

Elmwood News

Emmitt Cook and wife were over to Greenwood one day last week where they were visiting with friends and looking after some business.

Mrs. Hazel Dearing of Missouri Valley, Iowa, has been visiting in Elmwood for the past week, guest of her mother, Mrs. M. Walz and her sister, Mrs. Ralph Greene.

W. A. Atchison and daughter, Miss Ella, were over to Plattsmouth on Tuesday of this week where they were visiting with friends and looking after some business matters for a short time.

Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Douglas were over to Lincoln last Sunday and while there visited with Mrs. Judge Douglas and their daughter, Vesta whom they found in a very delicate state of health.

Wm. Winkler and daughter and a little friend of the daughter were over to Memphis last Tuesday afternoon, spending the day fishing. While they were away Mrs. Winkler was looking after the business at the service station.

Miss Helen Kuntz who formerly was employed by the Elmwood telephone exchange has been offered the position made vacant by the resignation of Miss Grace McCrorey and has accepted the proffered position and is now on duty as one of the regular operators.

The Rev. W. B. Bliss, pastor of the Methodist church of Elmwood who has been at the hospital undergoing a clinic, was able to return home last Sunday after a two weeks absence, and will take up his work at the church next Sunday, which is very pleasant news.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meyers of Fairbury were guests for the day last Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillet, Mrs. Meyers being their daughter. Mr. Meyers returned to look after his work on Monday while Mrs. Meyers and the children remained for a longer visit.

The Elmwood band was over to Callahan on Thursday of last week assisting in the furnishing of music at the four church Bible school picnic. The churches represented were Elmwood, Murdock, Wabash and the one known as the Louisville church and the Callahan church at which place the picnic was held.

Mrs. Lucy Lyle has been feeling not the very best with a severe cold and a very sore throat. However she has been keeping at the work at the telephone office, with two very capable operators. Just recently Miss Grace McCrorey has resigned to accept a position as deputy postmistress and we are sure she will make a good one. The former assistant postmistress, Ethel Tyson resigned when she was united in marriage to Mr. Marion McCrorey.

Married Tuesday Last Week.
Word comes of the marriage of Miss Edith Nelson of between Palmyra and Eagle where she has been residing on the farm of her parents and Mr. Myrl Miller who has been making his home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Miller four miles southwest of Elmwood. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents near Palmyra. They will reside on the farm near Elmwood.

were born to Mrs. Lloyd Robertson of Lincoln died last Sunday, being buried on Tuesday of this week at Lincoln. There were two girls and one boy, one of the girls which was weak died soon after birth while the other girl lived for about three weeks. The boy seems at this time to be very healthy. The mother is getting along nicely. Mr. Robertson is a nephew of Dr. G. G. Doughlas and wife.

Vacation at South Bend.
Miss Pauline Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Fitch of Elmwood and Miss Mae Buskirk have rented a cottage on the bank of the lake there where the sand and gravel pits have made a large expanse of water and where they will live during the school vacation. The young ladies are both teachers in the schools and they are taking this means of securing relaxation and at the same time having an opportunity to keep up their studies. Mr. Fitch took the daughter over last Tuesday and as the day was plenty warm he took a dip in the lake while there.

Charles Groves Dies in West.
Charles Groves who resided in this section of the country many years, and was married to Miss Mable Woods, passed away last Sunday at Willsonville, where the funeral was held at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon.

They moved from this vicinity to near Willsonville some twenty-eight years ago and where the wife passed away some eight years ago.

Messrs. Charles Woods and John Woods drove out early Tuesday morning to attend the funeral.

Sells Property to Omaha Party.
Frank Lorenz sold recently a farm belonging to the McCrorey Estate to John W. Gamble who was years ago superintendent of the Elmwood schools for the sum of $125 per acre, the quarter section bringing some $20,000.

Have Splendid Meeting.
With the work of the first degree the Masonic lodge of Elmwood had a very fine meeting last Saturday when a large number of visitors were present and with the work and a banquet a most enjoyable meeting was had. There were visitors from Alvo, Murdock, Greenwood, Weeping Water, Nehawka and Plattsmouth. Grand lodge members, Raymond Cook and W. A. Robertson of Plattsmouth, assisted in conferring the degree.

The Maxwell House.
The young men who have been manufacturing the airplane which by common consent has been dubbed the Maxwell House, and which has been for some time at the Miller farm south of Elmwood, has reached that period of completeness that it has been assembled and on last Sunday and during the days of this week the boys have been taxing about the field in which they have the machine. They have not attempted to raise the machine from the ground as there are some parts uncompleted as yet, and to make the attempt before the machine is completed and inspected by an experienced pilot would be worse than foolish. It is hoped by the coming Sunday all will be in readiness for the initial flight. Wm. Bolz of Palmyra was over with his plane and made an examination and expressed himself as feeling that the young men had done a good piece of work in its manufacture.

Attending School in Lincoln.
Myron Boyd who has been the efficient worker at the Trunkenbois service station working with Emil Rose now has during the very recent days been attending a barber college in Lincoln, fitting himself for a position in his chosen line and during his absence the position has been filled by Don Gonzales who is well qualified for the work at the station.

Married in Missouri.
Marion McCrorey and Miss Esther Tyson some time ago went to Rock Port, Mo., where they were united in marriage and returned to Elmwood some two months ago, not saying anything about their new found happiness but continued to live along in the even tenor of their ways. Until Frank Lorenz was fortunate in selling the McCrorey estate farm where Iva McCrorey has been living for a number of years, to John W. Gamble of Omaha. When the deeds had to be made transferring the title to Mr. Gamble they had to be signed by the heirs of which Marion was one and so was the new wife and when she was called upon to sign the deeds the matter of the marriage was divulged and the announcement of the wedding came also. The many friends are now extending their congratulations and are joined by the Journal.

Sketch of Mrs. Cora Jones, Long Time Teacher

For Ten Years Engaged in Plattsmouth City Schools; Laid to Rest at Old Home at Exeter.

Cora Belle Owens was born near Prairie City, Jasper county, Iowa, November 20, 1873. When but a few months old, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Owens, came as some of the early pioneers to Fillmore county and located on their homestead six and a half miles southwest of Exeter, Nebraska, and here Cora grew to womanhood, attending the district schools, then ungraded, and in which many of the high school subjects were taught, always with the idea that she would be a teacher. Thirty-five years of her life were devoted to this, her loved profession. Nine years in the rural schools of Fillmore county, one year in the Exeter school, two years in Malvern, Mills county, Iowa, and ten years in Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska. Her summer vacations were spent in summer schools, having attended Junior Normals held in Geneva, Fremont Normal, Peru Normal, University of Omaha, and University of Nebraska. Some summers were spent in educational trips. She faithfully attended all Nebraska Teachers Association conventions, and one year the National Educational Association which met in Boston, Massachusetts. Her entire life was immersed in her love of teaching. Her preference in pupils was only that of age, always loving best that exuberance of youth, that energetic, sometimes angry teachers called "the steam engine age," always she preferred the seventh and eighth grade pupils. Literally hundreds of children have been in her classes, and she had and held an interest in each individual pupil. Her chief pride and satisfaction when she read or heard of very successful men and women in the state and the country at large, was that she had once had them as pupils, and knew at that time, they would succeed. She studied the talents of her pupils and encouraged them to develop that which they loved to do. She explained her secret of discipline by saying that discipline, was no problem if pupils were kept interested and busy.

She counted among her best and loyal friends all her former pupils. On August 10, 1921, she was united in marriage to J. E. Jones of Plattsmouth, Nebraska. In September, 1929, she moved with her husband from Plattsmouth to Exeter, to be near her mother and family to whom she was ever devoted, going far beyond her own strength to serve those whom she loved.

She served one year as president of the Exeter Woman's club and for three years as chairman of the program committee. Her interest ever was in study clubs and community improvement, in schools, libraries, and public welfare.

Mrs. Jones was a member of the Evergreen Rebekah Lodge No. 20 at Exeter, Nebraska. She was preceded in death in her immediate family by her father, Lewis Dudley Owens, April 10, 1918. She is survived by a loving and devoted husband, her mother, Mrs. Harriet Owens of Exeter, three brothers, Frank M. of Lincoln, Ralph E. of Denver, Almon L., one sister, Dr. Claire E., both of Exeter, four nieces, one nephew, three great nieces, and four great nephews, a step-daughter, Mrs. Ethel Andrews of Shenandoah, Iowa, and a step-son, Glen C. Jones of Auburn, Nebraska, and their families, many other relatives, and a legion of friends.

Mrs. Jones departed from a busy and useful life June 19, 1935, at her home in Exeter. She was a member, formerly of the Geneva Congregational church, and later transferred her membership, with her husband to the Congregational church at Exeter.

Card of Appreciation
To our wonderful friends and neighbors of Exeter, Burgess, Fairmont, Geneva, and Plattsmouth, to each and every one, for your loving sympathy, your beautiful floral tributes, for deeds of kindness, your material gifts and untiring service, and words of respect and devotion to our departed one, we wish to express our deepest gratitude and sincere thanks. Especially do we wish to thank the Evergreen Rebekah Lodge for their impressive burial service, and Mr. A. E. Bashford for his wonderful sermon, the Farmer male quartet, Frank Farmer, and Mrs. W. P. Wallace for their beautiful, soulful music.—J. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. James Andrews and Family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jones and Family, Mrs. L. D. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Owens and Family, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Owens, Almon L. Owens, Dr. Claire E. Owens.

Weeping Water

Art Johnson is spending this week at the home of his brother, C. Wally Johnson at Friend, where he conducts a moving picture show.

Art Wright and wife were over to Plattsmouth last Sunday where they went to visit their twin babies and where they enjoyed the visit very much.

Harry A. Williams of Elmwood, salesman for the Cole Motor company was in Weeping Water last Monday looking after some business and was also visiting at the Cole Motor company place of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam P. Reed and Mrs. Bert Reed of Plattsmouth, were visiting with friends and former neighbors in Weeping Water last Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. L. N. Kunkel were guests of relatives and friends in Omaha for the day last Sunday, driving over in the new auto which they recently purchased.

About 30 friends gathered at a surprise basket dinner Sunday at the Earl Capfen home, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Stock, who were married Saturday.

About twenty young folks, all members of Mrs. Crede Johnson's Sunday school class, charivari'd Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Stock Monday night. They were invited in to spend the evening and given treats.

H. W. Michelsen and wife of Omaha the former being brother of Elmer Michelsen, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Michelsen where a very pleasant visit was enjoyed by all.

Tune in for This.
On Saturday of this week will be a treat for music lovers as the Misses Lola and Lorene Wagner, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wagner, have been prevailed upon to give a program beginning at 6 o'clock from the studios of KFAB at Lincoln. This will be both instrumental and singing by the young ladies.

Bears Were Too Friendly.
Miss Leona Michelsen who is at this time visiting in California on their trip which was via auto to the coast passed through the mountains and as they stopped at a tourist park in the mountains they were ushered into an enclosure as the bears are all too friendly or otherwise, for they come to the high fences around the cabins and sharpen their claws on the corners of the log cabins and which practice did not please Miss Michelsen in the least. However, they suffered no harm and have gotten past the place where the bears stay and are now in California. Miss Michelsen will remain for the summer.

A Pretty Home Wedding.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger was gathered last Wednesday evening a large number of close friends and neighbors to witness the wedding of their daughter, Miss Lavina Binger, to Mr. John A. Bolz of near Palmyra. The home had been decorated for the occasion and presented a very beautiful scene. The wedding lines were read by the Rev. E. S. Pangborn, pastor of the Methodist church of which the young people are members. Ralph Binger, brother of the bride, was best man, while Miss Mary Bolz, sister of the groom was maid of honor. Some forty of the relatives and close friends were present to witness the happy wedding. The young people will take a short trip, then return to their home in Weeping Water where the bride conducts a beauty shoppe and where she will for the present continue her work while Mr. Bolz will continue his farming operations and will drive to and from the farm to look after his work. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger and a very accomplished young woman and has been the successful manager of the Alon beauty parlor in Weeping Water.

The groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bolz, Jr., of near Syracuse. The Journal joins with their host of friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for the young couple as they step forth into the real activities of life.

Shower for Mrs. Stock.
Misses Barbara and Shirley Bates entertained Monday afternoon, at the Laurel Hotel; the occasion being a shower for Mrs. Forrest Stock. The afternoon was spent in making scrap books of Mrs. Stock's life. Later the bride was led to a table filled with gifts, which she opened and thanked each for. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

Kivett-Stock Nuptials.
A quiet wedding, attended only by members of the families, took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, when Miss Bessie Kivett, daughter of Mrs. Tom Gussett, became the bride of Forrest L. Stock, son of Mr. L. C. Stock. The ring ceremony was used. Rev. Pangburn of the M. E. church officiated. The bride wore a pink crepe dress with matching jacket and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. The groom wore the conventional blue. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. James Kivett, Mrs. Kivett also playing the wedding march. In the background was a trellis, entwined with lace fern and roses, with candles burning on either side. Decorations were in pink and white and in the dining room, where the bride's cake occupied the center of the table were pink roses and lace fern, flanked on either side by pink candles in silver holders. Refreshments consisted of ice cream, in the form of cups sitting in rose buds, cake, and punch. The young couple will be at home to their many friends in Weeping Water.
