

We Are Enthusiastic

Some persons may wonder why we mention our funeral home so often, why we are so enthusiastic about it. The answer is simple enough, and those who have been in our home can understand our attitude.

cause we know there are many persons who have never seen it, who do not know how well it can serve in time of need. And we are enthusiastic because the home warrants enthusiasm; it is such a splendid place, a perfect temporary home.

MYNARD WINS FROM PACKERS

From Wednesday's Daily
The Mynard kittenball team last evening took the Norfolk Packers for a 6 to 4 victory at Athletic park, making their hits count in the critical stages of the game. The Mynard team opened in the first with hits by Hild, Zimmerman, Salsburg and Krejci, that netted two runs. In the third the boys from the south started things when Ernie Hild again led the attack and when the last of the Mynard team was retired there were three additional runs over the plate. Salsburg scored the final run for Mynard in the fifth.

The Packers scored one in the second when Rolf and Shrader hit, while they added two in the third on the hit of Bourne and the home run of Les Thimigan. Scuroto scored the last run in the sixth when he hit safely and tallied on the hit of Thimigan.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Tuesday at the Methodist hospital at Omaha, Mary Catherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wetenkamp of Mynard was operated on for the removal of her tonsils and adenoids. The patient came through the ordeal nicely and it is hoped she may be home in a short time. Her sister, Mrs. Frances Carneal remained at the hospital with her last evening.

HONOR DEPARTING FRIEND

Tuesday afternoon the members of the bridge club of which Mrs. H. L. Thomas has been a member, joined in a charming farewell to their friend who is leaving the city to make her home at Nebraska City, Mr. Thomas being appointed there as M. P. agent.

The farwell was held at the pleasant home of Mrs. Harley Wiles which was very attractively arranged for the 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon, the bright fall flowers and glowing candles adding their touch to the scene.

The ladies after the luncheon enjoyed the passing hours in bridge and in which Mrs. Phillip Hirz received the first honors and Mrs. W. C. Soennichsen the second prize. Mrs. Thomas was presented with a remembrance by the friends of the club.

Those enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. Phillip Hirz, Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt, Mrs. W. C. Soennichsen, Mrs. W. V. Ryan, Mrs. James G. Mauzy, Mrs. Harley Wiles, Mrs. Everett Pickens, Christine Soennichsen and the guest of honor, Mrs. Herman Thomas.

WHOSE HAT?

W. R. Holly, past commander of the local American Legion and general service man booster, returned from the Beatrice convention of the Legion Tuesday night and minus a hat. Roy had selected one of the latest and most chic models from his clothing department at Soennichsen for use at the convention and which was the center of attraction from all, especially the Auxiliary ladies. Tuesday at the Paddock hotel while the members were frolicking as only the vets on a holiday do, a hat was discovered lying around the room and in some way started in on the demolishing of the headpiece and an which Mr. Holly entered with full spirit. As someone leaped with both feet on the hat the discovery was made that it was Roy's choice straw and many and bitter were the tears shed. The moral: Pride goeth before a fall.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Frances Starkey who has been visiting the past week at the R. C. Jahrig home departed for her home at Des Moines, Iowa, Friday night. She is employed in the sales department of Yonker's Bros. large department store in Des Moines and will resume her work Monday.

HEAR WEEPING WATER CASE

Monday the county court was made the scene of the presentation of what seemed a neighborhood battle from Weeping Water and in which Ross Shropshire, of that place seemed to be placed in a hot spot by the vigor of the feeling of the parties.

Mr. Shropshire was charged with violation of his parole preferred by residents of the community where he lives and from the testimony flared the apparent feeling that several of the families held and in which it was evident that the defendant was the target of a move to have him returned to prison.

During the hearing of the case several parties became involved in a verbal battle that made necessary Deputy Sheriff Walling quieting the tumult among those who were seeking to all explain their grievances at once but in which the unfortunate defendant had no voice.

In the progress of the case the name of Jack Wise was brought forth as having sold liquor at Weeping Water and accordingly the sheriff and deputy visited there and returned Monday with Mr. Wise to face a charge of selling liquor without a license. To the charges he entered a plea of not guilty and the hearing set for Thursday.

Shropshire is being held here as a witness against Wise and it is expected that he will then probably be released.

WINS HIGH HONOR

I. L. Kocian, representative of the Metropolitan Insurance Co., of New York, having a complete quota for 1935, has been notified that he has received a trip to the sales congress to be held on Mackinac Island, Lake Michigan. Mr. Kocian has been with the company here the past year and a half. This will be a commendation and business trip with all expenses paid. Mrs. Kocian will visit with the relatives in Grand Island during the absence of the husband, who is expecting to leave here September 3rd and will return September 9th.

ARRIVAL OF NEW SON

The home of Mr. and Mrs. August Peteret, southwest of this city, has been made very happy by the arrival there of a fine son and heir. All are doing nicely and the occasion has brought a great deal of happiness to all of the family circle.
