

Very Frequently Desired

The beauty of pipe organ music commends it to all, and a large percentage of those who make use of our funeral home elect to include, as a part of the services, at least one or two selections on our pipe organ.

Few facilities offered by this beautiful and modern funeral home are more appreciated than this.

Miss Asbin is a teacher in the Canada schools and where they have ten months school each year and only two months vacation.

A band of wandering gypsies entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chriswiser while Mrs. Chriswiser was away from the house and were rapidly pillaging the home when she returned and found the men of the party pillaging the home. She objected and they mistreated her shamefully by pounding and bruising her. She made her escape and ran to a neighbor where she telephoned for the sheriff, but when he arrived they had made their escape.

The families of Chester Sporer of near Mynard and Martin Sporer of south of Murray, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of their mother, Mrs. Wm. Sporer and son, Charles, where they came to visit with the mother, who could not get away as she has been kept to a wheel chair. A very good time was had by all and a very fine dinner as well. Mrs. Sporer has her chair wheeled into the sun where she takes a sun-bath which she is sure is helping her.

Fish at Fremont Sunday.

Joe Richter, Delbert Jennings and Jerry Jennings, were the members of a party who went to Fremont last Sunday where it is said there is good fishing and they spent some five or six hours courting the friendship of the fish of the Platte river. They caught a number so great they did not care to count them, but a conservative estimate said that there was about fifty pounds. They tired of fishing at about four in the afternoon and jumped in their car and came home.
