

MURDOCK ITEMS

Emil Kuehn, of Fullerton, where he is engaged in farming, was a business visitor in Murdock for the day Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of County Commissioner Fred H. Gorder and wife, of Weeping Water, where all spent the day very pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig were visiting at Wymore at the home of the parents of Eddie, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Craig, of that place, they driving over on Sunday for the day and returning in the evening.

With the closing of the school year at Carleton, O. E. Bradford, who has been teaching there the past year and will return there the coming year, accompanied by his wife, spent two weeks visiting at the home of his parents after which they came to Murdock to spend a part of the vacation season.

L. Neitzel and wife were at Havelock last Wednesday, Mrs. Neitzel spending the afternoon at the home of their daughter, while Mr. Neitzel was attending a meeting of the directors of the Havelock Bank, of which Mr. Hitecock is an employe and official. While Mr. Neitzel was away, the store was looked after by Chris Kupke.

Installed New Plate Glass

The plate glass which was recently broken by a stone thrown by one lad at another, has been replaced with a new one, restoring the window, but at a considerable expense, and for the third time we wish to again mention the folly of throwing stones. Two windows have been broken in a short space of time since the reglazing of some of the streets, the larger stones offering a temptation to the boys to throw at one another. Let the past be a lesson and refrain from such dangerous amusement, boys!

Will Broadcast News

At a meeting of the Murdock Booster club which was held last Tuesday, it was determined to inaugurate the practice of broadcasting news of interest to Murdock and community, to be conducted by a young man who will be selected to devote a few minutes to this purpose, beginning at 12:30 p. m., or the noon hour, daily. This broadcast will include the weather report, news of importance from over the country and the local happenings of interest, as well as a brief review of the trade offerings of the business men of Murdock who are sponsoring the broadcast. This will be a matter of interest to many, and doubtless many will await the line call each day as their signal to listen in on the news.

Mrs. August Panska, who has not been in the best of health for some time, and especially since the operation which she underwent a few years ago, has found it necessary to undergo another operation. She came thru the ordeal in very good shape on last Tuesday and has rallied satisfactorily. Her many friends are hoping she may soon be able to return home again, restored in health.

Games for the Coming Week

There will be played under the flood lights at the Murdock park the coming week, four games, they being scheduled for Tuesday and Saturday evenings. The two Tuesday games to be between the Single Men of Murdock and the Lutherans, which promises to be a real battle, and following that Callahan vs. the Married Men. The Saturday night games will be between Wabash and Murdock High school, for the opener and the Murdock Fire Department against some worthy opponent yet to be selected. The lighted field enables the local teams to meet some of the best kitch-ball talent in the county, most of whom are regularly employed during the daytime, but enjoy playing ball nights as a means of recreation and healthful exercise.

Farewell for Mrs. Knosp

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie on last Monday, there was held by the Ladies Aid society of the Murdock church a very enjoyable farewell reception in honor of Mrs. H. R. Knosp, who with the husband and family are leaving for Callaway to make their future home. The members of the society are very sorry to lose their friend and fellow worker, but all join in wishing her many new friends in the west, where she is to make her home.

Rev. Weber Returned

In the allotment of ministers by the Evangelical Lutheran General Assembly last week, Rev. C. F. Weber, pastor of the Callahan and Wabash churches for the past year, was sent back here. Rev. Weber has made a splendid minister for these churches, being a hard worker and very devoted to the ideals of the church. His return is a matter of gratification to the congregations of both of the churches whom he will serve.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool departed last Wednesday noon for Ackley, Iowa, where the mother of Mr. Tool, Mrs. Leah Tool, makes her home and from where Mr. Tool came to Murdock a good many years ago. Mrs. Tool has visited in Murdock a number of times and is very well known by many of the people here. Mrs. Tool is 91 years of age and it has been the practice of the son and wife to spend Memorial day with her each year for a number of years.

New Minister for Murdock

In the allotment of ministers for the Evangelical churches, which was made at the conference held at Ithica last week, Harvey Schwab, the son of a former minister who served the people of Murdock well and faithfully a good number of years ago, was assigned to this place. The young man has been connected with one of the churches in Omaha for the past seven years, and comes to the charge here highly recommended as an active, earnest and consecrated young man, who should make a splendid minister.

Farewell for Rev. Knosp

Following announcement of the transfer of Rev. H. R. Knosp, who has been pastor of the Murdock Evangelical church for a number of years, to Callaway, in the western part of the church, a public farewell reception was arranged for the popular minister and his family. Visiting in Los Angeles

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Otto Elchoff and daughter, Mrs. Hendricks, departed for Los Angeles, at which place David Elchoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Elchoff and Clark Hendricks, son-in-law, are now residing. The wife of Mr. Hendricks will remain there, where her husband has employment, and if it is possible to dispose of the business here, Mr. Elchoff will go to the west as well. Otherwise, Mrs. Elchoff will return to Murdock.

Memorial Day—1934 and 1935

Memorial day one year ago was a very warm one the thermometer registering as high as 105, while on Thursday of this year the high mark was somewhere in the seventies with rain each day before and after. A year ago, vegetation was parched and pastures were burned out, the crying heed being for rain. This year, the ground is soaked with water and the crying need is for sunshine to sprout the planted corn and dry up the fields so the remaining corn crop can be planted. Quite a contrast, indeed!

Have Beautiful Place

We were visiting a short time ago while going about our work over the county, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Zaar north of Murdock and sure were surprised and pleased at the very beautiful grounds surrounding the home. The lily pool as a center piece, was surrounded with a profusion of tulips and other flowers that completely filled that portion of the spacious lawn. Other flowers surrounded the outer edge of the lawn and with the roses soon to bloom, this beautiful home is a striking contrast to many unkempt places over the country which might as well be beautiful if their owners would take the time and the pains to make them so.

Counties to Attack One Cent Gasoline Tax

Twenty-three Not Signed With FERA to Seek Distribution of Funds to Their Counties.

Following a conference held at Lincoln Friday by county commissioners and county attorneys of twenty-three Nebraska counties, an action was filed in the supreme court testing the right of these counties in the division of the one cent gasoline tax levied for relief purposes.

A number of the counties of the state have not signed with the FERA and have been denied their share of the gasoline tax funds to provide for relief in the counties of the state and to match the federal funds appropriated for that purpose. Among these counties is Cass as one of the twenty-three and while the one cent tax is levied on the gasoline sold in the county they have so far failed to receive their share in the distribution to care for the heavy burden of relief.

The 1 cent emergency gasoline tax for relief purposes is the subject of the main attack along with the state assistance bill. It is alleged that the house bill attempts to delegate to the state assistance committee power to determine what shall constitute needed assistance and for what purpose the funds collected under the tax are to be used and what counties shall benefit thereby.

It is alleged that the 1 cent tax is not general for public purposes in that counties not eligible to federal relief will receive no benefit other than old age pensions, if any.

A petition being prepared for filing in the supreme court asks for a declaratory judgment, for adjudication of rights and legal relations of the plaintiffs and other taxpayers as they may be affected by the law enacted in the petition and for adjudication of the rights of counties and cities.

The plaintiffs are to be five taxpayers of the state, Louis Smithberger of Stanton county, Robert Munderloh of Cuming county, Ernest Brock of Nemaha, Henry A. Peterson of Phelps county, and Thomas Stial of Colfax county.

Defendants named in the petition are Governor Cochran, Secretary of State Swanson, Treasurer Hall, Attorney General Wright as members of the state board of educational lands and funds, trustees of state assistance funds, W. B. Banning, director of the state department of agriculture and collector of all gasoline tax funds, also Frank D. Throop of Lincoln, Francis Heagey of Omaha, Gene Huse of Norfolk, A. F. Buechler of Grand Island, Herman Holm, Frank M. Coffey and Mrs. W. J. Holtz, all members of the state assistance committee.

In addition to the three county attorneys chosen to prosecute the suit other county attorneys will participate in the work. The counties being the suit are Cuming, Antelope, Keith, Kimball, Grant, Hooker, Banner, Sioux, Phelps, Nemaha, Seward, Saline, Sarpy, Merrick, Butler, Gosper, Arthur, Cass, Dawson, Colfax, Saunders, Wayne and Stanton. These counties allege they are taxed for relief and that they do not share in it while seventy other counties do share.
