Flower Day for Shut-Ins Set for June 10th

Henry Jasper of This City Local Representative of the National Florists to Direct.

Shut-ins of Plattsmouth have a real treat in store on Monday, June 10. For this date is the third annual International Flower Shut-In Day, set aside by the florists of the United States and Canada for the purpose of making permanently disabled men, women and children happy with gifts of fragrant June flowers.

Announcement that the florists of this city had banded together to take part in the International movement was made by Henry Jasper, who has been named chairman of the local shut-in-day committee.

"This is an entirely altruistic movement on the part of the florists," Mr. Jasper said. "We want that to be entirely clear. Shut-in day is not to be construed as an attempt on the part of the florists to promote flower-selling on this day. On the contrary, it is our aim to deliver flowers and plants gratis to every bona fide shut-in we can reach on June 10."

"Shut-in day, which we will observe for the third time this year, is based on a fundamental idea. Usually, in June, nature is generous with her flowers. What more worthy use can be made of this surplus than to place it at the bedside of those unfortunate who, day after day, lie staring at four uninteresting walls and who seldom, if ever, are able to enjoy flowers."

In his announcement, Mr. Jasper declared that the florists need the public's help in making the worthy project an unqualified success. It is only through public co-operation that every possible worthy shut-in can be reached with flowers.

Names should be sent to Mr. Jasper by June 5th.

Ruth Ann and Lois, Mrs. Will Sporer and Charles, Mrs. Ralph Kennedy and Betty Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Balfour and Kathleen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson and Calvin, and R. C. Ferguson, had a family dinner at the Ferguson home. Rev. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart were also present. A good visit was had. R. C. Ferguson is 84 years old. A delicious dinner was served at the noon hour.

Murray Home Study Club.
The Murray Home Study club was entertained on the regular meeting day at the home of Miss Etta Nickles in Plattsmouth, with Mrs. Fanny Crosser as hostess.

A large percent of the members as well as a number of visitors were present to enjoy the excellent noon luncheon.

In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. Parks, presided over the business meeting, at which time it was voted to hold a picnic for the club members and their families, on the lawn of the Christian church on June 20, the picnic dinner to be served at noon. Various committees were appointed to make preparations for the dinner and the afternoon's entertainment which promises to be one of the outstanding social events of the club year.

As usual, the salute to the flag was given.

Mrs. Faris had charge of the lesson on "This Grandmothering Business," which was ably discussed by several of the ladies, grandmothers, and others.

An interesting debate was enjoyed on the question being "Resolved That Grandmothers Are Nuisances." The affirmative was taken by Mrs. Grace Kennedy and the negative by Mrs. A. G. Long and Mrs. J. H. Faris, with Mrs. W. W. Perry, Miss Lillian White and Mrs. Betty Barrows as judges, who decided in favor of the negative.

An appropriate reading was given by Miss Bessie Copenhagen, thus closing another very pleasant afternoon.

CAT CLAWS WIN IN RATTLE WITH A BATTLESLAKE

Berkeley, Cal., May 27.—Mrs. E. M. Juda's pet persian Monday won a catch-as-catch-can battle with a genuine rattlesnake.

Hearing a commotion in the yard, she told police, Mrs. Juda rushed outside to find the cat viciously clawing the rattle, preventing it from coiling. When she returned with a broom, the intruder was making its way back to the underbrush, apparently injured.

"The cat?" repeated Mrs. Juda. "Why, he was complacently flicking his paws."

BUS DRIVER DIES AT WHEEL

Chicago.—Lives of five passengers of a motor bus bound for Los Angeles were endangered when the driver, Joseph Kelly, 53, of Los Angeles, collapsed and died at the wheel in suburban Maywood. Death apparently was due to a heart attack.

George Swearingen of Lakewood, O., a passenger sitting beside the driver, saw Kelly slump over the wheel. Swearingen grasped the wheel and turned off the ignition, then steered the bus, a large automobile converted to the purpose, until it stopped.

Passengers, in addition to Swearingen were Jack Rabinski, 23, and John Machel, 22, both of Omaha, J. P. Lowe 25 of 663 So. 19th, Lincoln, and James Brandon, 27, of Dallas, Tex.
