nebraska dairy herd improvement associations took a seasonal decline in April, the monthly dairy report by E. C. Scheidenhelm, extension dairyman at the college of agriculture, showed. Production of 29.1 pounds was up 6 percent above March, but still 6 percent below the corresponding date in the two previous years.

Cornhusker association led the state in production. Ten herds averaged 33.1 pounds fat. The Platte Valley was second and Tri-County third. The five high herds in the class of fifteen cows or less were owned by Fred A. Leibers, Bennet; E. Zeorian, Springfield; G. A. Gutsch, Columbus; E. T. Pilefik, Gresham; and C. M. Moyer, Cresco. The five high herds in the sixteen cows or more class belonged to D. D. Thayer, Monroe; Fred Eipperle, South Omaha; Donald Haggart, Grand Island; Dan Troyer, Beaver Crossing; and the Norfolk state hospital.

Scheidenhelm called attention to the Jersey "parish" shows in June, sponsored by the Nebraska Jersey Cattle club, with Don Morton of Beatrice as president. The dates: Beatrice, June 10; Hebron, June 11; York, June 12; Lincoln, June 13. M. N. Lawritson of the Nebraska college of agriculture will judge the animals. Vern Stinette is managing the Lincoln show. Guernsey breeders will hold their annual field day at the state fairgrounds July 18, and a regional show is being planned.

Associations Reorganize.

Two more dairy herd improvement associations have been reorganized in Nebraska. R. J. Berlin, Genoa, has been elected president of the Platte Valley association. LeRoy Ball, Albion, is vice president and Glen Smith, Columbus, secretary-treasurer. Directors are Gilbert Gertsch, Columbus, and H. S. Schultz, Rogers. Earl Rottler has been re-elected official tester. In the Douglas-Sarpy association, oldest of its kind in Nebraska, Henry Holling of Millard is president, Halsey Noyes, Waterloo, vice president; Harlan Peterson, Valley, secretary-treasurer. Sam Sorenson, Benson, and George A. Rohver, Benson, are directors. Orville May has been re-elected official tester.

In Lancaster County.

The Lancaster Dairy Herd Improvement association monthly report shows that 616 cows in 29 herds averaged 635 lbs. milk, 29.0 lbs. fat. The average feed consumed was 193 lbs. silage, 163 lbs. hay, 105 lbs. corn, 16 lbs. bran, 59 lbs. commercial feed, and twenty days on pasture. The feed cost was $5,999 and 21 cents worth of feed was required to produce a pound of fat.

The best individual production was by a grade Jersey owned by Con Reckling, credited with 1311 lbs. milk, 72.1 lbs. fat. The best Guernsey production was 1632 lbs. milk, 65.5 lbs. fat. This cow is a registered cow owned by B. Buhman. A registered cow owned by F. E. Orton had the best Holstein production, 2115 lbs. milk, 67.6 lbs. fat.

Nine Jerseys owned by John Blane returned $48.86 in the form of a check from the dairy in the first five days of April. Milk for calves and milk, cream and butter for the table are not included. Ripe grass is all these cows consumed.

For the last fifteen days in April, Reckling received a check from the dairy for $76.58, income from his thirteen Jerseys. Besides, about 225 pounds milk was used at home. These cows were eating six pounds of grain a day each, and were on good sweet clover pasture.

The daughter-dam production comparison of Eminent Rustic Raleigh, 231088, owned by Walnut Springs Jersey farm, has just been returned to the United States bureau of dairying, and shows that his twelve daughters averaged 8585 lbs. milk, 432 lbs. fat, while their dams averaged 7065 lbs. milk, 388 lbs. fat.

A registered Jersey owned by Hillcrest Jersey farm finished a year's record of 10,808 lbs. milk, 595 lbs. fat.

B. Buhman sold a Guernsey cow weighing 1250 lbs. at $7.50 a cwt.

$3,000,000 FORTUNE GONE Detroit.—Former Governor Comstock, whose fortune was once estimated at $3,000,000, testified at a bankruptcy hearing that he is obliged to make "a living at anything I can find to do."

"A lot of the time I have to live on my wife's income—money she inherited," Comstock told Referee Marston.

DISLIKES SPECIAL ELECTION

Omaha.—Mayor Towl asserted the liquor bill passed by the state legislature late Wednesday would cost the city an unnecessary special election but declared the bill at least would open the avenue of sale by the drink if Omahans desire it.

Earlier the mayor telegraphed a city council resolution protesting against passage of a bill that would require a vote of the people before liquor could be sold legally by the drink in the city. The cost of an election was estimated at $15,000.

The mayor said revenue derived from license fees and occupation taxes, if sale by the drink is legalized this summer, would exceed cost of a special election.

City officials estimated at least 200 places will seek liquor licenses. If sale by drink is voted here, the Omaha school board would receive approximately $25,000 in license fees and the city would realize a similar sum in added occupation taxes. In order to hold an election this summer with an appropriation available, Mayor Towl said election workers would file a friendly suit against the city and the city would confess judgment.
