David West was a visitor in Omaha last Monday morning and in the afternoon was looking after some business in Lincoln.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore was a visitor in Nehawka Monday of this week, and was a caller on his friend, Dr. Henry W. Walters while here.

Herbert Kuntz, the blacksmith, was in Murray to the sale and made the purchase of some things necessary for his blacksmith shop.

Mesdames W. O. Troop and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Gorder, were in Omaha last Friday looking after some shopping and visiting with friends.

Charles Bates has completed the threshing of his wheat and found the yield for the crop to be thirty bushels to the acre which is a very fair yield.

Paul Dean who has been visiting for some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole where he has enjoyed a very fine time, returned home Sunday from Weeping Water.

Little Dorothy Dean who has been visiting for the past three weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Wiles, returned last Monday after enjoying a very pleasant visit.

W. O. Troop was having his threshing done Tuesday of this week, and was getting the annual work of his hands. Charles R. Troop was also down assisting the brother in the work.

Mrs. John Opp who was brought home some time ago from the hospital is now showing improvement, although her advancement is not so rapid, it is hoped that it will be of a permanent character.

Robert Wunderlich has had a thumb which became infected and has been causing this gentleman a great deal of pain. He had the member lanced last Monday which has relieved it somewhat.

Lee Creamer who has been rather poorly and had been kept at home on that account is feeling better at this time and now going after the work again rough shot and trying to catch up with the various jobs again.

Parr Young and family were in Weeping Water last Friday attending the funeral of the little seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrensen who was drowned at the swimming resort at Louisville last week.

Henry Ross who has devoted a good deal of space to the growing of wheat in cultivation is now getting well along with the harvesting and threshing, having nine men employed in the work.

Mrs. Charles Ballard of Kansas City was a visitor in Nehawka for the past few days, to spend the week with the husband who is employed with the stone interests in Nehawka. She returned to their home in the south later.
