Young People Announce Fact of Marriage

Marriage of Miss Edith Short to Lawrence Leonard and Marjorie Short to John Galloway.

Mr. and Mrs. James Short of Omaha are announcing the marriage of their daughters, Miss Edith and Mr. Lawrence Leonard of Murray and Miss Marjorie to Mr. John Galloway of Omaha, a former resident here. The wedding of the young people was celebrated on Easter Sunday, April 21st at Avoca, Iowa, and was kept a secret from even the family until Saturday.

The two brides are popular in a large circle of friends in Omaha where they have grown to womanhood and both are graduates of Technical high school.

Mr. Leonard is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Leonard of near Mynard and he has grown to manhood in that community and was graduated from the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1932 and since that time has been engaged in farming in this county and which he expects to continue, and his bride making their home on the farm.

Mr. Galloway is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Galloway of near Cedar Creek and he has grown up in this community, graduating here in the class of 1931. He made his home here until a few months ago when he located in Omaha and is now engaged with the Omaha Street Railway Co., and he and his bride expect to make their home in that city in the future.

The many friends of the young people will join in their best wishes to them for many years of happiness and success in the future.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PULS

The funeral of Mrs. William Puls, Sr., was held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Eight Mile Grove Lutheran church, of which faith the deceased had been a member since her girlhood.

The cortege left the late home at Murray after a short service there and arrived at the church where a large number of the old friends and neighbors had gathered for the last rites.

Rev. A. Lentz, pastor of the church gave the last blessings of the church to the departed and gave a fine tribute to her long and useful life in the community and her devotion to her family and faith that had been features of her long life.

Both the German and English choirs were present and gave two numbers, "Asleep in Jesus," and "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," in English and "Where Shall the Soul Find Rest," in German. Mrs. A. Lentz presided at the organ for the services.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery in this city, the pall bearers being grandsons of the departed lady, Harry Puls, Harold Puls, Lester Gansemer, John L. Hild, Verner Hild and Leonard Lutz.

CHANGE IN LAW FIRM

Dissolution of the law partnership of Varro E. Tyler and Lloyd E. Peterson of Nebraska City was announced Saturday.

Raymond Frerichs, who has been associated with the two for a short time, will be associated with Mr. Tyler in the future.

The firm of Mr. Tyler and Mr. Frerichs will be situated in the Meyer building, where they have been.

Mr. Peterson will be situated in offices over the Otoe County National bank, 805 Central avenue.

Miss Marjorie Booth will be Mr. Peterson's office assistant. Mrs. Glen Woodbury will be assistant in the Tyler and Frerichs office.

VISITS IN CITY

From Monday's Daily
Thomas Dunbar, one of the well known members of the Otoe county bar, was in the city for a short time today looking after some matters in the district and county courts. Mr. Dunbar and family have been spending the week end at Omaha with relatives and he was en route back to Nebraska City to attend to his legal business after the short outing.

RECEIVES $20 FINE

From Monday's Daily
Robert Dickey was arrested Sunday evening by Officers Roy Stewart and J. E. Lancaster for having imbibed too freely of the sparkling spirits that caused him to lose his usual poise and which led to the doors of the city jail swinging open for his reception. This morning before Judge C. L. Graves he was given a fine of $20 and costs and with the proviso that if he failed to work out the sentence that the menu would be bread and milk.

Wilson Family Hold Reunion Near Murray

Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Beins, east of Murray, was the scene of a very pleasant gathering of members of the J. A. Wilson family, who joined in the annual event to honor David Wilson and family of Bentley, Kansas, who are visiting relatives here.

The members of the family gathered at the noon hour to partake of a delicious dinner that had been arranged for them and which was such as can be found only in a Cass county home, fried chicken being the chief feature of the event.

After the dinner the time was spent in visiting among the members of the family until late in the afternoon when all were invited to partake of the ice cream and cake that proved the close of the delightful day of reunion.

Those who attended the event were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Cedar Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Beins and family, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beins and family, Dunbar; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wilson and family, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilson, Union; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson and family, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson and family, Union; Mr. and Mrs. A. Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves was the scene of a very pleasant family gathering, all of their children being home to honor the birthday anniversaries of their sons, Clyde Howard and Carl Burton Graves, the 28th anniversary of Carl occurring on August 7th and the 29th anniversary of Clyde on August 10th.

The day was spent in visiting and the enjoyment of a fine dinner.

Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Graves and sons, Robert and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thimman, Joseph Graves, Miss Mary Jane Mark, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graves and daughter, Maxine.

HERE FROM UNION

From Monday's Daily
H. C. Ross of the vicinity of Union, was in the city today to look after some business matters and while here was a caller at the Journal to renew his subscription to the semi-weekly edition of the paper. Mr. Ross reports that the threshing is now in progress in his section of the country and on his farm the wheat yield has averaged sixteen bushels and the oats some thirty bushels to the acre. He is also preparing to thresh out the remainder of his crop this week if possible while the weather is dry.

DEPART ON VACATION

Late Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chriswiser and Miss Ruth Ferris, sister of Mrs. Chriswiser, departed for a short vacation to the north. They are making the trip by auto and expect to stop at Watertown, South Dakota, where they will renew acquaintances with the old time friends whom they have not seen for a number of years. They will probably drive on to the Minnesota lakes before returning home.

Guenther Family Holds Annual Reunion Sunday

Descendants of Founders Meet at Home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sattler, Jr., for Reunion.

Sunday the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Sattler, Jr., in the south portion of the city was the scene of a most delightful gathering of the members of the Guenther family, long time residents of this portion of Cass county.

The attractive home and the spacious grounds made an ideal setting for the family group and here the time was spent most delightfully in visiting and games that added to the pleasantness of the event.

The picnic dinner, served at the noon hour was one of the chief features of the day and which embraced all that could be desired to add to the pleasantness of the reunion and the long table at which the members of the family were seated bore all of the dainties that could be wished.

During the afternoon, two of the younger members of the group, Lavina Troop of Murray and Janis Schmidtman of this city gave clever numbers, Lavina being hard in several songs and tap dancing, while Janis gave several delightful readings that reflected the greatest credit on the young people.

OLD RESIDENT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dunn and daughter of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, arrived in the city Sunday for a visit here with old time friends. Mr. Dunn is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Dunn, long time residents of this community and where he was born and spent his younger years, the family later moving to the south. He is busy renewing old acquaintances with the boys and girls with whom he was a schoolmate in the past.

Quarry Worker Injured in Explosion Monday

Oscar Melander Suffers Severe Injuries at Thompson Quarry as Blast Suddenly Explodes.

Oscar Melander, a young stone quarry worker employed at the Thompson plant south of this city, was seriously injured Monday afternoon in the premature explosion of a dynamite charge.

The force was engaged in blasting out rock and a charge had been placed by the young man and in some manner the fuse burned more rapidly than anticipated and he was unable to get in the clear as the charge exploded and dirt and rock was hailed around the worker.

His arms and face were peppered with the small particles of rock and which caused many painful injuries and the most serious of which was to his eyes. There were several small particles that penetrated the eyes and caused lacerations which may give him a great deal of trouble.

The injured young man was brought to this city to the office of Dr. R. Westover and given temporary treatment and later taken to the Methodist hospital at Omaha where he will be cared for until the full extent of the injuries to his eyes is determined.

HOLD FAMILY GATHERING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Yelick was the scene of a very pleasant family gathering on Sunday which was to honor the passing of the eighty-first birthday of Mrs. W. B. Rishel, mother of Mrs. Yelick, as well as the birthday anniversaries of several other of the members of the family, it being the 25th anniversary of Mrs. Carl Hall, the 21st birthday of Mrs. Floyd A. Yelick and also that of Earl E. Carr.

There were some fifty-seven in the party and the day was featured by the fine dinner that was served at the noon hour and when the array of good things were offered for the delight of the jolly party. The birthday guests were showered with the well wishes of the members of the group on their anniversaries.

Popular Young Man Receives Law Degree at U. of N.

James Frederick Begley Given Degree of Bachelor of Law at Close of University Summer School.

Among the students at the University of Nebraska summer school to receive their degrees at the close of the session was James Frederick Begley, son of the late Judge James T. Begley, long a distinguished figure on the district bench of the state. The son has chosen to follow in the footsteps of his father in the legal profession and is now completing his work at the law school of the state university in his work that will entitle him to become one of the members of the bar of the state.

James has made an excellent record at the state university after a very fine four years in the Plattsmouth high school from which he graduated in the class of 1931. In his school work he maintained a high standard and was an active figure not only in his academic work but in the athletic and musical departments of the school and his completion of his successful work at the state university will be most pleasing to his many friends over the city.

The young man has a fine personality with all of the pleasantness of his distinguished father and the ability to grasp questions that come to his attention and should make a great success in the work of his profession.

ROTARIANS GO FLYING

The weekly luncheon of the Rotary club was enlivened Tuesday by the graphic story of Robert M. Walling of his plane trip from Omaha to Los Angeles a few weeks ago. The speaker told of the great array of country that spread beneath the plane, the great mountains, valleys and the desert land that they swept over in comfort at the height of some 2,000 feet and he also told of the fine view that the plane passengers had of the great Boulder Dam which is now nearing completion at Las Vegas, Nevada and which is destined to help supply southern California with water.

Fred I. Rea, past president, discussed the plans for the PWA work as had been given here a week ago by District Engineer Young and suggested some of the things that might be accomplished by the residents of the community in permanent improvement through the use of these relief funds.

The vacation roll of the club is very high and the meeting was presided over by Judge A. H. Duxbury, a past president and the songs were led by Dr. R. P. Westover in the absence of George Jaeger, the regular song leader.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Robert G. Reed, who has been with her husband at Lincoln for the past ten days, returned home Sunday in company with Mrs. James G. Mauzy. Mrs. Mauzy visited for a short time at Lincoln and found that Mr. Reed was very much improved at the U. S. Veterans' hospital so that Mrs. Reed was able to return home.

ELECT DELEGATES

At the congregational meeting of the First Methodist church the delegates to the annual conference at Omaha, September 10th, was named. For the position of delegate, J. Howard Davis was named and George A. Kaffenberger, one of the long time members of the church named as alternate to the conference.

Herman Thomas to be M. P. Agent at Nebraska City

Well Known Employee of Missouri Pacific Receives Appointment to Important Position.

Herman L. Thomas, who for the past twelve years has served as Missouri Pacific agent in this city, has been appointed to the position of agent at Nebraska City, one of the most important stations of the railroad in eastern Nebraska.

The appointment to the new position will be effective this week and Mr. Thomas enter on the duties of his new charge as soon as possible.

The news of the transfer will be pleasing to the friends to learn that he will have the larger station where the Missouri Pacific has a much larger volume of business but will bring a regret among the friends that he must leave this community where he has a large circle of friends.

Mr. Thomas has been very active in the community life and has served as city clerk here for three terms and been active in all civic enterprises. The family has also been prominent socially as Mrs. Thomas has been head of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Presbyterian church groups as well as the Eastern Star and other organizations.

The Thomas family have a very pleasant home here which the change in the stations will make necessary for them to give up to make their home in the Otoe county city.

No announcement has been made as to the successor of Mr. Thomas at the local station.

FUNERAL OF PAUL MILZ

The funeral service of Paul Milz, sergeant of the 17th infantry, was held on Tuesday afternoon at the Service club at Fort Crook, at which he had been stationed during his three enlistments.

There was a large group of the relatives and associates of the departed in attendance at the services which were conducted under the auspices of the 17th infantry.

Captain Harkins, regimental chaplain, conducted the simple and impressive services at the fort and also at the grave, bringing to the relatives and the soldier associates comforting thoughts in their bereavement.

The Seventeenth infantry band assisted in the services and escorted the cortege to the boundaries of the military reservation as the funeral party departed for this city for the interment at Oak Hill cemetery.

The body was accompanied by an escort of the company of which Sergeant Milz had been a member, as well as the soldier pall bearers and firing squad.

At the grave here a short service was held and the body consigned to the last rest, the firing squad from Fort Crook giving the soldiers last salute as the body was consigned to grave.

Mrs. Milz, seriously injured was at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha and unable to attend the services but is now showing some improvement which is very encouraging to the members of the family.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Tuesday evening Mrs. Chester Wiles was hostess at a most charming miscellaneous shower at her home at Mynard, honoring Mrs. Edward Britton, of Omaha, formerly Miss Riene de Les Dernier, a schoolmate at Plattsmouth high of Mrs. Wiles.

The evening was spent in playing "buncho" and in which Miss Mary Swatek was awarded the prize for her skill.

The guest of honor was showered with a large number of very beautiful gifts, these being arranged in a large cardboard wedding cake that was presented the bride and she requested to open and view the remembrances of the friends.

A suitable hour dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. C. L. Wiles and Mrs. Henry Albert to complete a most enjoyable occasion.
