Murray

Mrs. Walter Engelkemeier was visiting and doing some shopping in Omaha Saturday of last week.

Mrs. E. M. Stiner of Oklahoma City, Okla., is at this time visiting in Murray with her mother, Mrs. Susie Berger.

Edwin Austin was looking after some business matters in Omaha on last Saturday night, driving over to the big city in his auto.

Roy Gregg and family were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Froman, all enjoying a very pleasant day.

Harris Akin, salesman for the Ruse Motor Co. of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday looking after business for his company.

Irl Markland and wife of Weeping Water, were attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Kniss at the Otterbein church southwest of Murray.

L. D. Crosser was called to Omaha Tuesday of this week to look after some business matters in connection with the garage he maintains here.

John Livingston was a visitor in Murray last Tuesday morning and was looking after the sale of cars for the A. W. Propst Motor Co. of Nebraska City.

Peter Smith of Bloomfield, was a visitor in Murray last week, coming to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Emilie Kniss which was held last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Brown of Omaha were visiting in Murray for the day on last Monday and were as well looking after some business matters.

Elwood Snodgrass who was at the hospital in Omaha where he underwent an operation has so far recovered that he was able to return home and is now getting along nicely.

Dan Reynolds of Union, the man who conducts the service station there was a business visitor in Murray on Tuesday morning of this week driving over to see George E. Nickles.

Harry Albin was looking after some business matters in Omaha on Monday of this week, driving over to the big town in his car and bringing home with him some goods for the cafe.

W. O. Troop and daughter, Miss Lois, were over to Plattsmouth Monday of this week. Mr. Troop was looking after some business matters and Miss Lois was visiting with friends.

The members of the Murray Public Library held a session at the library building last Monday, perfecting plans for the serving of the public better in way of providing good reading.

Thomas Nelson was a visitor in Omaha last Sunday where he was a guest at the home of his son, Lawrence Nelson and where he was as well looking after some business matters.

The Mrasek Transfer company were over to Omaha on Tuesday of this week with two truck loads of hogs from the John Nottleman feeding yards, and which brought a very satisfactory price.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Webber were visiting with friends in Iowa for over the week end, they driving over and visiting for the day, returning to take up the work, Mr. Webber being employed on the river work.

Don Boyer of Red Oak has been here and occupied in the hauling of the river poles which were purchased by Tom Nelson and who his having them sawed into shed posts by Forest Cunningham at his mill south of town.

J. A. Scotten has completed a bridge last week and is again working on one this week at a point near the home of Mr. Claude Hutchinson. He is being assisted in the work by Fred L. Hill and others. Earl Mrasek was delivering materials to the site of the bridge.

Kingsley Kniss of Los Angeles, who was called here last week by the death of his mother, is remaining for another week to visit with friends in Murray and vicinity as well as at Plattsmouth and other points, expecting to depart for his home the first of the coming week.

The Murray Hadward company sold a new John Deere binder to Roy Gregg over near Nehawka last week and which was delivered by the Mrasek Transfer company. They have orders for two more as soon as they can be obtained, as harvest is near at hand. The wheat, which is ripening rapidly is of a very good quality and promises to yield fairly well.

Made the Crop Pay. Sam F. Latta who tried spinach in a mild form, putting in three-quarters of an acre, and with the other work was about all he could attend to, was rewarded by a bountiful crop, producing over sixteen tons which brought $10.50 per ton and was able to realize more than $150 for the amount he had. We are pleased that he was able to realize thus on his work.

Honor the Newlyweds. The people of Murray are pretty well pleased with Earl Mrasek and wife who were wedded a short time since and a number of his stunch friends gave this very popular couple a charivari and enjoyed a very fine treat which he very willingly was disposed to extend to the party of serenaders. That was early last week and later in the week on Thursday, the community to recognize the worth of these two young people gave a public reception for them and at which the entire community was present. A good time was had with a dance, treats, music and a very fine program. Wishes for a long, happy and prosperous life were expressed.

Everybody Should be Fair. That is in any line of business or endeavor. Trade unions and guilds recognize this and no one can get anywhere by mistreating someone else. Some one with an evident desire to give a back handed slap to someone they did not like and do it so no one would know it sent some items to the Journal which slipped through and for which we very much regret. The items which were manufactured, as there was no truth in them, were not offered to the writer, for they would have been turned down. Sure we want news of clean, fair quality. We are endeavoring to conduct a clean newspaper and to treat everyone with the utmost fairness and are expecting everybody to be man or woman enough to be fair in their handling of items for this paper.

Murray Police Court. For the infraction of the laws of the state and for resisting of the proper officers and for disturbing the peace, two young men from another town were arrested and when they appeared before Justice Charles H. Boedeker, II, he gave them a fine of $1 and costs and $5 and costs. The convicted men refused to pay the fine and costs and were sent to Plattsmouth where they were placed in the county jail long enough to lay out the fine and costs. In such instances it would seem that horse whipping would be the better.

Visited With Son in Camp. Henry Vest and the children were over to Blair last Sunday where they went to visit with Carl Vest who is with the CCC boys there. They all enjoyed a very fine visit with Carl and were able to get home before the heavy rain.

Murray Free Moving Pictures. The enterprising merchants of Murray who are behind the free moving picture show have been providing good entertainment for the people who come to Murray as the crowds who have been coming have crowded the streets so as to impede traffic, the show was moved to a side street, thus not interfering with the traffic passing through the city. A large crowd was present at the last show and all enjoyed a very fine picture.

Ready for New Wheat. The Robertson Elevator shipped some 6,000 bushels of corn out during the past week and also one car of wheat, thus cleaning out the elevator and now having the building empty and ready for the new crop of wheat which is rapidly ripening and as it looks some will be harvested yet this week as there are pieces now fully ripe.

Gave Pleasant Evening. Mesdames Elwood Snodgrass and H. M. Warthan were hostesses at a shower which was given last Friday at the H. M. Warthan home for the recent bride, Mrs. John Kettlehut, formerly Miss Ruth Hogue and at which a large number of the friends of the bride were present. A very fine time was enjoyed and many were the present, tokens of honor and esteem which the friends entertained for the bride were given.

Death of Old Resident in Boise, Idaho

Miss Carrie Holloway, 69, Dies in Western City—Daughter of One of the Old Families Here.

The death of Miss Carrie Holloway, 69, occurred on June 13th at Boise, Idaho, where she had made her home for the past thirty-five years. Miss Holloway has for some time been in poor health and was taken to a hospital in Boise where she passed away.

The deceased lady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Holloway, was born at Ottumwa, Iowa, November 1, 1866, and while still a child of tender years came west with her parents to Plattsmouth and Cass county where she grew to womanhood. She was engaged for a great many years in school teaching and during the term of her brother, Harvey Holloway, as sheriff of Cass county, she served as deputy in his office and cared for the book and office work. With the retirement of the brother from office, the family moved to the west and where they have since made their home.

In her residence in Boise, Miss Holloway was very active in the work of the Security Benefit association and for many years served as the secretary of the association.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ralph Call; one nephew, Harvey Call of Boise; one brother, Harvey Holloway, of Lost Hills, California, and two nephews and one niece, all residing in California.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE AT THE RITZ IN TECHNICOLOR

For the first time in her screen career, little Shirley Temple is revealed literally in her true and natural colors. A full-color Technicolor climax, in "The Little Colonel," new feature picture to be shown at the Ritz theatre, in Plattsmouth, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 7, 8 and 9, brings America's darling to her admirers exactly as she appears in life. It is a story, adapted from the book favorite, specially selected by Fox Film for this prodigy who sings, dances and acts with equal charm.

For Friday and Saturday the Ritz is also featuring a splendid picture, "The Mighty Barnum," with Wallace Beery in the roll of the great showman. The Ritz is cool and comfortable in the hottest of weather, and you can enjoy seeing the shows there seated in finely upholstered opera chairs.

COLONEL TROTT WILL COMMAND SIXTH BRIGADE

Col. Clement A. Trott, former commandant at Fort Crook, has been assigned to command the Sixth brigade with headquarters at Fort Douglas, Utah, it was learned Tuesday.

Colonel Trott was at the Omaha post from 1926 to 1930. He will assume command at his new post Sept. 1. He was recently recommended for promotion as a brigadier general. The promotion will become effective when he takes command of Fort Douglas. He is a graduate of the United States Military academy at West Point and started service as a second lieutenant of infantry in 1899.

His work at Fort Crook with the Seventeenth infantry created considerable comment. Colonel Trott emphasized military courtesy, military housekeeping and close order drill.

HERE FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Jack Elledge and family of Council Bluffs, are in the city for a visit over the Fourth of July at the homes of the relatives here and Jack to meet the many old friends in his boyhood home. Mr. Elledge had two brothers and a sister living here, W. H. and Grover Elledge and Mrs. George Barr as well as his uncle, John Richardson and family.

MUTZ FAMILY REUNION

The reunion of the Mutz family, many of the members of which reside in Cass county, will be held on Sunday, July 14th at the Morton

Park at Nebraska City. The members of the family and their descendants are all urged to be in attendance. In event of rain shelter will be provided for the gathering and big family dinner.
