VISITING GRANDPARENTS

Eleanor and Carolyn Brown, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in the city Sunday to spend the summer here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Doney. They have been frequent visitors here in the past and have a large circle of young friends who will be pleased to have the opportunity of visiting them in the next few weeks.

From Wednesday's Daily
Attorney Carl D. Ganz, of Alvo, was in the city today to look after some matters of business and visiting with friends.

SUFFERS ANNOYANCE

Dale Brumbaugh, of this city, engaged here in special work, has been more or less annoyed in the past ten days by the similarity of names with that of the young man charged with the wounding of George McKecker. The name of the young assailant is also Dale Brumbaugh, whose home is at Des Moines and as our local man was at Blair at the time of the trouble he has had many assume that he was the party involved. Mr. Brumbaugh wants the world to know that he is not mixed in any trouble and has not been involved in any crime.

Residents of City Witness Moon Eclipse

One of Finest Eclipses That Has Been Seen in Country for Many Years—Four Hour Duration.

Monday night the residents of this section had the privilege of witnessing one of the finest eclipses of the moon that has occurred in the memory of most of the residents here—the longest eclipse in fifty years and also one of the most beautiful.

The first shadows of the earth crept onto the moon surface shortly after 9 o'clock and from then to 11 o'clock the moon was gradually enveloped in the brassy hued rays of the earth shadow.

Emil Weyrich, local enthusiast in astronomy, with his powerful telescope, entertained a large group of the watchers at Garfield park where he had placed the machine and through which the progress of the earth shadow could be followed closely.

There were hundreds in all sections of the city who followed the progress of the eclipse closely and remained up to see the last of the shadows roll away and the moon once more shine in all of its glory of a mid-summer night.

VISITING IN THE CITY

Miss Olive Gass had as week-end guests, Miss Lucile Gass Buxton and Miss Grace Headlee.

These two young ladies are returning to their homes in Pennsylvania from the San Diego Exposition and other points of interest on the west coast.

Miss Buxton is a direct descendant of Patrick M. Gass, member of the Lewis and Clark Expedition of 1804. It is 131 years this month since her ancestor passed up the Missouri river on this expedition. Miss Buxton's family possesses all the relics and souvenirs collected by him on this expedition. Among them are the canteen he carried on this trip, a hand carved razor case made for him by their Indian guide, Sacajawea, whose statue may be seen at Three Forks, Montana and an original copy of the Journal of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, written by Patrick Gass.

Miss Buxton was much interested in the fact that the government boat "Patrick Gass" is at present frequently plying up and down the Missouri river, carrying engineers and materials from St. Louis to Omaha, following the same route as that taken by her ancestor in whose honor the boat was named.

HAVE PLEASANT MEETING

On Tuesday afternoon the members of the Round Robins, ladies club of south of this city, gathered at the pleasant home of Mrs. Sarah McNatt and daughter, Miss Emma.

The ladies had come prepared for needle work but as the day was so warm it was decided to have the time spent in a social manner. All of the members of the club are close neighbors and had a most delightful visit with each other and decided that as the warm weather of July was so severe and the work of the farms demanding the attention of the members that the July party be postponed.

The hostesses served a most delicious luncheon to add to the pleasures of the afternoon.

The next meeting of the club will be on August 14th at the home of Mrs. Charles Wolfe.

VISITS FRIENDS HERE

Edward E. Matuschall, attorney of Lincoln, was in the city for a few hours Sunday to visit with the old time friends. Mr. Matuschall is a member of the officers reserve corps and assigned to the 355th infantry, the reserve officers now being in training at Fort Crook where they will spend the next two weeks. During his university work Mr. Matuschall was one of the captains of the university ROTC.

RETURN FROM CAMP

The Plattsmouth boys who have been in attendance at the Boy Scout camp at Cedar Creek, returned home Sunday and report a real time. Outdoor life in the sun has tanned the boys and all enjoyed the fine training and the sports that were a part of their regular program.

UNION ITEMS.

The Union orchestra held its weekly practice last Friday evening, preparing a musical program for Sunday's church services.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Price, of Omaha, were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn.

There was a large crowd of people in Union to enjoy the free moving picture show last week. The picture was an especially good one.

Edgar Newton and family were guests in Union last Sunday, spending the day at the home of Mrs. Newton's mother, Mrs. Vesta Clarke.

John Banning and wife, of Alvo, were visiting in Union last Sunday, driving down and enjoying a very nice visit with their many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hammerstrom, of Omaha, brought the latter's mother, Mrs. Etta Bryan, to Union in their car last Sunday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Barritt.

C. E. Morris and family and Verle Ackley were guests last Sunday at the home of Silas Morris, residing near Louisville. While there, they enjoyed a swimming contest staged at one of the lakes in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harris came down from Plattsmouth last Sunday for a visit at the homes of Charles L. Greene and Phillip F. Rihn. Mrs. Harris is a sister of Mr. Greene and prior to her recent marriage was Mrs. Addie Bartlett.

Mrs. C. B. Smith and family, of Nebraska City, have been enjoying a visit from her father, who is here from his home in California. In company with his father-in-law, Mr. Smith visited in Union and Plattsmouth on last Monday morning, calling on old friends.

The ladies of the Baptist Missionary society are meeting today at the church and will look after some matters of business as well as enjoy some hot weather refreshments. The ladies are hard workers when it comes to advancing the best interests of the church.

Smith Clarke and family, of Fort Worth, Texas, who for many years made their home here, are visiting in Union at the present time, being guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. R. Frans, and other relatives and old friends. They expect to spend a week or ten days here.

Frank Bauer and John Roddy were at Lincoln Sunday, going over to take Anna Bauer there to catch a bus for the south. Later, they drove on to York, where they visited for the day at the home of W. E. Moore, finding that gentleman and his family enjoying the best of health and also having a good business. They visited there until late in the afternoon, when they started back home.

First New Wheat on Market
Arthur Foster was threshing wheat on Monday of this week, delivering the same to the Sites elevator. The wheat tested good quality and the yield was very satisfactory. This was the first new wheat received by Mr. Sites, although he has been getting a quantity of old wheat which has been in storage for a year or more.

Should Keep Cool Now
County Commissioner E. B. Chapman, Mrs. Myrtle Swan and Mrs. Fannie Eikenberry have all purchased new General Electric refrigerators and should be able to enjoy plenty of cool refreshing drinks and keep their food in perfect condition even in the hottest of weather.

Attending the Exposition
Mrs. Etta Bryan, sister of Mrs. W. N. Barritt, is here from her home in Omaha for a visit with her sister and friends in Union. Mrs. Barritt has just received a letter from her son, Dr. J. L. Barritt, who has been located at Oteman, Arizona, but is at present, with his family, attending the exposition at San Diego, Calif. The letter states there is a strike at Oteman just now and but very little business in the town.

Purchases Home in Union
Phillip F. Rihn, senior member of the firm of Rihn & Greene, last Saturday at the auction sale of the property of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt, was the high bidder, in the sum of $1,035, and accordingly becomes the new owner of the property. Mr. Rihn is expecting to make some very substantial improvements to the place, adding city water and furnace heat. This will make Mr. Rihn and family a very nice home and take them out of the rental category.

Has Returned to Her Home
Mrs. Grant Hackenberg, of west of Mynard, who was so severely injured in an auto wreck on Highway 75 on June 29, and was later brought to the home of her daughter, Mrs. P. F. Rihn, has been nursed back to health by the daughter and was able to return to her farm home last Sunday. The many friends of Mrs. Hackenberg will be pleased to know of her continued improvement, as the accident in which she figured was a most severe one.

Will Spend Some Time in West
Mrs. C. F. Herris departed a few days ago for Los Angeles, where she will visit for a short time, also at other points in California. After remaining for some thirty days in California, she will go to Washington for a visit with a number of friends in that state, returning home via the northern route, with stop offs at a number of places along the way. The entire trip will consume more than three months, and she does not intend to return home until the latter part of October, which is the time allowed in her ticket for completion of the journey. All are wishing her a most pleasant time and the enjoyment of many new and interesting sights.

Visiting in the South
Miss Anna Bauer departed Sunday from Lincoln for Oklahoma City, at which place she will visit for a week or ten days at the home of Harold Nickles and family. On her return, she will be accompanied by Punk Deede and the little sister, who will visit here until time for the opening of school in the south. Frank can get along nicely without a housekeeper, but he is rather anxious that the little girls get here as soon as possible.

Visiting with Friends Here
Mrs. William Meek and daughter, of Marion, Virginia, arrived in Union the fore part of this week, coming to visit with their many friends and relatives here and at Nehawka, as well as at other places in the county. Mrs. Meek was formerly Miss Copenhaver, being a sister of S. W. Copenhaver, of Union, and of Mrs. J. H. Farris, of Murray. They will visit here for several weeks before returning to their home in the east.

Will Make Home in West
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Merritt, who have made their home in Union for more than thirty years, on last Saturday held a sale of their home and other property and have departed for Kentucky, where relatives of Mr. Merritt reside. After visiting there for a time, they expect to go to California, where they will meet the brother of Mrs. Merritt, Wayne Lewis, who has been here for some time, at Los Angeles, and will eventually locate on the Pacific coast and make their home there.

Home from the East
Miss Louise Foster, who has been with her aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Foster, of Omaha, on a trip through the east that extended over the past week or ten days, has returned home. They were accompanied on the trip by a lady who is employed as a teacher in the Omaha public schools and who has recently completed the writing of a book, which she took with her to eastern publishers to see about having the same printed. Their travels were largely through Illinois and Indiana.

Parked on the Highway
Three of the celebrators of Bacchus carried on their celebration to such a degree that they became sleepy and stopped their car on the curve leading from Highway 75 to Highway 24, opening both doors, presumably to get more air, slumbering peacefully on until they were discovered by Charles Land, the duly qualified constable of Liberty precinct, whose duty it is to see that the law is obeyed—and it happens that the law denies anyone the privilege of parking across the highway and then going to sleep.

It was with some difficulty that Constable Land was able to awaken the three sleepers, and when he did get them aroused they were in an ugly mood, one of them taking a bat at the officer and striking him along the side of the head. The beligerent celebrant, however, mistook the prowess of Mr. Land, and it was not long until the constable had the entire trio in jail, where they were held until bonds were provided for their appearance in court Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Judge Ralph Opp was to hear the charges.

AWAY TO SCHOOL
Sunday afternoon, Miss Elizabeth Wiles and Miss Velma Fulton left for Peru where they will attend summer school.

DEPART FOR CALIFORNIA

Monday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Milford B. Bates and children, Texanna, Milford and Roberta, departed by auto for Los Angeles, their former home and where they are expecting to locate again.

Mr. Bates and family have made their home here for the past year where he has been connected with the Journal, owned by his aunt, Mrs. R. A. Bates.

While here the family made a great many friends who will regret greatly to see them leave and trust that they may enjoy the greatest success in the old home in the west where Mr. Bates has a very pleasing offer.

En route to the west they are planning on stopping at Yellowstone Park for a short stay, they making the trip to the west by auto.

COOKING CLUB MEETS

The Clever Cooking club met at the home of Wilma Livingston July 10. Each member present answered the roll call by a recipe which she had good luck with. The members drew lots for captains of two teams which are going to compete. Josephine Fitch is one captain, Lottie Fitch is the other. The team in which each member completes their problems first is to be given a picnic by the other side. Games planned by our hostess were enjoyed by everyone. Then Wilma and her mother served lovely refreshments.

Our next meeting will be held on July 31, instead of July 24, at the Schafer home.
